-= the BBC, television and. radio -=
-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-

The first incident in June 1990 was when. a BBC newsreader made what seemed to be a reaction to something which had happened in my. home, and out of context. of what they were reading. My first reaction was disbelief; nothing of the sort had. ever happened before, the idea that such a thing could occur had not crossed. my mind, yet there was no doubt of what had just taken place. My disbelief eroded. as this recurred time after time. Besides the news, offenders included. shows such as Crimewatch (!), Newsnight, and "entertainment" shows. There seems to be very. little moral understanding among the people who make these programmes; they just. assume they will never be caught, so they carry on without. a thought for the illegality or amorality of what they do. The only time I ever. heard a word raised in doubt was by Paxman being. interviewed by someone else (I think by Clive Anderson). back in 1990; referring to the "watching" he said it troubled him, and when asked by the host. what you could do about it, replied "Well, you could just switch. it off" (meaning the surveillance monitor in the studio).. He clearly didn't let his doubts stand in the way of continued surreptitious. spying from his own or other people's shows, though.

Now you're convinced this is a troll, aren't you?. This story has been the subject. of much debate on the uk.* Usenet newsgroups for over a year, and some readers believe it. to be an invention (it has even been suggested that a group of psychology students. are responsible!), others think it symptomatic of a. derangement of the author, and a few give it credence. Quite a few people. do know part or all of the story already, so this text will fill in the gaps in their knowledge. For. the rest, what may persuade you of the third possibility is that some of the. incidents detailed are checkable against any archives of radio and TV. programmes that exist; that the incidents involve named people (even if. those hiding in the shadows have. not made their identity or affiliations evident), and those people may be persuaded to come out with the truth; and that. the campaign of harassment is continuing today both in the. UK and on the American continent, in a none-too-secret fashion; by. its nature the significant risk of. exposure increases with time.

On several occasions people. said to my face that harassment from the TV was happening. On the first day I worked in Oxford, I spent the evening. in the local pub with the. company's technical director Ian, and Phil, another employee. Ian made a few references to me and said to Phil,. as if in an aside, "Is he the bloke who's been on TV?" to. which Phil replied, "Yes, I think. so".

I made a number of efforts to find the bugs,. without success; last year we employed. professional counter-surveillance people to scan for bugs (see later) again. without result. In autumn 1990 I disposed of my TV and watched virtually no television for the. next three years. But harassment from TV stations has gone on for over. six years and continues to this day. This is something that many people. obviously know is happening; yet the TV staff have. the morality of paedophiles, that because they're getting away with it they feel no. wrong.

Other people who were involved in the abuse. in 1990 were DJs on BBC radio stations, notably disc jockeys from Radio 1 and other. stations (see the following section). Again, since they. don't have sense in the first place they can't be. expect to have the moral sense not to be part of criminal harassment.

That's exactly what we did. We went to a competent, professional. detective agency in London, paid them over 400 quid to debug our. house. They used scanner devices which go to over 1 GHz and would pick. up any nearby transmitter in that range, they also checked the. phones and found nothing... but if the tap was at the exchange,. then they wouldn't find anything, would. they?

CS: >Doesn't this suggest to you that. there are, in fact, no bugs to be found?

You can assume that they've done this sort. of thing to other people in more "serious" cases, where. they would know the targets would suspect the presence of electronic surveillance. So. they will have developed techniques and devices which are. not readily detectable either by visual inspection or by electronic means. What those techniques might be, I couldn't. guess.

In this case, the existence of. bugging devices was clear from the beginning, and they "rubbed it in" with what was said. by the boy on the coach. It was almost as if they. wanted counter-surveillance people to be called in, who they. knew would fail to detect the bugging devices, causing loss of credibility. to the other things I would have to say relating to the harassment.

I did all the things someone in my situation would do to try to. find the bugs.. In addition to calling in professional help using electronic counter-surveillance, I made a. close visual inspection of electrical equipment,. plus any points where audio or video surveillance devices might have been concealed. Of. course, I found nothing. Normal surveillance "mini-cameras" are quite noticeable and. require visible supporting circuitry. It seems to me the best. place to put a small video surveillance device would be additional to a piece of electronic equipment. such as a TV or video. It would be necessary. to physically break in to a property to fit such. a device.

Capital Radio. DJs have been "in on it" from the start. One of the first things I heard in the summer of 1990 was from a Capital DJ who said,. "If he listens to Capital then he can't be all. bad" (supportive, you see. We're not bastards). Much of what came over the radio in 1990 is now. so far away the precise details have been obliterated by time.. No diary was kept of the details, and although archives if. they exist may give pointers, the ambiguity of. what broadcasters said would leave that open to re-interpretation.

In spring 1994, Chris Tarrant. on his Capital morning show made an aside to someone else in the. studio, about a person he didn't identify. He said, "You know this bloke? He. says we're trying to kill him. We should be done for attempted. manslaughter".

That mirrored something I had said. a day or two before. What Tarrant said was understood by the staff member. in the studio he was saying it to; they said, "Oh no,. don't say that" to Tarrant. If any archives exist of the morning show (probably unlikely) then it. could be found there; what he said was. so out of context that he would be very hard put to find an explanation. A couple of days later, someone at the site where I was working repeated. the remark although in a different way; they said there. had been people in a computer room when automatic. fire extinguishers went off and those people were "thinking of suing for. attempted manslaughter".

Finally, this isn't confined to the established radio stations. In. 1990 after I had listened to a pirate radio station in South. London for about half an hour, there was an. audible phone call in the background, followed by total silence for a few moments, then shrieks of. laughter. "So what are we supposed to say now? Deadly. torture? He's going to talk to us now, isn't he?", which meant that they. could hear what I would say in my room.

PM: >any transcription that needs doing. You don't. think the 'Big Boss'

PM: >a quarter million a year. Over five years. What are you doing that. makes PM: >it worth. the while of the state to spend over one and a quarter million PM: >on. you?

Those are pretty. much the sort of calculations that went through my head once I stopped to consider what. it must be costing them to run this operation.. The partial answer is, there have been periods when the intensity has. been greater, and times when little has happened. In fact, for much of. 1993 and the first half of 1994, very little happened. Although I don't think that was. for reasons of money - if they can tap into the taxpayer they're not going to. be short of resources, are they?

The more. complete answer is in the enormity of what they're doing. Relative to the cost. to British pride of seeing their country humiliated for the persecution of their own citizens, isn't is worth the cost of. four or five people to try to bring things to a close in. the manner they would wish? To the government a million or two is quite honestly. nothing - if they can convince. themselves of the necessity of what they're doing, resources will not be the limiting. factor.

-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-
-= how. and why did it start? -=
-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-=-

The. harassment didn't start by itself, so someone must have been there at the outset to give it a firm push and set the "animals" after me. It. looks as if I was set. up in June 1990, and the timing indicates someone from university was. responsible.

>One thing which has been missing from. this discussion is this simple >prognosis: that maybe he. is right and that, despite his admitted >mental condition, there really is a campaign against him. organised by >now-influential ex-students of his. university.

In May or. June 1990, Alan Freeman on Radio 1 read out a letter from someone who had. known me for a few years, who wrote of the one who "wore out his welcome with random precision" (from the. Pink Floyd song). Freeman went on to say to the writer "that's. a hell of a letter you wrote there". The indication. is strongly that people I had parted from soon before nursed a grudge against me and were trying to cause trouble for. me.

The suggestion is. that Freeman might have shown the letter to other people, and things could have snowballed from there. Right. from the start the real source. (security services presumed) didn't announce themselves as the origin, but let the "talkers", the radio DJs, believe that. they were the originators. Think about it; if you announce,. "we're MI5 and we have a campaign against this bloke" then people. might not go along with it; but if you say, "everyone else is. getting at this bloke because he 'deserves' it" then people will join in. with fewer qualms.

>Why would "they" wish to. assassinate your character?

It's the classic case of hitting a cripple to prove you're stronger.. Why would the security. services expend hundreds of thousands of pounds and more than six years of manpower to try to kill. a British citizen? Because they are motivated by people who knew me at university. and feel personal animosity; because they knew me to be emotionally. weak, and it is in the nature of bullies to prey on those. known to be weak; and because they can rely on the complicity of the. establishment, which the security services manipulate and derive funding from. This. is England's biggest humiliation today, and the British security services are intent on preventing. their humiliation. becoming reality by continuing their campaign of attempted murder to suppress the truth from. becoming public.

The. harassment didn't start by itself, so someone must have been there at the outset to give it a firm push. and set the "animals" after me. It looks as if I was set up in June 1990, and the. timing indicates someone from university was. responsible.

>One thing which has. been missing from this discussion is this simple >prognosis: that maybe he is right and that, despite his. admitted >mental. condition, there really is a campaign against him organised by >now-influential ex-students of his. university.

In May or June 1990, Alan Freeman on Radio. 1 read out a letter from someone who had known me for a few years, who wrote. of the one who "wore out his welcome with random precision" (from the Pink Floyd. song). Freeman went on to say to the writer "that's. a hell of a letter you wrote there". The indication is strongly that people I had parted from. soon before nursed a grudge against me and were trying. to cause trouble for me.

The suggestion is that Freeman might have. shown the letter to other people, and things could have snowballed from there. Right from the start the. real source. (security services presumed) didn't announce themselves as the origin, but. let the "talkers", the radio DJs, believe that they were the originators. Think about. it; if you announce, "we're MI5 and we have a campaign against this bloke" then people might not go along with it;. but if you. say, "everyone else is getting at this bloke because he 'deserves' it" then people will. join in with fewer qualms.

>Why would "they" wish. to assassinate your character?

It's the classic case of hitting a cripple. to prove you're stronger. Why would the security services expend hundreds of thousands of. pounds and more than six years. of manpower to try to kill a British citizen? Because they are motivated by people. who knew me at university and feel personal animosity; because they knew me to be emotionally weak, and. it is in the nature of bullies to prey on those. known to be weak; and because they can rely on the complicity of the. establishment, which the security services manipulate and derive funding from. This is England's. biggest humiliation today, and the British. security services are intent on preventing their humiliation. becoming reality by continuing their campaign of attempted murder to suppress the truth. from becoming public.

-= who knows. about it? =-

Many people know, both in the. establishment and media, and among the general public. Despite an absence of its target from the. UK for more than two. years, the echoes of paranoia can still be heard loud and clear from across the water. When it started in 1990,. the only people who knew were those. in BBC television who were spying on my home, and a few radio broadcasters. There were a few cases of public harassment, but. very little compared to the situation that developed a. couple of years later.

The list today includes BBC TV staff (newsreaders such as. Martyn Lewis, Michael Buerk, Nicholas Witchell), people from radio stations. such as Chris Tarrant of Capital and. Radio 1 DJs, people in the print media, but also many people in the general public. All united. in a conspiracy which breaks the laws which the UK does have regarding. harassment, and all completely uncaring for any semblance of. decency or elementary respect for individual. rights.

The. British police (obviously) do know the nature of the harassment and in all probability the identity of those behind it.. Some time ago I made a complaint to my local police station in London, without. positive result. The UK police are failing in their duty to see the law enforced in. not checking. the abuse.

The article of which part is reproduced below was penned by. Bernard Levin for the. Features section of the Times on 21 September 1991. To my mind, it described the situation at the time and in particular. a recent meeting with a. friend, during which I for the first time admitted to someone other than my GP that I had been subjected to a conspiracy of harassment. over the previous year and a. half.

>There is a madman running. loose about London, called David Campbell; I have

>Throughout the encounter, I should have. mentioned, our loony has been

>No,. no, he says, the glitter more powerful than ever and the trembling of >are priced variously at #7, #8 or #9, with the. top price #12.

>At this, the policemen understandably put their helmets back on;. one of >them draws his truncheon and the other can be heard. summoning >reinforcements on his walkie-talkie. The madman bursts into tears,. and >swears it. is all true.

>And. it is.
>David Campbell has acquired the entire rights to the whole. of the >Everyman's Library, which died a lingering. and shameful death a decade or >so ago, and he proposes to start it. all over again - 48 volumes this >in Britain and the United States, with. the massive firepower of Random >Century at. his back in this country, and the dashing cavalry of Knopf >across the water, and no one who loves literature and courage. will forbear >to. cheer.

At the time this article. was written I had believed for some time that columnists in the Times and other journalists. had been making references to my situation. Nothing unusual about this you may think, plenty of. people have the same sort of ideas and obviously the papers aren't writing. about them,. so why should my beliefs not be as false as those of others?

What. makes this article so extraordinary is that three or four days immediately. preceding its publication, I had a meeting with a friend, during the course of which we discussed. the media persecution, and in particular that by Times columnists. It seemed to me,. reading the article by Levin. in Saturday's paper, that he was describing in some detail his "artist's impression" of that meeting. Most. telling are the final sentences, when he writes, "The madman bursts into. tears, and swears it is all true. And it is." Although I did. not "burst into tears" (he seems to be using a bit of poetic licence. and exaggerating) I did try hard to convince my friend that it was. all true; and I am able to concur with Mr Levin, because, of course, it. is.

At the beginning of the piece Levin reveals a fear of being attacked. by the "irrational" subject of his story, saying. "I have no reason to believe that he is violent,. but he should certainly be approached with caution". This goes back to the xenophobic propaganda. of "defence" against a "threat" which was seen at the very beginning of the harassment. The. impression of a "madman running loose" who needs to. be controlled through an agency which assigns to itself the. mantle of the "police" is also one which had been expressed. elsewhere.

In the. final paragraph of this extract, his reference to Everyman's Library as. having "died a lingering and shameful death a decade or so ago" shows clearly what sort of conclusion they wish to their campaign. They. want a permanent solution, and as. they are prevented from achieving that solution directly, they waste. significant resources on methods which have been repeatedly shown. to be ineffective for such a purpose.

The. British police obviously do know what is taking place. Besides my interpretations of what individual. officers have said which forces that conclusion, it would be. inconceivable for them to be unaware of something on this. scale.

If they know, then they will know that the. abusers have broken laws in the UK and abroad. Recently the UK. introduced laws against electronic spying which carry a penalty of several years jail if. caught. If the police know illegal harassment. is taking place, and do nothing about it, then they are failing in. their responsibilities.

Last Easter (1995) I went into the. local police station in London and spoke to an officer about. the harassment against me. But I couldn't provide tangible. evidence; what people said, in many cases years ago, is beyond proof, and without something to support my statements I cannot. expect a police officer to take the complaint. seriously.

The current situation with regard to the police is not. one which allows a breakthrough in dealing with the. problem. On the one hand, most individual officers at a local police station may. not know about the ongoing assaults, so a complaint at that level will not yield results.. Yet the police as an organisation do know of the harassment, and they must. be aware that a complaint has been made at a police station. So it. is clearly their duty to take preventative action. against the continuing molestation, but because the criminals are operating on. behalf of a state agency, the police are not carrying. out their duty.

-= abuse in set-up situations and in. public -=

Strangers in the street. have recognized me on sight many times, and shown awareness. of the current thread of abuse. To give you one example, in 1992 I was seriously ill, and a manager at work somewhat. humorously said that "it wasn't. fair" that people were bullying me. A few days later, I attended for the first time a clinic in London as an outpatient,. and on my way out was accosted by someone. who asked if "they had paid my fare", with emphasis on the. word "fare". He repeated the word several times in this different context; that they should have paid my "fare", each time. emphasizing the word.

For two and a half years from the time their harassment started. until November. 1992 I refused to see a psychiatrist, because I reasoned that I was not. ill of my own action or fault, but through the stress caused by harassment, and that. a lessening of the illness would have to be consequent to a removal of its immediate cause, in other words a cessation. of harassment. I also reasoned that. since they were taunting me with jokes about mental illness, if I were. to seek treatment then the abusers would think that they had "won" and been proved "right". Remember,. the constant theme of any persecution is, "we must destroy you because. you're X", whether X is. a racial or other attribute. In this case the X was "we persecute. you because you have brain disease". The similarity of this logic to Nazi attitudes. to the mentally ill is striking.

The same. manager who'd said "it wasn't fair" asked me in winter 1992 why I didn't seek help from a. psychiatrist; was it, he asked, because "they would think they. had won" if I sought treatment? That was something I'd never said at work... again, taken separately it proves. nothing, but many such things over. a period of months proves conclusively that people in the company knew what was going on, and in quite. a lot of detail.

Usually harassment. in public lacks the level of finesse of "paying your fare". Most people's imagination does. not go beyond moronic parroting of the. current term of denigration. That is not surprising given the average level of the abusers; if they do not have. the intelligence to distinguish wrong from right then neither will they have the. capacity for anything other. than mindless repetition of a monosyllabic term calculated to fit into their. minds.

The first incidents of verbal assault. in public were in again in the summer of 1990, although they increased in frequency and venom with. time. In July 1990 the first public incident occurred on. a tube train on the Northern line. Two men and their girlfriends recognised me; the women sprang to. my defence,. saying "He looks perfectly normal, he doesn't look ill". Their boyfriends of course knew better, and followed the party line;. one of them made reference to. an "operation", apparently to work at the tube station but implicitly to a visit that I had. made to hospital a couple of weeks previously.

In August 1990 going home from college, soon after getting on. a tube train at Gloucester Road I was followed. by a group of four youths, who started a chant of abuse. That they were targeting me was confirmed by. other people in the carriage, one of whom asked the. other "who are they going on at, is it the bloke who just got on?" to which the second replied "yes,. I think so". I was tempted to reply, but as. in every other instance the abusers are enabled. in their cowardice by physically outnumbering the abused; any confrontation would result in my being beaten up, followed by. a complaint to the police that "he. attacked us", and of course he's ill, so he must have been imagining that we were getting at him. Shitty,. aren't they?

But the shittiness of the four youths on the tube train is. as nothing compared to the episode on the National Express. coach to Dover in the summer of 1992.. While going on holiday to the Continent I was verbally set upon by a couple. travelling sitting a few rows behind. The boy did the talking, his female companion contributing only a continuous. empty giggling noise. He spoke loudly to ensure other people. on the coach heard, always about "they" and "this bloke". but never naming either the abusers or the person he was talking about. He. said "they" had "found somebody from his school, and he was always really stressed. at school". They must have dug deep to find enemies there; perhaps someone who dropped. out of school, someone who didn't do too well later, who was jealous and. keen to get their own back? The boy also said "he was in. a bed and breakfast for only one night and they got him".. By a not unexpected coincidence I had been in a B&B in Oxford a week previously, which had been booked from work;. other things lead me to the conclusion that the company's. offices were bugged for most of the 2 1/2 years. that I was there, so "they" would have known a room in the. B&B had been booked. (But I'll bet "they" didn't tell the company's managers their offices were. bugged, did they?).

After a few minutes of this I went back. to where they were sitting and asked where. they were travelling. The boy named a village in France, and the. girl's giggling suddenly ceased; presumably it permeated to her brain cell what the purpose of the boy's abuse. was.

This and other set-up situations are obviously calculated to. provoke a direct confrontation. which would bring in the police, with the abusers claiming that they were the. ones attacked. Again in 1992, outside the house where I was living in Oxford I was physically. attacked by someone - not punched, just grabbed by the coat, with some verbals. thrown in for good measure. That was something the people at work. shouldn't have known about... but. soon after a couple of people were talking right in front of me about, "I heard he was attacked". The. UK police have a responsibility for preventing assault occurring, but they do not seem. to take any interest in meeting that responsibility.. I suppose their attitude is that harassment does not come within their remit unless it involves physical assault,. and they will only become involved once that happens. That is of course. quite the wrong attitude for them to take, but. as I now understand, the police investigate only the crime they wish to investigate; if they. do not take your complaints seriously then there is nothing you can do to. make them take. action.

-= my response to the harassment. -=

My first reaction in. 1990/91 was to assume that if I broke contact then they would not be able to follow and would lose interest. So. I did the things that have been. suggested by other people; I sold my television, stopped listening to the radio and tried to withdraw away. from the sources of abuse as much as possible.. I reasoned that they must have more important things to. deal with and that normal people would simply leave me alone if it were made difficult for them. to continue their harassment.

I reckoned without the sheer vindictiveness of. the abusers. They did not let. up but instead "got to" people around me, mainly people at work, to do their dirty work for them. I went to see my GP, who refused to believe. what he was being told, and. refused to direct me on to anyone who could be of practical assistance.. It was not until three years had passed that the GP admitted the matter was outside his competence and. suggested going to the police.

In the summer of 1994. we called in counter-surveillance experts from a private detective agency. to sweep our house and telephone for bugging devices. They conducted a thorough search and found nothing; but. as noted above, since the existence of surveillance was. being forced in my face by the harassers, you would expect them to have. taken the possibility of a counter-surveillance sweep into account. when planning the type of devices to be. employed.

In Easter 1995 I made. a complaint to my local Police station in London, but the police have. not expressed any intention to do anything about the continuing harassment ("we're not saying. it's happening and we're not saying it isn't happening" were the. words used). I think the officer I spoke to at. Easter wasn't aware of it happening, although other members of the police. force obviously do know.

From April. 1995 until the present time the matter has been discussed in a lot of detail on the Usenet (Internet) "uk.misc" newsgroup. That. discussion has given birth to the article which you. are now reading. My hopes in posting to Usenet were. that wider publicizing would discourage the security services from continuing. their harassment, and "draw people out" into concurring with the truth of what was being said. Neither. of those have followed, but the. discussion has served a purpose in allowing this structured report to be. created.

-= why. the security services? -=

You may ask,. why do I think the "they" referred to are the security services? Is there any evidence that there is. a single source, as opposed to a loosely based "whispering. campaign" amongst many people? Even if there is a single source, is there any evidence that "they". are professional "buggers" as opposed. to amateurs, or perhaps people working for a privately funded. organization?

a) As to the question of a single source. versus something more fragmented; it is quite obvious that there is a single source. from the way the campaign has been carried. out. Since things have been repeated verbatim which were said in my home, there. must be one group which does the watching and listening. Since. on several occasions (mainly during travel) people have been planted. in close proximity and rehearsed in what they were to say, it follows that someone. must have done the planning for that, and again a single source is. indicated.

b) So why couldn't it be amateurs? Why couldn't. it be a private organisation, for example a private detective agency paid. to manage the campaign and undertake the. technical aspects? Some detective agencies are unscrupulous as has been proved on the occasions. in the past when they've been exposed or caught; they. too can have access to the bugging technology deployed; and there are reported cases. of MI5 paying private eyes to do their dirty work (against peace campaigners and. similar enemies of the state) on the understanding that if they were caught then they could. deny all knowledge. Why. couldn't that be the case?

The main. factor pointing to direct security service involvement (as opposed to amateurs or MI5 proxies). is the breadth of their access to the media in particular, and the fact that the television companies are. so involved in the campaign. The. BBC would not directly invade someone's home themselves, since it would not be within. their remit to allocate personnel or financial resources to do so. An organisation of their stature would not. take part in a campaign set up by private sources. The. only people they would take material. from would be the security services, presumably on the assumption that if. the cat ever flew out of the bag yowling it would be MI5 who would take. the consequences.

State. sponsorship for these acts of psychological terrorism is also indicated by duration; support for over. six years for a team of three or four people would be beyond the. means and will of most private sources.

The viciousness of the slanders and personal denigration also. points to MI5; they traditionally "protect". the British state from politicians of the wrong hue by character assassination, and in this case. are using their tried and. tested methods to murder with words an enemy they have invented for. themselves.

And there are precedents.. Diana and Hewitt were alleged to have been filmed "at it" by an Army intelligence team which had. operated in Northern Ireland, these allegations were made by someone called Jones. who had been on. the team. His statements were denied by the defence establishment who tried to character-assassinate by. describing him as the "Jones twins". Funny how if. you tell the truth, then you must be ill, isn't it? Thought only communists. behaved like that?

Hewitt later said that he'd been. spoken to by someone in the army who revealed the existence of videotapes of him and. Diana, and that the tapes would be published if any. attempt was made by them to resume their association.

Once I stopped watching television and listening to the. radio at the end of 1990, "they" had to find other ways of. committing abuses. So they took what must. be for them a tried and tested route; they get at you by subversion of those around you. Since they wouldn't be able to do that with my. family or friends, that meant getting at people in the workplace to be. their mouthpieces. and do their dirty work for them.

They supplied my employers in Oxford with details from what was. going on in my. private life, and what I and other people had said at my home and accommodation in Oxford. So people at. work repeated verbatim words which had been said. in my home, and repeated what I'd been doing recently. Often the most trivial things, the ones from your domestic life,. are the ones which hurt most. One manager in particular at Oxford continuously. abused me for ten months with verbal sexual abuse, swearing, and. threats to terminate my. employment. After ten months I was forced to seek psychiatric help and start taking medication, and was away from work for two. months. I spoke later with a solicitor about what had happened at that company;. he advised it. was only possible to take action if you had left the company as a result of harassment, and such an action would have to. be started very soon after leaving.

Over a year later. the same manager picked on another new worker, with even more serious results;. that employee tried to commit suicide with an overdose as a result of the ill-treatment, and was forced to leave. his job. But he didn't take action against the company, either.. Abuse at work is comparable to that elsewhere in that. tangible evidence is difficult to produce, and the. abusers will always have their denials ready when challenged. And even if a court accepts what you say happened, it. still remains to prove. that abuse causes the type of breakdown I had at the end of 1992. In a recent case before a British court,. a former member of the Army brought a case against others who had. maltreated him ten years previously. Although the court accepted. that abuse had occurred, it did not agree that depressive illness necessarily followed,. and denied justice to the. plaintiff.

Your overly-simplistic "solution" was attempted years ago and it utterly failed. When someone produces enough of a spew to force posts in a news server's spool to be prematurely expired, he's basically involved in a denial of service attack.

The idea that filters can fix a really serious problem has long ago been discredited. You need to rethink your position.

Thanks in advance.

This is a matter of no consequence.

Since the RSCB promoted the gangrenous degeneration that is the M3/CB Fools' Licence scheme for no other reason than to seek pats-on-the-head for their directorate, Ham Radio has become a cesspit of Mongolian Hordes of CBers who have no knowledge of the inner workings of their rigs, have no interest in discovering the principles of those workings, and who cannot pass the exams intended for 6-year-olds even 20 years after having purchased their technical books.

There is no argument whatsoever in favour of the commercially viable bands at 50 MHz and above to be retained for Ham Usage. All so-called QSOs that take place on those frequencies could take place with equal technical value on 27.555.

Even those who purport to be experts at microwave frequencies are QSOing with commercial rigs.

It is high time that Ham Bands were restricted to the traditional harmonically related SW ones, and, to control access to what will now be a much scarcer resource, a 12WPM Morse Test should be re-introduced.

Interesting that the first question raised by someone not yet on

Whilst pondering the works of the noble John Betjemen (I omit the "Sir", as this was an affection given to him by the masturbation that is Britland's monarchy), I decided to emulate his style with the following relection upon the gangrenous degeneration that is the M3/CB Fool's Licence:

It festers like an open sore!
Could standards lower any more?
And who can stand the stench of shite
That wafts o'er Potters Bar at night?
For the new foundation licensee
Has less intellect than the common ploddery

The M3 licence, dripping pus
Was it ever (ever) thus?
And as they reach to push the pressil
One can hear the empty vessel
Make so much noise on the repeater
The olden days were so much neater

And as they turn the wick up higher
The 4CXs glow afire
Ten Watts is all they are allowed
But of their linears, they are proud
The schedule of their licence might As well be printed on a shite

O tempora! O mores! O solo mio!
I think I'll pack and go to Rio
For on PY land's distant shore
Can radio hammery shine once more
And in Britland, will our brave pursuit
Be taken o'er by the drunken CB brute

Of Six six six, we must beware
Look in your bibles. See! It's there!
But it's a lie, I say to you
It a falsehood, it's untrue
The number that all real hams should shun
Is twenty seven, seven eight one

Is it possible that RSCB's vomit
Could be so stupid as to omit
The knowledge that we hold so dear
It seems it is, and so I fear
The end of hammery as we know

The fat lady's singing, the end of the show

So back to hell with you M3s
And with your plague-infested fleas
Take your radios back to the shops
Leave the bands to us real ops
And, on your way out, close the door
For you're not welcome any more

Beanie, I see your reading and comprehension skills are letting you down again, so let me try to help:
1. Someone posting as 'Anonymous' claimed 'Even those who purport to be experts at microwave frequencies are QSOing with commercial rigs.'
2. Doubting this statement, Spock queried the availability of commercial rigs for any band above 1296MHz.
N.B. I don't think Spock asked this question with the intention of buying such a rig, he (and I) simply doubt the availablity. If you know otherwise, the stage is yours, old Bean.

I have operated on 10Ghz with both Wide Band FM phone and ATV, and all

Frank, this the point where Gareth "sidesteps". Best just let him play his games. After all, his 2m set up includes a commercial rx.

No doubt Nedlar will be along in awhile to add his "input".

Another couple of top posting lumpheads who failed to snip

The MI5 poster:
His name is Mike Corley, he is an IT professional but alas he has mental health issues. Here are some details about Mike Corley.
He lives in London, UK. He first began his postings to usenet, BBS, and forums in 1995, unsurprisingly first to alt.conspiracy.

He has his own website:
http://www.five.org.uk/

"There have been numerous newspaper articles and online thesis about Mike's postings, this is a BBC article on the subject:"
http://www.bbc.co.uk/dna/h2g2/alabaster/A164404

"And amongst many other covers of the Mike Corley phenomenon there has been a modern opera about this usenet legend:"
http://www.thecorleyconspiracy.com/

The problem is amplified by posters who reply to Mikes X-post floods without snipping, and without removing the crossposts.
But also Mike Corley sets "follow-up" groups to his MI5 posts, this is where he hasn't actually posted to a specific group but it's listed as "follow-up" in the crossposts, the lusers who reply, their posts show up in groups that Mike wants flooded.
Mike Corley has set uk.misc as follow-up to all his posts, (which I've removed) it gets flooded with the replies, and of course the X-posting.
Mike Corley has been doing this since 1995, and he knows what he is doing, he avoids killfiles/plonk/block by morphing and using pay-as-you-go dial-up.
Filters rarely have an effect as in this example, if you set the criteria as "MI_5", then the flood morph to "MIfive" or whatever. He dosen't post via google dispite the headers, nor are the email addies valid, he dances between proxy servers such as altopia etc, filtering has no effect.
The simple rule with Mike Corley floods is to ignore and not to reply.
Mike will take his medication and eventually stop.....until the next time.
But if lusers do the foolish and reply/x-post/fail-to-snip, then Mike Corley sticks around. So don't spam your pointless replies across dozens of groups.

An FT290 with home brew 25 Watt linear.
The 10Ghz antenna was a PW design EXE I think which I obtained from the Telford rally back in the 80's, when Radio rallies were somewhat better than they are now. The launcher was home made from WG16 with a penny feed. The 10Ghz TX was a modified Solfan intruder alarm head, and was also used for RX with its built in RX mixer diode, and using the TX Gunn as a local oscillator. Working split freq and a 36Mhz IF I think.
The ATV unit was also a Solfan unit with a power supply modified to give voltage variation in sync with the video input, which effectively FM modulated the gunn diode. The ATV rx was another Solfan unit with a home built IF and FM demodulator.
Any more details required sir ?

Big News this Week

Tropical Island Beacons
This Wednesday Gordo, WB6NOA put KH6HME, Paul on ATV from his station in Costa Mesa. KH6HME has UHF, VHF and 1200 Mhz beacons located on the Hawaiian Island of Mana Loa. (I think I got that right)

The antennas are at 8200 feet above sea level and are broadcasting on the following frequencies:
144.170 MHz
1296.34 MHz

Paul tells me that the two meter signal is what we will hear the most here on the west coast. And these are the frequencies that Gordo is always monitoring for DX conditions.

Gordo had a QSL card from KH6HME and it was a photo of the volcanic mountain top with all the antennas.

SBMS Meeting Report
Last Thursday was another very enjoyable San Bernardino Microwave Society Meeting. A meeting broadcast on the ATN repeater network in Southern California and again rebroadcast on the AC6RB Camstream.

Besides the "Tech Talk" section of the meeting which was "Time and Frequency" (presented by W6DQ) this week, there were many other additional interesting topics that came up during the activities round table.

One topic was "Rain Scatter" that club members were planning on taking advantage of with the weather systems that was moving into the area this weekend. (Maybe someone from SBMS could send me a report of how the rain scatter worked out for next weeks newsletter)

Another topic was beacons. One club member had set up a group of beacons for testing microwave equipment, as well as producing 16 slot antennas for 24 GHz for the club members.

I am always amazed with how productive the members of SBMS are and how they work together for the benefit of all.
SBMS website: http://www.ham-radio.com/sbms

N6HOG, AC6RB and N6IFU checked in via ATV for the meeting.

The next SBMS meeting is February 7th.

70 cm ATV
I received an e-mail from M3ODL, Keith about the Motorola mhw701 RF power amp to see if there was any available here in the U.S.. I passed the e-mail on to our resident expert W6KGE, Bob and this is what he had to say.

I did a quick 'Google' search. It looks like mhw701's are available from suppliers in the UK. ...although they are obsolete. I expect that they are an RF Power Amp Module, but I can not find a spec sheet for them.

I'd like to suggest that we are currently using a Toshiba SAU83L that works very well for ATV amplifiers. The module is available from RF PARTS CO. I think they have an internet address.... like www.rfparts.com... but again, a Google search should find the exact address. Hitachi also produces the SAU83L, and Down East Microwave Inc. ..... www.downeastmicrowave.com sells a kit and a completely assembled amplifier, using this module. About 15 mw of drive produces a virtually linear 25 watts out....and the module is capable of 40 watts, at a slightly less linear output.

Thank you Bob for the info and I hope this helps out Keith, M3ODL.

Yucca Valley Camstream
N6GKB, Keith put a camstream on the air and I visited his shack shortly after the net last week. www.n6gkb.camstreams.com

So now we have the opportunity to see the face behind the voice. Keith currently is receiving an ATV signal from the repeater network via Snow Peak and checking in on two meter audio.

Hello Norm
KD6OMV, Norm was seen transmitting a 2.4 GHz signal into Santiago Peak on Wednesday evening. Norm has been off the air since there was some work on the 434 MHz input last year and it rendered Norms signal unusable. And that seems like it was about a year ago. Welcome back Norm.

PAVE PAWS
For some of you that don't know about the situation that has evolved in regards to the 70 cm band in Northern California. There is a government radar system (called PAVE PAWS) that is the primary user of parts of the 70 cm and the FCC has imposed changes.

W6HUY and KA6FEW from Napa California sent me this link to an update from eHam.
http://www.eham.net/articles/17315

W6WYN News
I received the following e-mail about a hour after I mailed out last weeks newsletter.

I am still here. The moving process is taking a little longer than expected. I have all the station moved and working but the rain and the holidays slowed down the antenna work. See you soon. 73's Al, W6WYN

Repeater Reports

I received this repeater report from WA6SVT last Sunday:

I was testing with Merv tonight from the Mt Wilson repeater. He could get a good signal but he did have a sync compression. Bob's sync/proc amp would fix that. Mervs 2 meter station is not working very well.

The HT on his beam antenna is a bit noisy on Wilson and no Santiago access. He did have 100Hz pl and was working. His 434 audio sub carrier works but his line level mic amp on his camera is not op. I suggested he go to Rat Shack and get a hand held mic for his ATV and he was going to pick one up. I did adjust the 1241.25 MHz transmitter and have 3 db more output now with Merv getting a P4.5 picture and before a P4. So some optimization completed.

Thanks,
73s,
Mike

Peter, OM, why is it that all your excursions into this NG are to interject infantile unpleasantries?

You behave as does a 5-year-old.

Brian, OM, is it possible for you to contribute to this NG without enjoining the discussion in the direction of rather silly and infantile digs, sneers and personal remarks?

So your claim that your 10GHz operation was with "all the equipment I used was home made." was just so much M3OSN-spiel, then?

The second verse of your "poetry" contained one unpleasantry (dripping pus). The other verses all contained considerably more.

Whereas Gareth developed, designed and built his FT-101E, the PA stage of which he was subsequently unable to tune due to the instructions missing a page.

He also designed his own FT-707, the CW filter of which was somehow off-frequency.

And his FRG-7700 which he uses with his 50mW 2m transmitter was the result of man-years of his own R&D efforts.

He's currently inventing the FT-2000. Unfortunately Yaesu invented it first :-)

Talking of presumption, if you presume to address me by name, then please extend to me the elementary courtesy of telling me yours.

ANTARCTICA NEWS.....
Helmuth, W6KDX, current radio operator at KC4AAA from Amundsen-Scott South Pole Antarctica Base can usually be found on 20 meters SSB (watch around 14177 or 14200 kHz) between 1700-0400z. Scotty, WK3N, recently talked to Helmuth and was told that Larry, K1IED, is the QSL route. He was also told that Larry has not answered cards currently, as many of the logs remained at the South Pole. Helmuth intends to gather up all logs he can find and have them sent to K1IED. Helmut says he likes to chat rather than run pile-ups. He also stated that some have received cards by using the direct mail route to the KC4AAA station.

Les, GM3ITN, has put together a very nice "Antarctica QSL Gallery". Maybe you worked some of these stations. Take a look! You can visit the Web page at: http://www.angelfire.com/falcon/leshamilton//1stalbum/

The La Salle Radio Club has received a license to operate from the "Spanish Antarctic Base Juan Carlos 1" as ED3RKL. The Spanish scientific expedition will stay there until January 17th. Activity will be limited to operator's spare time.

Ludwig, ZS6WLC, is expected to be active as ZS7BYRD from the SANAE IV Antarctic Base between now and February. Activity will be on 20 meters using CW, SSB and AM. QSL via operator's instructions.

DXCC NEWS. Bill Moore, NC1L, ARRL DXCC Manager, informs that the following operations are approved for DXCC credit:
5L2MS - Liberia 2007 Operation
D2NX - Angola 2007 Operation
S79UU and S79AB - Seychelles Islands 2007 Operations

DX MAGAZINE'S "2007 MOST WANTED SURVEY RESULTS". You may want to pick up a copy of the January/February 2008 "The DX Magazine". The magazine has the results of the top 100 "Most Wanted Countries" for the year 2007. The survey's breakdown and results were done by Carl Smith/N4AA (DX Mag's editor), Roger Western/G3SXW and Tim Kirby/G4VXE. The "Top Ten" countries (entities) in the "World-Wide" ranking mixed modes are as follows (listed with last year's results):

2007 DXCC Rank	Entity	2006 Rank
1	North Korea (P5)	3
2	Yemen (7O)	4
3	Navassa (KP1)	5
4	Glorioso (FR/G)	6
5	Bouvet (3Y/B)	7
6	Marion Island (ZS8)	9
7	Desecheo (KP5)	8
8	Scarborough Reef (BS7H)	1
9	Crozet (FT8W)	11
10	Heard Island (VK0/H)	10

From the looks of the list, last year's top 5 entities have moved up two. Why? Two major operations in 2007 have caused this change in the list. First was the Lakshadweep (VU7) operations in late 2005 and early 2007. VU7's ranking last year was 2, but now it is 64 (Wow! What a drop.). Then there was Scarborough Reef (BS7H) in May 2006. BS7H went from a ranking of 1 to 8. This number is real deceiving. After further looking at the breakdown of the regional charts, BS7H's ranking (*w/2006) are as follows: Europe Only - 28 (1), Asia Only - 39 (7) and North America - 3 (1). No charts were published in the article for the VK/ZL, South America and Africa. North American stations may find this interesting. Ranking by time zones: Pacific - 20 (4), Mountain - 8 (3), Central 3 (1) and Eastern 3 (1). For more details on the results, please pick-up a copy of this super publication. Also, Carl, N4AA, editor of "The DX Magazine" and "QRZ DX Newsletter", will usually have a listing of the results on the following Web page at: http://www.dxpub.com/
We will make an announcement when they are added to that Web site. ONE LAST NOTE: Also in this January/February 2008 issue is the interesting story of the BS7H operation.

DX SOUND CLIPS. Tom, K8CX, noted for his great "Ham Gallery" Web site, has added a new page of interest for DXers. He now provides 111 DX Sound Clips from DXpeditions that took place in 2007. Visit the new page at: http://hamgallery.com/dx2007/
All were recorded by K8CX.

FJ, ST. BARTHELEMY (DXCC Newest Entity!).....
By the time you read this, Paul/F6EXV and Yuichi/JR2KDN should be on Saint Barthelemy and "possibly" active as early as late evening January 6th. Activity will last until January 20th. Paul/F6EXV informed OPDX that they have received the proper license and were issued the special callsign TO5FJ. This callsign will be used on all bands and modes. QSL via F6EXV. Support will be appreciated, as some of the equipment will be donated to the FJ5KH radio club for the use by club members. A Web page is now up and running for this activity at: http://www.f6exv.org Paul suggests, "Please update your logging programs so the call is recognized as Saint Barthelemy." Activity will be on 160-10m, CW, SSB and RTTY. They will use beam antennas from Cushcraft, vertical and dipole antennas, Yaesu FT2000 and FT857 plus 500W amplifiers.

Gregg, W6IZT, will be active from the club station FJ5KH on the island between January 9-11th. QSL via FJ5KH using the QRZ.com address.

Craig, AH8DX, has announced that he will be active as FJ/AH8DX during the ARRL DX SSB Contest (March 1-2nd) as a Single-Op/All-Band entry. Look for activity before and after the contest on 30/17/12 meters and RTTY. QSL via AH8DX.

(Update) Members of the RZS Amateur Radio Club (W2RZS) are expected to be active from here between March 25th and April 1st. They plan to operate in the upcoming CQ WW WPX SSB Contest (March 29-30th). The W2RZS team will tentatively consist of Bob/WB2NVR, Mike/WA2VQW, Bob/N2DVQ and Adam/N2DHH. They will be concentrating on 160m and the 30/17/12 meters bands before and after the contest, and of course, operate 80/40/20/15/10 meters during the contest. Mike/WA2VQW informs OPDX, "Our antennas will be the same as we have been using for our three previous J75 DXpeditions. We hope to get as many of you in our log as possible during our 7 day stay. Please don't hesitate to give us a call, we will look for the 'weak ones' and the MOBILES!"

FO/M, MARQUESAS ISLANDS. Operators Jouko/OH1RX, Pertti/OH2PM, Veijo/OH6KN and Juha/OH8NC will be active from Nuku Hiva (OC-027), January 9-22nd. Activity will be on 160-10 meters with a maximum of three stations running. However, they plan to concentrate on 160-30 meters. Here are the following suggested frequencies:
CW - 1822, 3502, 3523, 7008, 7023, 10108, 14008, 14023, 18068, 21008, 21023, 24898 and 28008 kHz
SSB - 1845, 3790, 7050, 19195, 18145, 21295, 24945 and 28495 kHz
RTTY - 14080, 21080 and 28070 kHz

Their callsigns will be announced later. QSL via OH2PM, by the Bureau or direct to: Pertti Simovaara, Suomusjarventie 460, 25390 Kiikala, Finland. Martti, OH2BH, has been announced as the pilot station for their operation. Their Web site is now available online at: http://sm0w.com/marquesas/

HB0, LIECHTENSTEIN. Bernd/DL6IAN and his XYL Petra/DO6IAN will be active as HB0/DL6IAN and HB0/DO6IAN, July 13-18th. Activity will be holiday style mainly on SSB with some CW. QSL via their home callsigns, by the DARC Bureau or direct.

SA-071. (Correction - not SA-021 as listed in OPDX.839) A team of Brazilian operators will be active as PW2M from Moela Island, February 1-8th. See OPDX.839 for details.

KG4, GUANTANAMO BAY. Tip, N4SIA/KG4AS, informs OPDX that he and three other operators will be going to GTMO at the end of January for 2 weeks. The team will be erecting a new Force 12 and a new windom antenna, plus make some repairs to other equipment. They plan to be on the air on all bands. More info and the callsigns are forthcoming.

NEW SOLAR CYCLE 24 HAS BEGUN! Solar physicists, who have been waiting for an appearance of a reversed-polarity sunspot, state that this event has taken place on January 4th. This reversed-polarity sunspot signals the start of a new solar cycle. However, this mark may indicate the beginning of "Solar Cycle 24", but does not mean we may see large increases in solar activity right away. "Space Weather News" states, "Solar cycles usually take a few years to build from solar minimum (where we are now) to Solar Max (expected in 2011 or 2012). It's a slow journey, but we're on our way!" For pictures of the new sunspot and updates, please visit the following Web page at: http://spaceweather.com

PJ7, SINT MAARTEN. By the time you read this, Gregg, W6IZT, is expected to be active as PJ7/W6IZT (just before his FJ operation -- See above) until January 8th and again between January 11-13th. Activity will be limited (family vacation), but operations will be on 80-10 meters, CW, SSB and RTTY. QSL via AI4U.

QSL INFO AND NEWS.....
Tony, XE1GRR, Pilot Station for 6E4LM, XF4YK and XF4YW, informs OPDX that he has uploaded all the logs (6E4LM, XF4YK and XF4YW) on the following Web site at: http://www.6e4lm.xedx.org

Milan, OK3AA, QSL Manager for ET3JA, informs OPDX that as of January 1st (2008), international postage from OK-land has gone up, so one USD is now not sufficient for QSL returns.

FJ/OH2AM logs are now available online at the following Web site: http://www.n4gn.com/cgi-bin/fjlogsearch

NEED A QSL MANAGER! Frank, N3ZOM, informs OPDX that he is offering his services as QSL Manager to any Amateur outside of the USA. His E-mail is good via QRZ.com.

his morning and evening hours. QSL via F6AJA or F8EN.

VP6/D, DUCIE ISLAND. Thirteen operators are still preparing for their will confirm the online QSL requests for bureau cards at the very last after the direct requests are processed (probably 8-12 month after the expedition). PLEASE DO NOT send cards via the bureau! The team is still looking for contributions because of the very high cost of this operation.

I think most sensible folk would assume from the above quote that all Spock's kit for the 10GHz path was homemade, as it proves to be. The talkback link is a red herring and imho an attempt to divert us away from the Gareth's accusation in regard to Spock:

"Interesting that the first question raised by someone not yet on microwaves should be to ask about the source of commercial rigs."

Oh dear. I wonder how long it'll be before he falls back on:

Happy days.

Yes, but the remark that "Anonymous." has chosen to twist the meaning of, namely "Err do tell me where you can get a commercial rig that operates in the 10Ghz band, or for that matter any band above 1296Mhz." is less of a question about where one can buy such gear, and more a statement that such gear is actually not available.

"Anonymous." twists things like this alll the time, to suit his own agenda.

His second bite of the cherry was about the talk-back link.

He has claimed to have years experimenting on VHF/UHF, but has never put out one single posting saying what he did or what his experiments were about. One marvels at his hypocrisy.

Don't get excited.

It's just a "plan," not a law.

As long as Riley Hollingsworth, an avid amateur radio AMer and chief council of enforcement for the FCC, is alive and kicking, I don't believe the FCC will adopt the unrealistic maximum bandwidth restriction of 2700 Hz on the 160 meter thru 15 meter phone bands.

Amateur radio on AM, using a bandwidth 6000+ Hz, is alive and well in the US.

Hope to work you on AM real soon on 1.885 MHz, 3.890 MHz, or 7.290 MHz. My transmitters are a modified "T-3" and a Gates BC-1H.

And it is intended for use by those countries that don't already have an

90. Repeater separation

From: John Anderson <nobody@spamcop.net>
Message-ID: <fm89eo$i29$1@news.netins.net>

It seems that most cooridinators here in midwestern USA insist on 120 separation between repeaters on the same frequency, even with CTCSS tone access.
At the same time, when hams decide to jump to simplex, where do they go but 146.520 almost all the time!

I live in the country, where, if I listen to that national simplex channel, can usually hear one or more stations engaged in several different QSOs in several surrounding cities!
In checking the ARRL band plan, I see a number of simplex channels listed, so why do hams all jump on just one?

Hey guys, the days of HR2B radios with only 12 sets of rocks are in the past! Modern radios with up to 200 channels are available from your friendly, but struggling, amateur radio dealer, who can fix you up with a good replacement for that old rock-bound clunker, and tone access to boot!

Also, with respect to the aforementioned repeater spacing, not every repeater needs to cover 12 counties!
Small towns between the large cities might want to have a local ctcss coded local repeater to serve handhelds and low power mobiles. Hams with 100 foot towers and 300 watt amps should go all-mode and work the sideband portion of the band!

Spread out, there is more to the band than the local repeater and the NSF channel!

Sorry to disappoint you Walt, but I have never been a CB'er as I had no need for it. I was licenced before the heyday of CB and had legal access to the 11m Amateur Band in this country before it was withdrawn and we were moved to 10m. Best thing that could have happened really as 27MHz was a sewer with all the pagers, diathermy and wackos.

Pardon my outburst, but I still have anger issues with the world since my wife died so young from cancer, leaving me with two children to raise by myself and Christmas is a difficult time.

That's my excuse for being an idiot Walt. What's yours?

though it might be useless - you may want to CC that complaint to the FCC as well. After all, they do have input and are "our" radio governing body.

Forgive my ignorance Dee, and I should do the research, but will this in any way effect the 17M band?

I've been out of the "loop" so to speak and have been languishing on my General ticket for far too long.
Life consists of one mishap after another, or so it seems of late, (especially with aging parents) and I need to get up to speed.

Since a band plan is not a regulatory mandate, the FCC is probably not the place to complain. As far as they are concerned, so long as an amateur doesn't cause malicious interference, it's probably not an issue.

Walt is a fugitive from that useless ng uk.amateur radio, whose members (bar one I think) are obsessed with being anti foundation licence and anti RSGB (and in between have utterly trivial discussions with threads that go on interminably about the smallest thing). He actually has a distinguished history but has been sucked in to the negativity of that ng.

Every year the abysmal UK Winter weather gets to Walt and he suffers cabin fever in his pokey 2 up, 2 down hovel in Gloucester and he comes to the sunny aus. group to pester us.

Walt never has anything constructive to contribute. EVER. He just chips in lame wisecracks and criticisms. And he also does not have the strength of his own convictions as he sets his posts to be deleted after 6 days, hiding his comments from the record. It's a sad state of affairs for one as skilled as him to have degenerated to this state.

101. Worried Mark is in hiding

Mark is worried that the letters of complaint to Hughes may result in his account being lost, or at least throttled down.
In fact, there are those who are already saying that Hughes has contacted Mark and warned him to cease and desist his floods.
This would explain why Mark has had to resort to Google for his occasional post.

At any rate it is a welcome respite to see Mark absent from this group save for an occasional comment or two. This is NOT his group as he feels it to be. He has lost his squatters rights to this and other groups. Good riddance.

Now, maybe, just maybe, we can get back to posting comments about Amateur Radio without Mark hijacking everybody's threads.

And in that vein, maybe I can work some of this group's posters on 17M. I have a 205 foot wire fed with 90 feet of ladder line that works quite well on 17. I also enjoy working 12M on weekends with the same wire. For closer work I also use a home brew version of the G5RV antenna which is only 105 feet in length. My 205 footer is oriented for east/west work while the G5RV is oriented for north/south work.
I use an MFJ 986 tuner to tweak my antennas and rarely run over 100 to 200 watts. I use two Yaesu rigs for my HF work. I have an MFJ keyer for CW work and while it is not the best, it does the job.
I am fortunate in that I have enough property to hang these antennas without having to fold them in upon themselves. My neighbors are unconcerned with the wires and ignore them. We have no neighborhood restrictions on antennas...at least not yet and the only TVI the neighbors have ever experienced came from a local CBer who ran an overpowered and "dirty" station. That CBer has since moved away and the neighbors now realize that it was he who was causing the problems, not me.
I also augment my station with a pair of Marine batteries for those rare occasions when the summer storms knock our power out.

Again, I am not giving my name or call sign for obvious reasons. I see no need to invite anonymous emails or spam from the one or two mentally challenged posters who frequent this news group.

The idiot from Chassell calls my choice cowardice, but I and many others realize that I am simply being intelligent enough to not fall victim to flamers and spammers.

73. Maybe we can hook up on 17M soon...

3V8SS OPERATOR. Some have been inquiring about who was active from 3V8SS in November/December last year. Well, the answer is Alex, GM0DHZ. He informs OPDX that he made quite a few QSOs while there and also mentioned that he is planning to go back again, but details still have to be confirmed yet. Stay tuned!

3Y, BOUVET ISLAND (Update). Petrus, 3Y0E, continues to be active on 14200 kHz usually between 1700-1900z daily. Look for updates and announcements on the official 3Y0E operation Web page at: http://www.3y0e.com
The 3Y0E log is now available online at: http://sq8aqd.net/3y0e/index.php

9X, RWANDA. After one year trying to get a license to operate from Rwanda, Toni, EA5RM, (Team Leader) has traveled to the RURA offices in Kigali, the capital city of the Republic of Rwanda, to pick up the 9X0R licence. Toni states, "RURA is trying to establish amateur radio rules in Rwanda with the help of Peter, 9X5SP. Right now there is not an easy way to get an amateur radio license here but in a few months things should be different and ham radio activities will start to be more usual from this country. I'm grateful to RURA General Director and Peter, 9X5SP, for their help and cooperation, and at the same time, my team and I are happy and proud for our little contribution to the future of amateur radio in Rwanda." The 9X0R multinational team will be active from Rwanda in March of this year. The 10 qualified operators are: Roberto/EA2RY, Gerard/EA3EXV, Javi/EA5KM, Toni/EA5RM, Manuel/EA7AJR, Ruben/EB5ESX, Javi/EC4DX, Massimo/I8NHJ, Fabrizio/IN3ZNR and Dimitri/UY7CW. Activity will be on all bands 160-10 meters, on CW, SSB and RTTY with 3 stations at the same time on different bands and modes. QSL via EA5RM. Full details about their Dxpedition is available at: http://www.9x0r.com Questions or comments can be sent to: 9x0r@9x0r.com

A6, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES. Members of the Emirates Amateur Radio Club (A62ER) will participate in the 3rd International Scouting Gathering and UAE Scouting and Humanitarian Work event in Sharjah between January 17-24th. They will use the special event callsign A60ISG. This is the first time for UAE to activate a special callsign. QSL via IZ8CLM.

AAW. The 5th Antarctic Activities Week (AAW) will take place between February 18-24th. A lot of stations with special callsigns are lining up to participate in this year's event. Read about the details of the AAW and see the list of stations that will be active at:
http://www.waponline.it/Default.aspx?tabid=113

CARIBBEAN OPERATION CANCELLED (FJ and PJ7). "The Daily DX" reports that Gregg, W6IZT, who planned to be active from Sint Maarten (PJ7) and St. Barthelemy (FJ) this past week, had to cancel because of health issues. Gregg had severe abdominal pain, resulting in an emergency appendectomy. OPDX and its reader wish Gregg a speedy recovery.

CT3/CT9, MADEIRA ISLANDS. Operators Falk/DK7YY, Ulf/DL5AXX, Tom/DL5LYM and Frank/DL8WAA will be active as CT3/homecall between February 12-18th. QSL via their home callsigns. The team will be active as CT9L during the ARRL DX CW Contest (February 16-17th) as a Multi-2 entry. QSL via DJ6QT.

DXCC NEWS.....
Bill Moore, NC1L, ARRL DXCC Manager, informs that the following operations are approved for DXCC credit:

6E4LM, XF4YK and XF4YW - Revillagigedo; 2007 Operations
FJ/OH2AM - Saint Barthelemy; 2007 Operation
TN6X - Republic of The Congo; 2007 Operation
TN9Z - Republic of The Congo; 2007 Operation
TT8PK - Chad; 2007 and current 2008 Operations
YK9SV - Syria; 2007 Operation

Announcement from the ARRL DXCC Desk (on the FJ/OH2AM operation):
"This operation by OH2BH and OH0XX was conducted under CEPT Recommendation T/R 61-01. This Recommendation makes it possible for radio amateurs from CEPT countries (and certain non-CEPT countries) to operate in other CEPT countries without obtaining an individual temporary license from the visited CEPT country.
Complaints were received from several individuals. The main thrust of the complaints is that the operators used a club call for which Laine is station trustee, rather than their individual callsigns.
The intention of the operators in using a single callsign was to limit the number of duplicate contacts. Many DXpeditions use club or special-issue callsigns for this reason. The Recommendation makes no mention of club callsigns but says that the visiting license holder 'must use his national call sign preceded by the call sign prefix of the visited country.' Other operations using club callsigns from French territory, including in the Caribbean, have taken place under provisions of the Recommendation and have been credited for DXCC.
Since the question was raised, checking with various CEPT administrations and with the European Radiocommunication Office (ERO) has revealed different views regarding the use of club callsigns under the Recommendation. The ERO observes that the use of a club callsign could prevent an administration from determining whether a particular operator is qualified and concludes, 'Club members, including the holder of the club callsign, should use their national personal callsigns when abroad.'
In the case of FJ/OH2AM, the two operators clearly were qualified to operate in St Barthelemy under the Recommendation. They utilized a call authorized to them by their national authority. The purpose of a radio station callsign is to identify the administration and the licensee responsible for the operation of the station. The use of FJ/OH2AM rather than FJ/OH2BH and FJ/OH0XX did not thwart this purpose.
(10 January, 2008)"

EA8, CANARY ISLANDS (AF-004). Niels, OZ7FOC, will be active as EA8/OZ7FOC from Isla de Tenerife (DIE S-012, WLOTA LH-1276) between January 14-26th.
QSL via his home callsign.

FO, FRENCH POLYNESIA. Freddy, F5IRO (aka TO4E, FK/F5IRO, FR/F5IRO, FY/F5IRO and TO7R) on a 4 months assignment to Papeete, Tahiti (IOTA OC-046, DIFO FO-002), is now active as FO5RU until January 21st. Most of his activity has been on 40/30 meters. He is expected to be active during his spare time on all HF bands, CW, SSB and RTTY. QSL via Rafik, F5CQ, either direct (SASE + Postage) or via the French REF-Union bureau
http://www.f5cq.net/dxp/2007-FO5RU/searchlog_fo5ru.php

FJ, ST. BARTHELEMY (DXCC Newest Entity!). Operators Paul/F6EXV and Yuichi/JR2KDN continue to be active as TO5FJ until January 20th. Yuichi is scheduled to leave St. Barts on the 15th, but Paul will remain until the 20th. The operators were only using wire dipole antennas at first but are now using a cushcraft beam with a WARC band attachment on it. Again, look for activity on 160-10m, CW, SSB and RTTY. Online line logs are available at: http://www.f6exv.org/LOG_ONLINE/

FO/M, MARQUESAS ISLANDS. Operators Jouko/OH1RX, Pertti/OH2PM, Veijo/OH6KN and Juha/OH8NC are active as FO/OH1RX from Nuku Hiva (OC-027) until January 22nd. Activity will be on 160-10 meters with a maximum of three stations running. However, they plan to concentrate on 160-30 meters. QSL via OH2PM, by the Bureau or direct to: Pertti Simovaara, Suomusjarventie 460, 25390 Kiikala, Finland. Martti, OH2BH, has been announced as the pilot station for their operation. Their Web site is now available with an online log search at: http://sm0w.com/marquesas/

FT5W & FT5X, CROZET AND KERGUELEN ISLANDS. Gildas, TU5KG, is once again heading to the Southern Indian Ocean area, around Kerguelen and Crozet Islands. No details or dates on whether he will be making stops on these islands, but he has new callsigns issued to him. They are FT5XR and FT5WN. You will probably hear them first on maritime mobile. QSL via F4EFI, by the bureau or direct.

H7, NICARAGUA. Andrei, EW1AR/NP3D, will be active from here as H7/NP3D between February 3-11th. He is actually going there for the CQ WPX RTTY Contest (February 9-10th). As a member of the Yankee Clipper Contest Club, he will use the callsign H7/NP3D before and during the Contest. While there his focus, of course, will be on RTTY on all HF bands, then CW and SSB. For the contest he is not sure if he will be a Multi or Single Band entry. This will be determined upon his arrival. He will be joined by Demitry/AK2P and Joel/KB2PDW later on while down there. Logs will be uploaded via LoTW on daily basis if Internet does not fail him. If you want a nice paper QSL, please QSL via W3HNK. FJ/OH2AM QSLS. QSL Manager Jarmo, OH2BN, reports: "We are delighted to inform you that QSL cards for the FJ/OH2AM operation will start going out early next week now that the operation is accredited for the DXCC award program as of January 11, 2008. Full-color cards will be arriving from the printers in Poland on the 15th of January (Tuesday) and we will start processing direct requests immediately. The legwork is already done, all envelopes opened and sorted. Those 23,340 QSOs made by the duo represent 11,730 individual DXers and obviously that many QSL requests as well. The logbook will be included in the LoTW later this year. Because of the close DXCC Honor Roll submission date, March 31, 2008, we plan to make out all QSLs received during January to be released during the month of February. By the 20th of February we will release a status report and probably another option to bypass the queue for those who at that time still want to have QSLs received for a late March submission. We thank you for your kind words about the operation and support received through the QSL mail." OH2BN's mail address is: Jarmo J. Jaakola, Kiilletie 5 C 30, FI-00710 Helsinki, FINLAND. Read the FJ/OH2AM story and see the QSL card to be sent out at: http://www.kolumbus.fi/oh2bn/barts.htm

GS/IRC CHART. Bill, W9OL, has provided an interesting "Green Stamp/IRC Chart" to reflect some 2008 postal rate changes. Look at this excellent QSLing tool at: http://www.qsl.net/w9ol/IRC_Chart.htm

"The Mongolian Radio Sport Federation (MRSF) QSL Bureau does not work any more", states Khos, JT1CD. The only QSL Bureau in Mongolia is the following: Mongolian Amateur Radio Society, QSL Bureau, P.O.Box 830, Ulaanbaatar-24, Mongolia.

NEW QSL MANAGER. Irv, K3IRV, is now the QSL Manager for PP5EG.

NO LONGER MANAGER. Emir, 9A6AA, reports that after 9 years, and being one of the founders of the Islands Of Croatia Award (IOCA), he is no longer a IOCA Manager. He states, "Nobody knows why because there is no explanation from new 9A HQ." However, 9A6AA will stay as IOTA Country Assistant and will keep the IOCA-IOTA parallel list on his Web site at: http://www.inet.hr/9a6aa/IOTA/list.htm
The Web site will also have some interesting information regarding island activities in Croatia.

VE NEW CANADIAN POSTAL RATES: Canadian international postal rates will rise on January 14th. The new rate to the USA will be .96 Cdn and elsewhere in the world 1.60 Cdn. Both rates cover up to 30 g. Sales tax is also charged by the Canadian post office on stamps which means that at the current rate of exchange of approximate par with the U.S. dollar, 1 USD is now insufficient for mail to the USA. 2 USDs has been required to cover return postage for international mail for some time.

QSL W2V via N2MUN (CBA - SASE Please). DX stations can use the Bureau. This was a special event station for the Ham Radio University (HRU)/ARRL New York City Long Island Section Convention.

QSLS VIA LOTW: E51A, E51MMM, E51NNN and GJ4FDM

Details of this and much other in-band nastiness are reported on http://www.iarums-r1.org/ , the website of the Region 1 Intruder Watch. I don't think they'll have much luck in shifting this one, but they have had some success in the past in moving persistent offenders by complaining through official channels.

And a good blog it is too! I do envy you having all that country to dive into - if you like radio, the natural beauty of the wide open spaces is only enhanced by the low noise level on the bands. Every so often I escape for a week or two to rural Sweden with my portable kit, which usually attracts some comment at airport security. One time, after I'd pulled open my carry-on and laid out the rig, amp, cables, interfaces, antennas and so on across the table at Stansted, the security woman scratched her head and said "So, you're going out to a farm in the middle of nowhere, among all that lovely woodland and lakes and stuff?". "Yes," I said. "And you're taking all this?" "Yes," I said. "For the name of all that's holy, WHY?".

I did start to tell her about cities and QRN and the pure joy of weak signals on an otherwise silent band as the sun sets in a blue sky through dark trees on a distant forest horizon and... it was amazing how quickly I was told to pack it in, pack it up and get the hell out of her security area.

Rupert, G6HVY and yes, I packed my bag myself

Rupert,

You're a laugh :) hahahahaha Obviously I don't have to much of a hassle with the DEGEN 1103 portable SW radio, but when the ICOM R75 gets packed as carry on luguage there's a few strange looks and back and forth going through with the airport XRAY machine :)

Funny you should say Farm and holiday, we have our Australia Day Long weekend coming up, and the Wife and I are taking the 4x4 and Camper trailer to a nice little camp ground in the Kosciuszko National Park , no light polulation so the stars in the night sky are magnificant and noise population so the location its great for digging out some of those weaker stations I like chasing :)

Take care Rupert, and hope you get to the Swedish country side soon for a break and I'll see you round.

Regard
Mark

Wow! That takes me back.

No doubt you will have learnt in your school history that the original Australian colony was founded by one Admiral Arthur Phillips?

Well, he is buried in the churchyard at Bathampton and on Australia Day, 26th January 1975 a chapel was dedicated to his memory by the then Bishop of Bath & Wells, Dr.Henderson.

I was on the strength of the bell-ringers at Bathampton then and we rang a commemorative peal :-

In 2 hours and 35 mins, a peal of 5040 doubles being 6 extents each of Grandsire,
Reverse Canterbury Pleasure Bob, Winchendon Place, St.Nicholas Bob, Plain Bob,
St.Martin's Bob and St.Simon's Bob

Well, you could save some cash and try this location on Anglesey which also benefits from very low bg noise, clear skies etc.

Oh, we have a holiday cottage by the way :-)

JORN operates over the West - North - North-East sectors, the OP is well to the south behind the arrays.

It has been suggested that JORN can determine what type of aircraft is taking off from Singapore airport.

Indeed, but what goes forward must come back for the radar to work. The Jindalee transmitters have been used for ionospheric research with significant back scatter. Also even though the front to back ratio of the Jindalee Tx antennas is high there will still be significant gain in the rear lobe; probably in the region of 5dB, compared to the 20dB forward gain.

119. Why the US airwaves are not free.

Source record: 11008

The ruling democrat and republican parties proclaim that the airwaves "belong to the people." But if the people ever try to get access to any mass media that uses the airwaves, they would find these same parties tightly control them. The statement that the airwaves belong to the people is a hollow phrase that makes people feel good, as long as they never test it.

The American airwaves are almost completely dominated by large and wealthy private groups that broadcast their own opinions, not necessarily those of the people.

The democrat and republican parties want to control the airwaves for the same reason that totalitarian governments shut down any opposition media organizations. They want to censor the information that the mass of the people are allowed to know, in case the population gets too much negative information and wishes to throw the ruling parties out.

Secondly, when a political party is in power, it gets to dole out government contracts and licenses to private groups that petition it. What you don't see is that the halls of Congress and the regulatory agencies and the White House are crowded with lobbyists whose job is to distribute bribes to government officials for these privileges. In America, these bribes are promises of high-paying, do-nothing jobs like seats on Boards of Directors of corporations, and other nice jobs. Former senator Bill Bradley now sits on the board of Starbucks. These bribes are also called campaign contributions.

Now you know why the ruling parties, the democrat and republican, fought so hard to end freedom on the internet. Freedom of speech requires privacy and privacy requires anonymity. So to end freedom on the internet, these parties had to destroy any anonymity of speech you have on the internet.

Tyrannical parties, the Chinese communists and the American democrats and republicans, must be able to know who is spreading threatening political speech in any form of mass media because this threatens their control over the gravy train of government taxes and contract awards.

Since only 39% of the electorate vote in an American election, and the two parties are roughly even, this means that either party represents less than 20% of the eligible voters. But it costs nothing, only a signature to say you belong to one party or another, so the real percentage that either ruling political party in America represents is much smaller than 20%. So neither the democrats nor republicans, even combined, represent a majority of even the electorate which is not even the the population itself.

The American ruling parties had a special problem. They had to shut down freedom of internet speech without appearing to be against free speech. They needed an excuse. They found the excuse in two ways. Terrorism and Pedophilia.

In order to take freedom and rights away from the people, a political party in power must first convince the people to give up their freedoms willingly. The democrate and republican parties used an old political trick. They had to convince the people there was a monster among them, and that they had to give up their privacy to the the ruling parties so the parties could protect them. What was this monster?

It was pedophilia. They could not do through the terrorism argument because the terrorist are really just a foreign group. The ruling parties chose pedophilia as an excuse to control the internet because pedophiles are normal people from the general population. They cannot be differentiated from the population, so they are invisible. An invisible is so much more frightening. The ruling parties made sure that their friends in the mass media like yahoo and the news agencies only broadcast stories depicting pedophiles as evil, and never allowing news stories in which pedophilia is depicted as good or neutral.

The ruling parties and other ambitious political groups, like lesbian-feminists and the christian right, were also competing with each other. Any group that could say that the invisible army of drooling pedophiles was more dangerous, and that it could protect the people even better, would gain political advantage.

Now you know how the ruling parties in the US took away the latest form of mass media that gave you freedom of speech. You also know why they did it.

If you ever make political speech that might be a threat to the ruling parties, these parties will know right where to find you and they will pick you off one by one. No will know that you are being picked off because they ruling parties will neve admit that that their reason was political speech.

Instead they will send a low-level agent around to your house when you are asleep or not at home. She will pick through your garbage and peek in your window. They will keep looking for some slight infraction or law they can charge you with. Even if the charge is thrown out of court, just fighting the case will bankrupt you and waste months of your life.

I think there is something very "English" about the sound of Church bells from an old country Church. The sound drifting gentlly across a villiage green towards a pub, where you sit drinking a fine ale. Makes me think of summer.

Tell me Gareth, why did you stop bell ringing? It strikes me as a life long passion that, once mastered, you'd want to stick with.

After Quasimodo's death, the Bishop of the Cathedral of Chippenham sent word through the streets of Wiltshire that a new bell ringer was needed. The Bishop decided that he would conduct the interviews personally and went up into the belfry to begin the screening process.

After observing several applicants demonstrate their skills, he had decided to call it a day when a gentlemanly radio ham approached him and announced that he was there to apply for the bell ringer's job.

The Bishop replied: "You cannot ring bells with those artistic hands. Those fingers were made for pounding the morse key at 12wpm, for the fettling of neutralising Kapacitors and polarised resistors, and for typing the weekly positive exhortation!"

"No matter." replied the radio ham, "Observe!" And he began striking the bells with his face, producing a beautiful melody on the carillon.

The Bishop listened in astonishment, convinced he had finally found suitable replacement for Quasimodo. But suddenly, rushing forward to strike a bell, the unfortunate radio ham tripped and plunged headlong out of the belfry window to his death in the street below. The stunned bishop rushed to his side.

When he reached the street, a crowd had gathered around the fallen figure, drawn by the beautiful music they had heard only moments before. As they silently parted to let the bishop through, one of them asked, "Bishop, who was this man?"

"I don't know his name," the bishop sadly replied, "but his face rings a bell."

The following day, despite the sadness that weighed heavily on his heart due to the unfortunate death of the gentlemanly campanologist radio ham, the bishop continued his interviews for the bell ringer of Chippenham. The first man to approach him said, "Your Excellency, I am the brother of the poor FAQwit that fell to his death from this very belfry yesterday. I pray that you honour his life by allowing me to replace him in this duty."

The Bishop agreed to give the man an audition, but as the radio ham's brother stooped to pick up a mallet to strike the first bell, he groaned, clutched at his chest and died on the spot. Two monks, hearing the bishop's cries of grief at this second tragedy, rushed up the stairs to his side.

"What has happened? Who is this man?" the first monk asked breathlessly.

"I don't know his name," sighed the distraught Bishop... "but he's a dead ringer for his brother."

571. The reason why. Types.--They had to deal with a carnal people and to render them the depositary of the spiritual covenant. To give faith to the Messiah, it was necessary there should have been precedent prophesies, and that these should be conveyed by persons above suspicion, diligent, faithful, unusually zealous, and known to all the world.

To accomplish all this, God chose this carnal people, to whom He entrusted the prophecies which foretell the Messiah as a deliverer and as a dispenser of those carnal goods which this people loved. And thus they have had an extraordinary passion for their prophets and, in sight of the whole world, have had charge of these books which foretell their Messiah, assuring all nations that He should come and in the way foretold in the books, which they held open to the whole world. Yet this people, deceived by the poor and ignominious advent of the Messiah, have been His most cruel enemies. So that they, the people least open to suspicion in the world of favouring us, the most strict and most zealous that can be named for their law and their prophets, have kept the books incorrupt. Hence those who have rejected and crucified Jesus Christ, who has been to them an offence, are those who have charge of the books which testify of Him, and state that He will be an offence and rejected. Therefore they have shown it was He by rejecting Him, and He has been alike proved both by the righteous Jews who received Him and by the unrighteous who rejected Him, both facts having been foretold.

Defective and final letters.

Sincere against their honour, and dying for it; this has no example in the world, and no root in nature.

631. Sincerity of the Jews.--They preserve lovingly and carefully the book in which Moses declares that they have been all their life ungrateful to God, and that he knows they will be still more so after his death; but that he calls heaven and earth to witness against them and that he has taught them enough.

He declares that God, being angry with them, shall at last scatter them among all the nations of the earth; that as they have offended Him by worshipping gods who were not their God, so He will provoke them by calling a people who are not His people; that He desires that all His words be preserved for ever, and that His book be placed in the Ark of the Covenant to serve for ever as a witness against them.

Isaiah says the same thing, 30.

632. On Esdras.--The story that the books were burnt with the temple proved false by Maccabees: "Jeremiah gave them the law."

The story that he recited the whole by heart. Josephus and Esdras point out that he read the book. Baronius, Annales Ecclesiastici a Christo Nato ad Annum 1198, 180: Nullus penitus Hebraeorum antiquorum reperitur qui tradiderit libros periisse et per Esdram esse restitutos, nisi in IV Esdrae.

The story that he changed the letters.

Philo, in Vita Mosis: Illa lingua ac character quo antiquitus scripta est lex sic permansit usque ad LXX.

Josephus says that the Law was in Hebrew when it was translated by the Seventy.

Under Antiochus and Vespasian, when they wanted to abolish the books, and when there was no prophet, they could not do so. And under the Babylonians, when no persecution had been made, and when there were so many prophets, would they have let them be burnt?

Josephus laughs at the Greeks who would not hear...

We must not put on the same level and confound things, because they seem to agree in one point, while they are so different in another. The clearness in divine things requires us to revere the obscurities in them.

It is like men, who employ a certain obscure language among themselves. Those who should not understand it would understand only a foolish meaning.

It is said that "this generation shall not pass till all these things be fulfilled." Upon that I will say that after that generation will come another generation, and so on ever in succession.

Solomon and the King are spoken of in the second book of Chronicles as if they were two different persons. I will say that they were two.

The eternal covenant--a new covenant.

Good laws--bad precepts. Ezekiel.

687. Types.--When the word of God, which is really true, is false literally, it is true spiritually. Sede a dextris meis:136 this is false literally, therefore it is true spiritually.

In these expressions, God is spoken of after the manner of men; and this means nothing else but that the intention which men have in giving a seat at their right hand, God will have also. It is then an indication of the intention of God, not of His manner of carrying it out.

Thus when it is said, "God has received the odour of your incense, and will in recompense give you a rich land," that is equivalent to saying that the same intention which a man would have, who, pleased with your perfumes, should in recompense give you a rich land, God will have towards you, because you have had the same intention as a man has towards him to whom he presents perfumes. So iratus est, a "jealous God," etc. For, the things of God being inexpressible, they cannot be spoken of otherwise, and the Church makes use of them even to-day: Quia confortavit seras,137 etc.

It is not allowable to attribute to Scripture the meaning which is not revealed to us that it has. Thus, to say that the closed mem of Isaiah signifies six hundred, has not been revealed. It might be said that the final tsade and he deficientes may signify mysteries. But it is not allowable to say so, and still less to say this is the way of the philosopher's stone. But we say that the literal meaning is not the true meaning, because the prophets have themselves said so.

The unseen, unthought-of ways and means of persons going suddenly out of the world are innumerable and inconceivable. Unconverted men walk over the pit of hell on a rotten covering, and there are innumerable places in this covering so weak that they will not bear their weight, and these places are not seen. The arrows of death fly unseen at noon-day; the sharpest sight cannot discern them. God has so many different unsearchable ways of taking wicked men out of the world and sending them to hell, that there is nothing to make it appear, that God had need to be at the expense of a miracle, or go out of the ordinary course of his providence, to destroy any wicked man, at any moment. I've carried quite a bit of amateur radio equipment on flights over the years around the world, and the biggest problem I ever had was when one jobsworth at a UK airport decided he didn't like my nice shiny Vibroplex paddle key. As the base is solid metal, they couldn't really see into it with the x-ray, so he had me empty my bag and went though everything! He even dabbed the Vibroplex with some pad that he then put into some machine that detects explosives! All this was done even after showing him my UK amateur licence and after showing him an advert for the exact same Vibroplex in a magazine I happened to have in my bag! I don't know what he thought it was, but it took almost 20 minutes to convince him it was harmless, even after showing him the photo in the magazine!

At the other extreme, I remember one time coming back from the Dayton Hamvention where I thought I would have big problems as I was carrying all sorts of radio related things. The things I thought would cause the most raised eyebrows were the four RadioWorks baluns in my bag, which to the uninitiated look like a stick of explosives with two wires out the top! Sailed straight through security at two different airports in the US without a single mention of them even though I was ready with lots of documentation to verify what they were (RadioWorks catalogue, receipts etc)!

G'day all,

Firsly let me say thanks to everyone who has posted a comment as there been a stack of responses about the "Noise", just hope I haven't created a monster :)

Hopefully Spike is correct about it not being the AUS DEFENCE FORCE (ADF) JORN. Also I'm hoping (and possibly a little naive) that the ADF would respect the Amateur and Commerial bands allocation ???. If it is ADF then BUGGER !!!!!!!

Well the noise has been continuing for the past 4 nights that I've tried to listen on the 40m band. The noise doesn't appear 24x7 it does appear to start approx 0900/1000 UTC and obviously stop sometime after I hit the sack, as right now 40m perfect :).

Remember that Gareth used to be a practising Christian. He also seemed fairly normal at the time. I suspect that whatever happened to him to turn him into what he is today was a combination of losing his job and perhaps also being asked to leave his bellringing tasks...

Here is an interesting semi-technical description of OTHR systems.
Although a fairly long read, it is nevertheless interesting and descriptive:

http://pubs.drdc.gc.ca/PDFS/unc64/p527279.pdf

You might find Section 4.3 on page 22 of interest, and especially the third paragraph of that section.

Radio Amateurs in Europe were subjected in the past to severe interference from the Soviet Duga-2 OTHR system in the Ukraine. A 12 pulse-per-second signal would swamp receivers, and on a good day could cause interference to the analogue telephone system.

Some techniques used to encourage the OTHR operators to find other frequencies included sending Morse dots at the same pulse rate, and to replay recordings of the received signals. In retrospect, and keeping in mind the description of OTHR signal detection and resolution in the above reference, it would suggest that the Amateur countermeasures resulted in signals smearing across or flooding of the Doppler cells, making the detection of moving targets difficult or impossible. Hence the operators would move frequency.

If anyone in Australia tries these techniques, and the signal turns out to be JORN, expect an uncomfortable visit from heavy people.
However, OTHR has been around in Australia for some time, and problems caused by Amateurs will have been taken into account in the design and operation of the system.

To my untutored ear, the signals sound to be too high a PRF for the Russians, who may not have a working network anyway, and the operational characteristics of JORN, such as PRF, don't seem to be readily available.

My bet is an an experimental Chinese system, the owners of which have yet to learn the lessons of others before them - that you don't wind up other nations in a 2000-mile arc by flooding their HF utilities with high-power pulses.

I'm sure your government will get round to making representations.
I'll leave it to Amateurs in Australia to determine whether more direct action is feasible or advisable....

Let us know how things develop.

Apologies for replying to my own post; bad form, etc.

Reading around the subject, it would seem that practical OTHR systems operate between 6 and 30 MHz. The frequency chosen for any one scan is the resultant of a combination of factors, such as ionospheric stability in the chosen direction, the MUF (and hence time of day), and the desired target.

For targets that are greater than or comparable to the wavelength at the lowest frequency, the Radar Cross Section is sensibly constant over the frequency range. For targets that are smaller, the RCS reduces fairly rapidly with decreasing frequency.

At night the higher-frequency bands aren't open, so the OTHR operators have to trade off the targets that can be detected, against the frequencies available, as small targets will have no detectable returns when only lower frequencies are available.

So, it would seem that the Chinese operators are looking for large air targets, such as commercial jets, probably to correlate the processed information with known aircraft movements available from cooperative or other open-source information. Ships would be detectable if the filtering of the Doppler signal is sophisticated enough and other factors allow.

It's not going to get better. Back in the days of the Woodpecker (which I notice has the NATO name of Steel Yard, and lots of photos, etc, are available now via the Wiki entry - http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Russian_Woodpecker
) it took enormous amounts of grunt and massive iron to make OTHR work. Now, with all that fab DSP goodness available for pennies, OTHRs are going to get far more capable, easy to make and widespread. And with HF broadcasting becoming less important politically, the pressure on the military to respect band allocations will be equally reduced - I guess they'll avoid aviation and marine bands because of the danger to life, and while we can make the same arguments for amateur bands they're a lot weaker. Democracies might want to stick to the rules, but the rest couldn't care less.

Might be time to think up some ECM -- or start the rumour that the very best band for OTHR is between 26.5 and 27.999 MHz :)

One of the advantages of the FT817 is that it has internal batteries - pretty useless for serious work, but if you're asked that sort of question at airport security you can always just plug the key in, select sidetone and give 'em a blast of the old dah-dit-dah. Nothing says harmless eccentric radio nut like Morse.

Attention all Amateur Operators.
Please Read, and send your comments to the ARRL and Romney Website.

Wednesday 16 November 2005 @ 15:48:10 | Eastern Massachusetts ARRL Romney 'Disses' Amateur Radio In Televised Town Meeting Posted on Wednesday16 November 2005 @ 15:48:10

Governor Mitt Romney dismissed the role of Amateur Radio operators in emergency communications during a televised 'town meeting' program last night on WCVB's 'When Disaster Strikes: Segment Two.'
The program featured public safety and volunteer organization officials from across Massachusetts
among its audience.

Host and moderator Natalie Jacobson asked an increasingly-agitated Governor Romney questions about communications interoperability, and communication without commercial power.
Romney was next asked by Jacobson, '...so does it come down to ham radio?...'

The Governor replied in a disgusted tone, 'No, we don't need to deal with ham radio operators...'

Embarrassed public safety officials later tried to put in a good word for Amateur Radio. National Weather Service Warning Coordination Meteorologist Glenn Field was prepared to state the importance of Amateur Radio, when Salvation Army Colonel Fred Van Brunt was called upon. Van Brunt remarked about his organization's quest to improve its communications capabilities and how Amateur Radio has aided his organization. 'The ham radio situation helps a great deal,' he stated.

'I have already written and submitted a letter to the Governor's Office,' wrote Eastern MA Section Emergency Coordinator Rob Macedo, KD1CY. 'I have also written an email to Natalie Jacobson.'

ARRL Section Manager Mike Neilsen, W1MPN sent a section-wide email today to all Eastern MA ARRL members describing the incident along with actions he and his staff were taking to mitigate the situation.

'[Romney's] attitude about us sets an unfortunate tone within the state's executive branch,' wrote Neilsen. 'As a former military officer, I see this as a failure in leadership. My immediate concern is our working relationship within the [Massachusetts Emergency Management Team] environment.' Neilsen intends to address the Governor's comments as 'an urgent matter' at a meeting on November 17 with Don Carlton from the Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency.

'I was very disturbed about what the Governor stated on the program,' wrote Ron Wood, W1PLW, the section's Public Information Coordinator. 'It does show that more work is needed by all hams in the section. It's a great idea to write letters explaining the good we do.' Wood is attempting to schedule a meeting with the Governor's office tomorrow so that EMA ARRL staffers might discuss the matter further.

Tom Kinahan, N1CPE wrote that Governor Romney's comment has made 'a PR problem' for Kinahan in his role as MA State RACES Officer.

'I've got a roster of over 150 Amateur Radio operators that support local communities, and those of us that directly support the state government. There are at least double that in terms of people that are actually out there that I don't have formal paperwork on that support Amateur Radio emergency communications in some organized manner... The Governor has said that he 'certainly doesn't need to rely on ham radio' -- where does that leave the RACES program now?'

'I am ashamed tonight that I am a Republican!' remarked one ham radio viewer. '[Romney] speaks in derogatory tones about hams. He certainly shows an ignorance as to what we do and are capable of. I suggest a grass roots campaign of local hams calling the State House and The Governor's Office to protest.'

One more good reason not to vote for him...but look at the bright side: This will give him a chance to flip-flop again and say how much he likes hams. ;-)

P.S. Even though I'm not a resident of the state of Massachusetts, I wrote a letter of protest at the time. As a non-resident, you can imagine how far it got.

That is certainly one avenue to pursue; however, some roads lead to better places than others.

How about a re-evaluation of us, our plans, our equip., etc. and instead of finding fault with other--why they do not find our services desirable, we ask the question, "What can we do to become up-to-date-current and make our services desirable--to the point they can't ignore us?"

But then, that stands a fat chance ...

JS

Any security person who accepts evidence provided by the owner of a "suspicious" object wouldn't be doing their job properly. TBH being rather keen to provide your own identification evidence rather than a "bored lets get this over with quickly" attitude may well make them even more suspicous of you and your baggage. Why does this person want that object through security so much? Why are they so keen to try and prove it is X?

Yeah, butt; Remember JFK, "Ask not what your country can do for you; Ask what you can do for your country ..." (paraphrased, of course)

It has been suggested that JORN can also tell wind direction in the Timor Sea by the reflections of signals from the wave tops.

JORN operates outside the amateur bands thankfully. However, this Chinese pest has been wiping out the bottom end of 40m for a couple of years now, and is thought to emanate from the Paracel Islands.

Ummmmm...did you guys see the date on that "news release".

It was Nov of 2005. (2 years and 1 month ago)

Then again this seems to not be an issue with most hams.
Being several days late and $25 short is standard operating procedure.
Heck most of the hams I hear on 75 Meters on a nightly basis at night in 4 and 5 land still sound like their stuck in the 1940's and 50's with all their use of the N-word and racial tirades against Obama and Hillary and all the other assorted obsolete BS spewed out each evening. What else is new folks ?

The basic weaknesses in OTHRs are the low power in the returned signal, compared to the powers that can easily be generated in the target zone by jammers, and the long paths over which the systems operate.

It strikes me that a modicum of signal processing and some co-operation between stations should make it possible to automatically generate spoof returns that make the system unusable in any band where those stations are licensed to operate. And while we can't know exactly how the OTHR analyses its returns, it must be possible to model the physics behind the reflection mechanisms and then come up with something unpleasantly similar. The limit may be in the processing delay between receiving the source signal and synthesising the fake return, but that would translate to a tiny positional error rather than something that can be easily gated. You can fit a lot of CPU cycles into a few metres of c these days - and does anyone have a decent link budget for the energy returned to a typical OTHR by whatever it's looking for?

If the operators find that every time they stray between 7 and 7.4 MHz, a giant fleet of phantom Zepplins appears over the South China Sea, it may encourage them to stick to more useful frequencies...

Rupert, G6HVY and has anyone got GCHQ's tech support number?

ISTM the real weakness in OTHR systems is that fact that the wanted signal is 80dB below the ground clutter. Processing the Doppler signal means any deliberate inteference has to be in the time domain rather than the frequency domain for it to be effective.

In the Woodpecker days (the Soviet Duga-3 system in the Ukraine) Amateurs apparently successfully caused enough interference to make the operators change frequency by replaying recordings of the signal, and sending streams of dots at a critical dot rate.

There is plenty of information in open sources. This one looks at the topic:

http://pubs.drdc.gc.ca/PDFS/unc64/p527279.pdf

The above reference may help.

>If the operators find that every time they stray between 7 and 7.4

It seems to me that a co-operative jamming effort in neighbouring OTHR search cells could remove one the methods of determining real targets from hopefully-generated false ones.

>Rupert, G6HVY and has anyone got GCHQ's tech support number?

Yes, but it's secret. Send them a fax....any number will do....

But they don't do OTHR, so what help can you expect them to be/

Romney just lost my VOTE. I have been a ham for 35+ years and working in emergency services for over 45 years he is a looser. NO, I will not vote for McCain either, and I'm a proud VETERAN.

If you do nothing else, check out this youtube link:

Better yet, use the search on the youtube page and search for all the vid clips on Ron Paul.

It's not ignorance - he's clearly in Motorola's back pocket, to take away whatever ham spectrum he can to give to the big communications cartels. All in the name of "emergency response", of course, but anyone who can add up a couple bandwidths knows that the real need is to give it to the cellphone companies.

The ARRL has to kind of pussyfoot around these issues because you can't have hams being against the communications cartels as long as "emergency responder radio" spectrum is their trump card.

Everyone I know, who is "cutting edge", is ~1Ghz+. My 100W Ghz amp is unbelievable--I am now constructing the 1KW (and I am telling you, there ARE major design/construction problems to deal with!)--dreaming about 4KW!

The proper name is "Democrat" Party. \

The word, democratic, is an adjective.

People have incorrectly called it Democratic for so long it does not matter anymore.

John,
I would respectfully beg to differ with you. This incident actually happened a couple of years ago, -long- before he threw is hat in the

You miss the point, the smear is NOW. Why bring up comments that are two years OLD, NOW? To smear the guy, is the only reason.....

It was my understanding when it was first brought up that what he meant was they the government agencies were fully able to handle there own comm needs. It would have truly been udder stupidity on his part for him to have meant anything else. It is true that the amateur radio community is needed less and less even though we are more than willing and able to fill the need. A very small case in point: A charity walk/run used to be handled by the local ham radio clubs providing emergency communication and coordination via handheld radios and the local repeaters. This past year it was handled by the Girl Scouts using cell phones.

You wrote:

No, 'You', I believe YOU miss the point. Romney said he did not like ham radio operators. Words from his own mouth. Period.

Please tell me why -quoting- what HE ACTUALLY SAID is a smear...and if by some stretch of the imagination, you manage to twist a direct quote around as a being a smear, well then, Romney smeared himself. Finally, are we to give him a free pass just because he said it 'x' number of (years) (weeks) (days) ago?

> Why bring up comments that are > two years OLD, NOW?

Well, because he never retracted the statement. Presumably then, these are STILL his feelings towards hams. Again, does a negative statement he makes just 'time out' and shouldn't be quoted after a certain period of time even though he still stands by the statement? What period of time would you suggest that after which, we just ignore what he said?

3Y, BOUVET ISLAND (Update). Rhynhardt, ZS6DXB, 3Y0E Pilot station and Media Officer, announced this past week (edited): "Due to high QRM from Europe and a lot of requests from people with restricted licenses, we have moved 3Y0E operating frequency. Effective immediately, 3Y0E will change operating frequency to 14.260 MHz working split 5-10 kHz up. Operating times and schedule still remains the same due to the availability of power on the Island. We wish all that need 3Y0E still in their logbook good luck and good DX this weekend! Remember to visit the 3Y0E.com Web site to have a look if you are in the online log and for regular and interesting updates about the 3Y0E operation." These awards are given for service and dedication to amateur radio as recognized by the foundation's Directors. The prizes are in the form of a plaque and a monetary award. The winners of the first Yasme Excellence Awards are hereby introduced to the public.
Joseph L. Arcure, Jr., W3HNK, $2,000 for his long service to DXers as a QSL manager. Joe's efforts on behalf of DXer's everywhere promote international goodwill by facilitating cultural exchanges between operators that may never meet in person, yet share a common bond of DX operation.

Sheldon C. Shallon, W6EL, $2,000 for his work with propagation prediction software. By making propagation more accessible, Shel has done much to advance the technical skills of HF operators in understanding the physical environment of radio.

James Brooks, 9V1YC, $2,000 for DXpedition organization and videography. James' professional videos make the skills and excitement of DX operating and expeditioning more accessible to hams that haven't yet tried DXing and to non-hams alike.

Jukka Salomaa, OH2BUA, and Antti Kantola, OH5TB, $2,000 (shared) for conceiving, operating, and maintaining the DX Summit, the first widely-used Web-based spotting network portal. They created a tool that fundamentally changed the nature of HF operating, a true advancement of the radio art.

Thanks for making the databooks available, but boy
Rapidshare.com is sure a pain in the a$$!

20 minutes minimum between downloads, and a 2 minute

the mdxa appears to be a fraud as a club. there is no way to email anyone in their club via their website. they claim to be a dx club but after examining all their published membership no one is a major dx'er or contester. the thing that set off red flags for me is that there is no way to email the website management via the website. they claim heavy hitters but who are they? no one on the membership list qualifies, they have the mdxa deathmatch and the guy who came up with that appears to have left the club. the club seems to be a vhf net group with nets on 2fm, 2ssb, and 6ssb...this group seems very dirty.....why no email???

"ted" is either performing a cross-site-scripting or frame-based attack, or is pushing traffic through his own page that adds a link-sharing affiliate ID so he gets "paid" for every link sent to ebay via rover.ebay.com (which is where the link ends up). There is no legitimate reason to bounce a link through 3 or 4 fishy redirects if they goal is just to be informative. The fact that a different "shortcut" domain is used every time is an indication of malice.

Good reasons to avoid "ted"'s links:
1. so this spammer doesn't get paid for posting his crap here
2. so your computer isn't compromised - it just takes one malicious jpg.
3. so you don't lose your ebay account to a hacker.

Another way to be polite to your readers is to use tinyurl.com's "preview" feature. When you enter a URL, they give you back two short forms; one starts out "http://tinyurl..." and goes directly to the target, while the other starts with "http://preview.tinyurl..." and displays the complete target URL, giving the reader the option to proceed or not.

Also, for your own protection, you can visit http://tinyurl.com/preview.php, and set a cookie in your browser which will turn on preview for you for all tinyurl.com links you follow.

Of course, this only works for tinurl.com, not the other URL shorteners.

201. K-K-Kevin pleads guilty to child pornography charges -- The Great Liberty Net runs for cover as K-K-Kevin threatens to expose them all Protesting descriptions of himself in the media as a neo-Nazi and white supremacist, Kevin Alfred Strom, 51, pleaded guilty today to one count of possession of child pornography in U.S. District Court in Charlottesville. As part of his plea, four counts of receiving child porn were dismissed .

Strom could receive a maximum of 10 years in prison and up to a $250,000 fine when he's sentenced April 21. He was indicted January 3, 2007 and has been in jail for over a year.

In October, Judge Norman K. Moon threw out two charges against Strom for enticing a minor to perform sexual acts after the prosecution's details about his alleged obsession with a 10-year-old Orange County girl fell short of the judge's view of a compelling case.

Former wife Elisha Strom testified about finding Strom in their Stanardsville home naked and aroused with photos on his computer of teen girls, who were singers in the white nationalist movement and whose heads were superimposed onto the bodies of even younger girls. (Note: Must be talking about Lynx and Lamb) A separate charge of witness intimidation, an alleged physical attack on Mrs. Strom, was also dismissed.

Mrs. Strom was in court today to watch her husband plead guilty.

Kevin Strom founded the National Vanguard, a white nationalist organization dedicated to protecting the rights and racial purity of Caucasians, after his split with the West Virginia-based National Alliance. Before his ouster from the National Alliance, Strom was seen as the group's intellectual leader and the protege of its founder, William Pierce, whose book, The Turner Diaries, blamed Jews, foreigners, and blacks for America's ills and inspired homegrown terrorist Timothy McVeigh.

When Judge Moon asked Kevin Strom whether he'd been threatened to agree to plead guilty, Strom said he had received threats in jail, but he doesn't think they're about his guilty plea.

"They have more to do with the media describing me as a white supremacist," declared Strom, who advocates separate areas for "endangered" whites. "I deeply resent the way I've been characterized in the press. I'm no more a white supremacist than the Dalai Lama is."

I know thiss is a swap forum, but this seems to be the best place to seek info for me.

I was successful bidder in October on a IFR FM/AM-1100S. First had to wait for approval of my End User Certificate, which was in mid December. I made the transaction, paid the "UPS Store" to pick it up and ship it to me. It didn't work, naturally. Spent about 15 hours making it work. So far so good.

I get an e-mail today. The Government has changed its core to require "demilitarization", meaning they want me to ship it back, it is to be destroyed. AN IFR! ??? Its part of the fine print. And I guess if I bought a surplus h-bomb I can understand it, but this is such benign equipment. It can be bought on Ebay almost constanty one is available.

Does anyone have any experience with somehting like this? And if so, is it possible to talk some sense into their head? As my first purchase like this I certainly will never bid on anything again with them. There's always scopes being sold, etc. And if an IFR can be called back, anything can, so be warned there as well.

Thanks for listening.

Am I an unusual case, or have others had lack or response from the ARRL equipment insurance people?
They are Marsh Affinity. Filed a claim via FAX in December. Called and left voicemail sent E-mail, multiple times. No acknowledgement whatsoever. Completely ignored. I had an antenna (Tribander) damaged in the recent icestorm in OK. Maybe they are just slow? Couldn't they say, hold your horses and we will eventually get to you? E-mailed the AARL group for the insurance too.
No response.

The policy specifically says antennas ARE covered, and I listed a

You can also simply say you no longer have possession of it as it was sold somewhere but since you have it that is a problem.

I received the same letter for equipment I bought in the past (over a year ago) and I sent them a nasty letter back to the effect that I had no idea where it was and since I trade all the time at hamfests so they are out of luck.

They accepted it.

For some unknown reason there has been a change in Govt. Policy and they have made it retroactive. They have been starting to do that on many electronic auction items over the past year or so and it is a stupid policy which means they will cost you and I the tax payer large amounts of money because we will no longer buy from Govt. auctions.

I must also say that a number of us have ceased buying at that auction because of the same problem you are having. Many more can expect to get those letters in the future I was told.

But is the insurance to compensate for the antenna not working properly, or to compensate for it falling down?

Because the previous comment reminds me of the old line, attributed to Sam Harris, that "if an antenna stays up a whole winter, it's too small" or something like that.

The thing that gets me is that it just makes no sense. Its equipment available anywhere, no big secrets, etc.

And yeah, I won't ever bid again, which I will convey to Govt Liquidation, who I bid through. If they do enough business they can maybe exert some pressure, as a matter of protecting their cut.

And all this after I waited 3 months for the EUC to be approved, which I tought was for this purpose, make sure it was not going to the wrong hands, etc. Makes the EUC pointless.

Oh well, I found another on Ebay for same price. The only down side is that they won't pay the shipping from them to me.

And I called, they guy said pretty much what you said, if I don't have it, note it on the return letter and that's the end of it. So...why bother...It just makes no sense...

Well, thanks for the understanding ear.

It is obviously a stupid policy and it is especially stupid when they go back over a year ago. The first one I got was for some multimeters!

What is so secret about multimeters???? Waiting for more letters as I bought scopes and other great stuff that is god knows where!

Same question you had with the IFR. Since then I have talked to others and they are getting the same letters.

If you get a EUC you would think all is fine but no longer true. Just means that the items are now going for scrap prices.

Good Luck.. Didn't mean to be off topic..

FYI, in theory the insurance is pretty much unconditional. I thought there might be some legaleze in the fine print regarding antennas, as Michael, VE2BWVW said, but it is covered in my case.

I would imagine that if it fell, it might be disputed (maybe installed poorly). To make a long story short, I contacted the insurance people and, the person that was working there is gone now, and there was lack of continuity in communications with their customers. They had my claim number there, and all I have to do is buy a replacement and send them the receipt. There is a $50.00 deductible, which is a lot better than my homeowners insurance would do.
My TH5 had sooooo much ice on it, the BOOM was drooping in addition to the elements. That is a lot of weight. This caused the traps to fail mechanically internally. The antenna looks ok now that the load is off of it. The tower is ok, but if it had failed, it was also covered, according to the policy.

HAM RADIO IN POLITICS: CANDIDATE MITT ROMNEY AND HAM RADIO

Republican presidential contender Mitt Romney says that he never intended to demean Amateur radio in n exchange with a television reporter two years ago. This, as the debate over his comments flares anew on the ham bands and on hobby radio blogging websites nationwide. Amateur Radio Newsline's Don Wilbanks was the one who contacted Mitt Romney and asked him to explain:

It all began during a televised Town Meeting that aired on November 16th of 2005 on segment 2 of WCVB television's "When Disaster Strikes" The program featured public safety and volunteer organization officials from across Massachusetts. Moderator Natalie Jacobson had asked Governor Romney questions about communications interoperability, and communication without commercial power.

During the exchange Jacobson commented '...so you don't see yourself getting down to ham radio operators?...' The then governor replied: "No, we don't need to deal with ham radio operators. We have power systems that allow us to speak with one another and to manage our response."

Hams across Massachusetts and eventually across the nation only seemed to hear the words "we don't need to deal with ham radio operators" and reacted negatively. This, even though the remark was taken out of context. Most hams never bothered to find out what really transpired even though the entire program has been available on the WCVB website since it was broadcast. Instead they relied on inaccurate and incomplete information being passed along on the World Wide Web.

The issue eventually died away only to reappear on the ham radio blogs in recent weeks as a result of Romney seeking the Republican party's nomination to run for the U-S presidency. For example, in the Talk and Opinion area of QRZ.com there is a subject titled: "Do we want a President who hates ham radio?" Reading the ongoing discussion shows that few of those taking part have ever have seen or heard the show in question,

So on Friday, January 18th I decided to see if Mitt Romney would be willing to address this issue in a clear an concise manner. So I wrote him the following e-mail:

" Mr. Romney,

In November of 2005 in a televised town meeting you commented that in an emergency you "don't need to deal with ham radio operators".

My family lived in the greater New Orleans area when Hurricane Katrina hit. Hams made huge contributions down here. I am also a licensed ham, AE5DW.

My question is simple: Tell me how I can support you if you don't support us?
Thank you.

Don Wilbanks, AE5DW"

I did not know if I would get a response or not, but felt it was worth the effort to find out if Mitt Romney even remembered the incident and if so, what he might have to say. On Tuesday, January 22nd I received the following response via email in which the key paragraph read:

"Dear Don:

Thank you for following up with me on the responsibility of Ham Radio Operators. The exchange with Natalie Jacobsen was meant to imply that we need to strengthen our emergency response infrastructure, rather than demean the important role I recognize that Ham Radio Operators play around our country. I hope this will clear up any confusion. Again, thank you for contacting me. "

Whether the response came directly from Mitt Romney or one of his aids is hard to say. The reference made to WCVB's Natalie Jacobsen would tend to indicate that whoever actually wrote the response was aware of what transpired during the on-the-air exchange.

And as I mentioned earlier, the entire segment of the program "When Disaster Strikes" can be seen at the WCVB website. The exact U-R-L is www.thebostonchannel.com/video/5334306/index.html

Now living in Picayune, Mississippi, I'm Don Wilbanks, AE5DW.

Mitt Romney's response also warrants the question as to where all of the other candidates -- both Democrats and Republicans stand on issues important to ham radio operators. We will be looking into this in future Amateur Radio Newsline reports. (AE5DW, ARNewsline(tm))

RESCUE RADIO: HAM RADIO OPERATOR HELPS RESCUE STRANDED FAMILY IN THE SWIS ALPS

Six Ukrainian immigrants seeking asylum see have been rescued after getting lost in the snowy Swiss Alps and an unidentified ham radio operator is being credited with saving their lives.

The mother and her five children ran into difficulties while trying to cross illegally from Italy into Switzerland. They were saved late on after a Swiss citizen described as local radio amateur picked up their distress call made by the mother using a child's walkie-talkie.

The mother and her children, aged nine to 21, got stranded near Monte Lema, a 5,250 foot high mountain in the area of Ticino. According to regional police spokesman Marco Bordoli the family's calls for help in broken English were picked up by an Italian amateur radio operator who then alerted the authorities.

Police found the asylum seekers at 1700 local time (1400 GMT), and they were then airlifted by helicopter.

Three members of the family were taken to hospital with frostbite. Bordoli said the Ukrainians have already asked for political asylum and that their case would be heard by the public prosecutor's office. The ham radio operator is being praised as a hero. (BBC, SwissNews.com)

RESCUE RADIO: ACCIDENT HITS 3Y0E DXPEDITION

Problems for the DX-pedition operating from Bouveit Island. The Ohio Penn D-X newsletter has received a report that Petrus Kritzinger, 3Y0E, whose callsign is being used for the operation is occupied with an emergency situation. Word is that one of the team members has been bitten by an elephant seal and Petrus, who is the medic on the Island is currently looking after that unidentified person. Its not known how critical the bite is.

In a related development, ZS6DXB who is the Pilot station and Media Officer for the 3Y0E has announced that due to high QRM from Europe and a lot of requests from people with restricted licenses, they have moved 3Y0E operating frequency. 3Y0E is now on 14.260 MHz working split 5 to 10 kHz up the band. RADIO RECORDS: WA1ZMS AND W4WWQ GO 114 KM ON 241 GHZ

A pair of United states hams are now the likely distance holders for a contact on the 241Gigahertz band.

At 01:24 U-T-C on January 31st, Brian Justin, WA1ZMS portable 4 operating from Grid Square FM07 made contact with Peter Lascell, W4WWQ, also operating portable 4 from Grid Square EM96. That's a distance of 114.4km and beating out the old record of 79 km by 35.4 Km.

WA1ZMS says that the QSO was over 2 years in the making with several failed attempts at even shorter distances during that time period. He says that the key to success this time was the very driest of winter air that may only take place one day a year in his part of the country. The mode used for the contact was CW. HAM RADIO POLITICS: NEW MEMERS APPOINTED TO ARRL ELECTION ETHICS AND ELECTIONS COMMITTEE

The ARRL Board of Directors held their Annual January meeting January 18th and 19th in Houston, Texas. Among other things on the agenda was the election of ARRL officers, as well as members of the Executive, Administration and Finance, and Programs and Services Committees. Bill Pasternak, WA6ITF, is in the newsroom with more:

About the only item made public so far that will be of interest to most hams is a change in the membership of the Ethics and Elections Committee. But its not taken place as the result of the recent disqualification's of a potential candidate for office in Southern California and the public backlash that resulted. Rather, its just a normal change that occurs almost every year.

As a result there are three new Board members now sitting on the Ethics and Elections Committee. These are Director Coy Day, N5OK; Frank Fallon, N2FF, and Greg Sarratt, W4OZK.

According to an ARRL news release, the new members of the Ethics and Elections Committee are Directors not up for re-election in 2008. As per the ARRL By-Laws, this committee applies guidelines for ethical conduct by ARRL officials, determines eligibility of candidates for Director and Vice Director, certifies a nominee's eligibility to fill a Vice Director vacancy and supervises the balloting for Director and Vice Director.

A hint at what else might have discussed appears in a publication called the e-Communicator. It was sent to members in the ARRL's Southwestern Division following the meeting. In it, Director Dick Norton writes:

" The last e-Communicator's request for items to be brought up at the just concluded ARRL Board of Director's meeting resulted in requests for action to try to overturn CC&R prohibitions against antennas. Note that the ARRL already has a program attempting to do this."

Reference is then made to last years attempt. Norton concludes by stating: "It is not at all clear that such a bill is likely to ever become law, but the League is trying. A similar bill made it through one house of the Arizona state legislature in 2007, but was unable to get through the state senate."

From the Newsroom in Los Angeles, I'm Bill Pasternak, WA6ITF

Further details on the 2008 Annual Meeting will soon be available on the ARRL Web site and in the April 2008 issue of QST. (ARRL, SW Div E-Communicator)

ENFORCEMENT: UNLICENSED COLLEGE STATION WARNED TO STOP OPERATING

The FCC's San Diego Office has warned Mt. San Jacinto Community College in California to take an unlicensed broadcast radio station off the air.
On December 27th 2007 the regulatory agency notified the Mt. San Jacinto Community College that it was aware of a transmitter on 1620 kHz in the A-M broadcast band allegedly operating from the school. This, after an agent confirmed by radio direction finding on December 14th that the transmitter was located at the Music Building inside the Mt. San Jacinto campus.

The Commission says that its records show that no license was issued for operation of a broadcast station on 1620 kHz at that location. It warned the school that operation of radio transmitting equipment without a valid radio station authorization constitutes a violation of the Federal law. That it could subject the operator to severe penalties, including substantial monetary fines, seizure of the radio equipment, and criminal sanctions.

Mt. San Jacinto Community College was given 10 days from the date of the violation notice to respond and let the FCC know it had taken action to remove the transmitter from the airwaves. That date is now past. No word if school has responded to the notice from the FCC. (FCC)

ENFORCEMENT: OPERATING WITHOUT A LICENSE BRINGS $10,000 FINE

The FCC has affirmed a $10,000 monetary forfeiture to Eliandro B. Ramos, of Boston, Massachusetts. . This, for willfully and repeatedly violating Section 301 of the Communications Act by operating on the frequency of 296.550 MHz without Commission authorization.

Back on April 26, 2007, the Commission's Boston Field Office issued the $10,000 Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture to Ramos for operating without a license. Ramos never disputed the accusations but requests a cancellation of the forfeiture based on his inability to pay. The Commission reviewed the personal income tax returns submitted by Ramos and found that the forfeiture represents a percentage of gross income that falls within the range that has been found acceptable.

Ramos was given the usual 30 days from release of the January 16th order to pay or file a further appeal. (FCC)

ENFORCEMENT: FLORIDA PIRATE BROADCASTER SHUT DOWN USING STATE LAW

An illegal Florida radio station that authorities said was on air to "glamorize and encourage criminal gangster activity" was shut down Friday afternoon January 11th. Three people were arrested in connection the underground station that played a genre known as "gangsta rap" that often features crude and offensive lyrics.

Using state laws, the Polk County Sheriff's office arrested station operator Calvin Thompson, along with disc jockey's Wesley C. Williams Jr., and Jimessia Spillman. The three were booked into the Polk County Jail, accused of one count each of unauthorized transmission and interference with a licensed radio station. The offense is a third-degree felony.

According to Sheriff Grady Judd, his office worked in partnership with the State Attorney's Office and Federal Communications Commission to shut down the illegal operation. The radio station was operating without an FCC license.

KREX television in Grand Junction, Colorado, was destroyed by a fire early the morning of January 20th. The blaze reportedly started around nine AM. Fire fighters called their first effort defensive.

That means they had to fight the fire from the outside of the building. At one point a fire fighter tried to enter the building and was blown down by force.

Four of five Grand Junction Fire Department station units were called to the scene. The cause of the fire is not known at this time, and thankfully no one has been injured. The station's General Manager says as a result of the damage, the building will likely have to be demolished.

WORLDBEAT - PORTUGAL: CT JOINS THE D-STAR REVOLUTUION

Portugal has joined the world-wide D-Star revolution. This with word that a new D-Star repeater is now operational near the city of Leiria.

Nuno Santos, CT1EWA, the President of the Associação de Radioamadores do Distrito de Leiria, has announced that CQ0DLR is fully operational on the European R U 58 channel pair. That means its receiving on 430.925 MHz and retransmitting what it hears on 438.525 MHz. This is an input to output spacing of 7.6 MHz which is slowly becoming a sort of unofficial standard in parts of southern Europe for D-Star machines.

Like most other D-Star repeaters, CQ0DLR is connected to the world-wide D-Star Internet gateway. That means it can be connected to from anywhere in the world that there is a user with a D-Star equipped mobile, base or even an H-T.

More information is on the new Portuguese D-Star system is at the A-R-A-L web site. Its U-R-L in this weeks printed Newsline report.

WORLDBEAT-FRANCE: DRM AND T-DMB SELECTED

France has acted to standardize digital radio broadcasting, but not necessarily in unison with the rest of Europe. Jeff Clark, K8JAC, has more:

A French government official has signed a decree sanctioning implementation of DRM and T-DMB Audio in VHF band III and L band. This, as the terrestrial digital radio standards to be implemented in that country.

D-R-M stands for Digital Radio Mondiale. T-DMB Audio refers to the South Korea developed Terrestrial Digital Multimedia Broadcasting standard used for video to mobile telephones that is part of the Eurkea-147 family of standards.

The adoption of T-DMB Audio instead of DAB+, which is more spectrum efficient for audio services, was explained by a desire to include images and additional multimedia services alongside digital radio channels.

No word on when the complete switchover to digital audio broadcasting will take place in France. (RW)

Oh, come on!!

Some guy in Southern Mississippi writes to a Romney email address and most probably got a reply from a staffer. Do you think that Romney himself mans the mailboxes?

Then, you exaggerate the whole thing into "Newsline" talking with Romney, which is a prevarication worthy of the National Enquirer or of Newsmax.

Talk about self-serving "journalism" ... <SPIT!>

Huh?

Someone posted the old story here, and someone pointed out that it was two years old. I know I said something about how maybe they should check to see if there was a recant or some later story, since there might have been action at the time.

The people at Newsline may have seen the thread, I know I once posted about the death of someone famous who happened to be a ham and got email about it from someone well known to be connected with Newsline, and thought there was a story there, to see whether there had been a change.

Or, since someone saw fit to dredge up the story, it's possible that there were people who were even outraged by it, not noticing the stale date of the "news", and wrote called or emailed someone at the former governor's office or the ARRL or Newsline. Suddenly there's a spike of such complaints, so then maybe it's worth exploring.
You follow the story if you're in the news business. Unlike the whoever posted the "story" here originally who never looked far enough to notice the date or to check on later developments (or perhaps he wasn't clueless and it was deliberate to bring up a stale story no matter what the date), what happened two years ago may not be as important as what happened later.

DXCC NEWS. Bill Moore, NC1L, ARRL DXCC Manager, states the following in a press release (dated Jan. 21st) about "Adding FJ to DXCC": "There has been some confusion circulating regarding the current processing time and how it is affecting the addition of St. Barthelemy to the DXCC list and LogBook Of The World.
Before processing 2008 applications (containing St. Barthelemy cards) DXCC must complete and close out all 2007 applications. Once this is done, 2007 has ended for DXCC staff. The pace of the current application processing allows an estimated completion period of late March.
Upon completion of 2007 applications we shut DXCC down for about a day while we run all of the yearly lists. Only after these lists are completed can we add FJ to the DXCC List and in turn, Logbook of The World.
DXCC staff is working hard to reduce the turnaround time, and we appreciate your patience and understanding while we work to get caught up. You can help by planning your submissions wisely and taking steps to make sure your applications are prepared according to the instructions posted on the DXCC application form and as noted in the FAQ. There will be plenty of time for everyone to have their Honor Roll submissions in place by December 31, 2008....73 es DX!"

VISALIA 160M DINNER BANQUET. "Greetings Top Banders! This year's International DX Convention in Visalia will be April 25-27th, 2008, at the Holiday Inn. Convention information can be found here:
http://www.dxconvention.org/
In past years, Earl, K6SE, arranged for a dinner off site from the hotel. This was some distance away. This is a preliminary request to see if there is sufficient interest to have a dinner and in a banquet room at the Holiday Inn itself on Friday evening, April 25th. This would be a fixed price all-you-can-eat buffet with no-host bar. Payment would be in advance. The hotel is checking on banquet room availability and needs a minimum head count commitment. ASAP: Please E-mail me directly to confirm your interest. 'I would definitely attend,' will be very useful. If there is sufficient response and a banquet room is available, I'll look to post a formal announcement......73" - Steve WB6RSE - wb6rse1@mac.com

VP6, DUCIE ISLAND (Update). A press release on the VP6DX Web site reports that last week on Sunday, Eric/WA6HHQ of Elecraft Radio flew from Aptos to Long Beach, California, in his Cessna, and met Robin/WA6CDR to drop-off K3 radios to be used on VP6DX. A new custom carnet for the radios and a few other items were prepared and stamped by Homeland Security during the last few days. Robin flew from Los Angeles via the Cook Islands to Auckland, New Zealand, Thursday night with these items. Over the weekend, Robin met with the crew and master of the "Braveheart" to inventory all loaded equipment and acquire locally the last items (e.g., beverage antenna supports). All the air and sea freight shipments from the USA and Germany over the last two months were delivered to the "Braveheart" on time, and the ship was ready to set sail. As reported in last week's bulletin, a typhoon passing through the region (New Zealand) delayed the departure of the ship "Braveheart" to Mangareva, French Polynesia. The extra day's delay in departing New Zealand should not cause any trouble: the "Braveheart" will arrive at Mangareva around February 1st or 2nd, several days before the remainder of the operating team. The press release on the VP6DX Web site states, "The ship is stuffed full of DXpedition equipment! Diesel fuel burned during the transit to Mangareva will be drawn off fuel bladders on the deck freeing up some space. We will be cramped for space when the remaining 12 operators join the crew!" The group plans to depart for Ducie between February 6-9th and hope to be on the air by February 11th. The DXpedition continues to ask for funds because of the high cost of this operation. There are 3 ways to donate funds: 1) PayPal on the VP6DX Web page. 2) Checks (USDs) sent to K3NA. 3) USA donors over 100 USDs may make a directed gift to the Northern California DX Foundation, designated for the VP6DX project. For more details on donating and updates, visit the VP6DX Web page at: http://www.vp6dx.com

XU7, CAMBODIA. John, 9M6XRO (ISWL 9M6-6982), is currently in Borneo and will be back again in Cambodia operating as XU7XRO from February 20-26th. QTH will be Sihanouk Ville (Kompong Som). Activity will be on CW, SSB and the Digital modes. His QSL Manager will be Graham, M5AAV. Direct QSLs are preferred, but bureau cards will also be answered.

XW, LAOS. Bruce, XW1B (AA4XR, HS0ZCY, XU7ADF), will be active during the CQ WW RTTY WPX Contest (February 9-10th) as a Single-Op/All-Band entry. He will also be active in the ARRL DX CW Contest (February 16-17th) as a Single-Op/Low-Power entry. QSL both operations via E21EIC.

XW, LAOS. Larry, XW1A, will be active during the ARRL DX SSB Contest (March 1-2nd) as a Single-Op/High-Power entry. QSL via E21EIC.

250. Modern Techniques Of Breast Enhancement

Breast is a symbol of femininity and sexuality. In case you feel you are disproportionate, there is nothing to worry. Breast enhancement can reinstall your glowing appearance and your self-confidence. Some of the breast enhancement methods involve:

Breast Augmentation Surgery:

Inframammary (in the fold under the breast): An incision, one to two inches long, is made in the fold in the shadow under the breast. Through this incision, a pocket is made either behind the pectoral muscle or behind the breast. The implant is inserted into the pocket and inflated. The only disadvantage is that there may be a noticeable scar under the breast.

Periarolar (around the lower border of the nipple/areola): An incision is made at the margin of the pigmented portion of the nipple and the skin of the breast. Pockets for the implant can then be made either behind the breast or behind the pectoral muscle. The breast implants are inserted, inflated, and adjusted for symmetry.

Axillary (armpit): The axillary incision is made through a crease in the armpit. The pocket for the breast implant can be made in front or behind the pectoral muscle. The advantage of this approach is that there are no scars on the breasts.

Umbilical (belly button): A small incision is made in the belly button. With a special instrument, a tunnel is made from the incision to the back portion of each breast. The breast implants are rolled up like cigars and passed up these tunnels. They are inflated, checked for symmetry, and the incision is closed. The advantage of this approach is the absence of scars on the breasts. The disadvantage of this approach is the necessity to place the

I imagine sellers like Radiomart and Gottahaveit1985 should just love these new feedback rules. Like I said long ago, E-Bay could care less about Buyers and does everything to kiss Seller's collective tuckus since this is where they have their bread buttered. E-Screw can go to hell for all I care. Same thing goes for Paypal, the USA's only non-regulated online financial institution which is the preffered medium for money transfers between Al-Quaada and other terrorists.

I guess you didn't read any of the new rules, there are over sixty pages of angry posts on eBay's own forums and everyone sees this as the seller getting screwed mostly.

On the contrary, I'd much rather be a buyer than a seller under the new rules. I doubt I will quit buying as long as I can find bargains, but I'm far less interested in selling anymore with how much they skim off the top.

It's always instructive to compare eBay commissions with those of traditional auction houses. They typically take 20-25% off the top. One of the local houses just raised its rates to 35% on items selling for under $200.

EBay still seems cheap by comparison.

Might be why I haven't seen or even heard of a traditional auction in the area in years. My grandpa used to take me to them when I was a little kid, then one went under so we changed to another, then that one went under and we changed to another, then that one went under. That was all back before anyone had even heard of the internet.

Point taken, Mike, but eBay has much lower overhead. they don't have to provide a physical location or a live human auctioneer.

Ah is this your local auctioneer that spends his money for advertising and his people or he himself gets the stuff all in order to sell... comes and picks it up.. hauls it to his auction house.. then gets up there and sells it? ...Sorry but thats NOT a fair comparison to the service that FleaBay offers...

With FleaBay your at about 15% or so for low priced radios that only includes the ebay and paypal costs... add in the packing materials and it gets to be more yet... don't want to hear you say... YaBut you add for the packing on top of the bid... don't think so... all you really did was cut the bid as the buyer is only looking at the total cost... bid+pak+ship

Anyway... hope ebay falls on their butts over it.

Lets see how it goes... "Radio" category this evening had something in it like 5600 items, completed auctions radio had 13K auctions total...

We should at this time of year be seeing increases in quantity listed.. Be real interesting to watch the month of March and April...

I agree, selling low end stuff on eBay is not a great way to make money, and never has been, except maybe those rare "hit the lottery" sales when buyers go nuts and overpay for something. Otherwise, it's just too much work to make it worthwhile.

Their fees are much more reasonable for higher priced goods. If you sell something in the hundreds, your costs are down around 7.5% (including PayPal), which is quite reasonable, considering the worldwide exposure eBay gives you. The upcoming fee hike in the $25-$1000 range is 0.25%.

The nice thing about a live auction, as a seller, is that the stuff never comes back, it's gone forever. No feedback, no chargebacks, no nit picking, no griping!

. Same thing goes for Paypal, the USA's only non-regulated online financial institution which is the preffered medium for money transfers between Al-Quaada and other terrorists.

without defending either business, do you have any facts to back up what might seem to be libellous? Where is the use of paypal to transfer money to or from AlQuaeda documented? Where can I read this with verifiable backup data?

odd, over all my sales, the ebay fees are around 8 percent - I wonder what you do differently? Paypal costs are around 4% - but not everyone uses paypal, and there are some real savings to it (like actually getting paid promptly)

Yep, they have us by the short hairs, and this will be the case until something better comes along, which aint likely.

Name another website where the average person selling items can get as much exposure, as easily, and in most cases get as much for his / her items? If one existed, I am sure eBay would be more competitive.

It does not, and they are not...

Can I jump in here and say what great auctions Rich ESTES has (and does for radio clubs like MARC as well). If you can get over to his OHIO locations, they are still great auctions several times a year!

His site has the next auction listed PLUS several special past ones... with many pictures! Rich archives these as a service to collectors. Go here: www.estesauctions.com

I notice he is now charging a 5% fee to the buyer.

Still a great way to buy radios. Normally he does about 5-8 large radio auctions a year. This past year, and I think this upcoming Extravaganza in Lansing, Rich will bring up to 50 radios into our regular club auction to augment it.

The one and only negative I have came from a nonpaying putz who no longer is a member- at least with that user id. The new rule will marginally help me there. Having worked for a large corporation once, I know that *bay's moves are carefully calculated to enhance their bottom line. Any collateral damage is not that important since collateral damage is taken into account when all these changes are made. No doubt the biggest sellers will have the greatest voice. The little guys will get squeezed out just like at the local flea market that has been overrun with pros selling imported kitsch.

If I understand you're ramblings, you are accusing me of stalking (of course that's one of your favorite sayings). Not hardly, I post how often Mark? Once maybe twice a week? I have complained about this guy how many times Mark? Once? Twice? Have I gone to other newsgroups and made a single post in reference to him? You? Anyone else?
Your just pissed because I cross posted this and have gotten on your case for doing the very same thing. Difference is that I have only done it once, while you have done it THOUSANDS OF TIMES!!! Saying things like "Fake", "Get Kelp", some 50 to 100 times a day. That's the reason you lost your posting privileges on TeraNews.
Same time, I think the amateur community should know what one of their own is acting like. It does not shine well to others if they are considering going to test for the exam, if this is what they will be expecting from the amateur radio service..

I generally like Paypal, but for things over a couple hundred dollars, I won't use it, the percentage they take is just too great. It stinks for very small amounts too, I had someone send me a buck for postage, and Paypal skimmed off 33 cents! Sure it isn't much money, but it's 1/3 of what they sent! It irritates the heck out of me on principal.

Well it depends on the price of the items your selling. Saw something that said... 8.75% to ebay for items in the 25 buck range. Now if that item is 25 bucks for the auction price and the shipping on it is also 25 bucks.
Now your going to get 50 bucks into your paypal account. Paypal gets its 3% from the WHOLE transaction. So that becomes 6% of the actual 25 buck bid price. making you now OVER 15% add in the 25 cents in addition to the 3% or if its an international sale then PayPal becomes 5% ... which would be 10% plus a quarter on the 25 buck auction... but since its now an International Auction the shipping is no longer 25 bucks now its maybe $100 shipping... so PayPal becomes 5% of $125 ... or $6.50 add in the 8.75% that ebay got is $2.19 for a fee total of $8.69 for your total cost on the 25 buck auction.... guess that makes this one about a 34% total cost of sale.... would be better off just donating that item to Goodwill and take tax deduction me thinks.

no I have not I rarely if ever ADD a crosspost you seem to do with

See above on Google Search, never ever have I added a newsgroup to an existing thread until that ONE!!! You on the other hand have hundreds of times. Say all you want Mark, Google doesn't lie about that when you do a little research on your posting habits.

LOL!!!! You are like this kid I went to school with in Mayberry R.F.D. Every time someone even said something that he didn't like, he went crying to the teacher, bemoaning "their picking on me". Well all it took was more than a few times and the teacher told him to learn to live with it (using stick & stones theory) and that if you went around crying about every little thing, you're life was going to be unbearable.
As for calling me a Nazi, ROTFLMFAO!!!! (I belong to beyttikkun).

well, it is incumbent on a seller to not loose money if the item goes at the minimum bid, and to make money if it goes for more. How to do that? well, you have to put a little pad in postage, and a little extra pad in international postage. That said, you also can't be overly greedy. Let's say I pick up an item for $5 that usually sells for $25 - I put it on ebay with a starting bid of $9.99, charge flat rate postage and let it go - if it sells, I'm ok, if it doesn't, I put it aside and relist in a few months.
And sometimes you get lucky - you pay a few dollars, sell for hundreds. but as a small seller, you can't get by with small margins.

The field-checked, 50 credit application was checked in at Newington on September 1, 2007. The date processed (that's what it says on credit slip) was November 12, 2007. I guess the final processing and billing took place on January 16-17, 2008, postmarked January 22, 2008, and received back here in NC today (January 28). Long wait but the #1 Honor Roll stickers are finally on the certificates. Oh, wait a minute. Since the submission took place, there's a new one on the list. Does that mean I have to take the stickers off? hihi..."

VP6, DUCIE ISLAND (Update). Milt, N5IA, a team member of the VP6DX DXpedition, reported on Saturday, February 2nd, that he is expected to be in Papeete, Tahiti, on Sunday, February 3rd. All the VP6DX team will be in Papeete by the early morning hours of Monday, February 4th. The team will have it's first official meeting in the afternoon after a lunch with local FO hams. The flight to Mangareva in the Gambier Islands is early Tuesday,

February 5th. As quickly as possible, the team will clear immigration and customs and board the Braveheart. The Braveheart is now at dock in Mangareva. Milt has been in daily contact with Robin, WA6CDR, for the last 4 days, via 40 meters SSB. The Braveheart crew is waiting for the VP6DX. Milt states that the cruise time to Ducie is 72 hours with off loading to the island to begin at first light the morning of Saturday, February 9th (~1400z). Construction of the camps and seven operating stations/antenna systems is planned to take 3 full days. Operation, with all seven stations coming on the air near simultaneously, is anticipated to occur near sunset on Monday, February 11th (~0400z, February 12th). The most unknown element in all the planning is the weather. Operations will be non-stop (24/7) with 7 stations for approximately 18 days. They will have 13 operators. Milt states, "Figure it out folks. That is essentially a '12 on/12 off' schedule for each operator for the entire DXpedition operating period. Shifts will most likely be in the 3-4 hour range. Eating, sleeping, personal hygiene, laundry, etc., all have to take place in the limited time off periods. This is not your normal 'working vacation'. Wish us wellness and the stamina to make it all happen." For TOPBANDERS and the low band operators, Milt recommends the reading of News Release # 9 on the VP6DX.com website. Go to: http://ducie2008.dl1mgb.com/index.php?option=com_frontpage&Itemid=1 Also, look for VP6DX to operate in the CQ 160 SSB Contest at the end of February. Milt states, "This period of time will be the prime opportunity for Topband SSB contacts with the expedition. I am looking forward to being the operator when many of the Topband contacts are made..... Please be patient and follow instructions. You will make it into the log if there is propagation. We will be operating approximately 18 days if all goes as planned." For more details on donating and updates, visit the VP6DX Web page at: http://www.vp6dx.com

YI, IRAQ. The Stafford (VA) DX Association (SDXA) announces that one of its members, Radar, K2PT, (not MASH fame) a Marine in Baghdad, has obtained a license and is expected to be on the air as YI9PT sometime this week. SDXA members N4NW, K4HR, N4XP, N1DG and OK1KT are providing logistical support thereby allowing Radar time to concentrate on operating. They are in the process of acquiring an amp and low band antennas for him. Radar just received an IC-7000 on loan from ICOM. NCDXF and INDEXA are providing funds for a purchase of a SteppIR 2 element beam and other basic station gear. Initial operations will be on 17 and 20 meters utilizing a wire antenna until a SteppIR yagi shipped by the support team arrives. Once fully operational, activity will be on 160-10 meters. There are several other hams in the green zone, and the SDXA group hopes this station will be a club effort involving several nationals and Iraqi hams. All QSL requests go to N4XP. Complete information may be found on the SDXA Web site at: http://www.stafford-dx-association.org

Additional information, updates, log check and sponsor information will be provided on the Web site and updated as the operating conditions change.

Hello all -

I am looking for a replacement fiber optic cable that was used in the ICOM IC-901A/E multi-band radio system.

The ICOM Fiber Optic Cable part numbers that will work are: OPC-172, OPC-172A or OPC-189.

I have looked at the manufacturer's site and talked to their support staff, they are no longer stocking or supporting these parts. I have also looked on e-Bay and several other sites without success

If someone knows where I might find any of these part numbers, either new or used, I'd be grateful.

Thanks for any help.

Who needs a "club"? I'm secure enough with my license to operate quite well and quite independently.
I don't need the crutch of joining a group.

Obviously you seek and need the acceptance of a group to make you feel whole.

DXCC NEWS.....
* Bill Moore, NC1L, ARRL DXCC Manager, reports that the following operations are approved for DXCC credit:
E4/OM2DX - Palestine; 2007 Operation
J5C - Guinea-Bissau; 2008 Operation

* NEW ENTITY ABOUT TO HAPPEN - According to the "Associated Press" on Friday, February 8th, a Serbian minister for Kosovo stated that his government has received information that the Province's Albanian leadership will declare independence on February 17th. For details, go to:
http://news.yahoo.com/s/ap/20080208/ap_on_re_eu/serbia_kosovo_independence

* (MORE) STILL WAITING for the return of your DXCC applications? Well, read this from Bill Moore (date February 6th):
"DXCC Pushes to Get Ahead -- Due to several factors, including greater activity from new and reactivated DXCC entities, the ARRL DXCC Desk has been experiencing QSL card processing delays. According to ARRL DXCC Manager Bill Moore, NC1L, there are approximately 2300 applications currently on the list of received applications, resulting in a processing backlog of more than 12 weeks. 'People usually have to wait 4-6 weeks from the time they send in their application to the time they receive their cards back,' Moore said.

Even with the low sunspot numbers of the now defunct Solar Cycle 23, there has been an increase in DXCC activity, Dave Patton, NN1N, Manager of the ARRL Membership and Volunteer Services Department, said; DXCC is a division of this department. 'We've added or reactivated new entities like Scarborough Reef, Swains Island and Montenegro,' he said. 'ARRL membership is up, and more people out there have HF privileges.' DXCC rules state that US hams must be ARRL members to participate in DXCC; there is no membership requirement for foreign participants. Moore estimates that one-third of the DXCC applications come from outside the US. Sharon Taratula, Membership and Volunteer Programs Supervisor, said that approximately 500 DXCC applications are processed each month.
ARRL Chief Operating Officer Harold Kramer, WJ1B, said that a new full-time person has just been added to the DXCC staff. 'We are actively looking for an additional full-time employee for DXCC. By adding more staff, we can definitely cut down on the time it takes to process applications.'
'While we are not happy with the delayed turnaround time for DXCC applications, I can assure everyone that we are maintaining our high level of concern for accuracy in processing and care for our customers QSLs and awards,' Patton said. 'I'm pleased that interest in operating awards is so high, and indeed there is evidence that new and returning ops are participating in ever increasing numbers. In the near future, as we continue to refine and improve LoTW and our processes, turnaround time will improve, the quality of our awards will improve and we can hopefully offer new and expanded awards programs like the brand new Fred Fish Memorial Award for confirming QSOs with the 488 grid squares in the continental US on 6 meters.'
Patton thanked the many DXCC Field Checkers and Awards Card Checkers around the world. 'They give so freely of their time and resources to make participation in operating awards so much more convenient for everyone. And I also want to thank all of the volunteers working in QSL Bureaus throughout the world, as well. The QSL Bureau system is still very important to collectors and awards chasers, and activity in the bureau is maintaining and even increasing despite the lack of sunspots.'
Kramer said, 'We take great care with people's DXCC applications. The DXCC crew is very diligent in handling and checking each applicant's cards. We don't rush the process because we don't want to make mistakes -- we know how important this program is to DXCC participants.'"

Some limited time of participation, possibly 6-12 hours, is expected in the ARRL DX CW Contest (February 16-17th). Their operating locations will vary between portable locations including the beach and from their living accomodations. QSL via AK0M, direct or by the bureau (processed once a year). Logs will also be available on LoTW after the trip. For more details/information about their operation, visit: http://home.cfu.net/~sjs/vp2v/vp2v_feb_2008_main.html

VP6, DUCIE ISLAND (Update). By the time you read this, the VP6DX operation should be active. The VP6DX team was expected to arrive a day early on the island (Friday, February 8th) and should be done with their setup on February 10th. For more details on donating funds and updates, visit the VP6DX Web page at: http://www.vp6dx.com

XU, CAMBODIA. Operators Bernd/DK7TF and Rudi/DK7PE are now active as XU7DLH until February 14th. Activity has been on 160/80/40/30/20 meters. Rudi has been operating on 160/80/40 meters CW, while Bernd has been on 20 meters SSB. Rudi suggests (for 160m) for Japan the transmit frequency will be on 1821 kHz and receiving on 1824.5 kHz. For NA and EU, Rudi might change his TX Frequency to 1824.5 kHz (QSX up 5) if needed due to possible QRM on 1821 in NA. Please let him now if QSY is necessary. QSL via DK7TF.

XU, CAMBODIA. John, 9M6XRO, will be active as XU7XRO from February 20-26th. QTH will be Sihanouk Ville (Kompong Som). Activity will be CW, SSB and Digi modes. John hopes to be on Top Band SSB during the CQWW 160m DX Contest. QSL is only via M5AAV, either direct or by the bureau.

YI, IRAQ (Update). Tom, N4NW, informs OPDX that the Stafford DX Association's efforts to procure an amplifier for YI9PT are moving along. However, donations have reached only 65% of their goal of the needed 1,300.00 USDs. Please support this operation by donating any amount you can now. Radar is now active and is being worked in Europe with 100 watts and a dipole. With the planned amplifier, his signal will be improved significantly on the lower bands outside Europe. Please visit the following Web page for complete information on how to help support this operation at: http://www.stafford-dx-association.org/donate.html Radar, K2PT, (not MASH fame, but a SDXA member) a Marine in Baghdad, is now on the air as YI9PT. During the past week he was on 80/20/17/10 meters. All QSL requests go to N4XP. Complete information may be found on the SDXA Web site at: http://www.stafford-dx-association.org

Additional information, updates, log check and sponsor information will be provided on the Web site and updated as the operating conditions change.

I would like to point out as a former Assistant RACES Officer for a local community in Massachusetts, that Mr. Romney is absolutely correct.

The current EMA-ARRL structure co-exists with the STATE RACES Officer and going nothing.

ARES has nets that do NOTHING. RACES does nothing. 85% of the communities south of Boston do not have any active participation in the RACES drills.

One of the studio engineers was a ham and threw out the question to Jacobsen as something to hit Mr. Romney.

Frankly, MEMA is much better organized than everyone would think. A total communications melt-down is impossible in Massachusetts due to MEMA, SP and SG preparations. The Air Wing is ready to roll out portable towers for cell phones. The SP has several rolling CC and backup towers for the 800 Mhz system. Each town has the 800 Mhz radios provided by the state.

Just so you know that some of those guys actually doing things are HAMs. They learned by being hams. Yet, we don't need hams as a massive fodder to materialize for the day of rescue. I would like to think Mr. Romney is right about this as we are paying our TAX DOLLARS for service!

Hi, all.

I'm hoping to start my amateur radio life with a QRP Software-Defined Radio, and the Softrock 40 seems like a great place to start. However, the guy, who makes them (Tony) doesn't seem to respond to emails, so I'm thinking they're not shipping right now.

Does anyone know what I need to do to get some kind of small, inexpensive transceiver that can be controlled by Ham Radio Deluxe, PowerSDR, etc.?

Thanks!

I've had similar questions, however, there's a note from Tony dated Dec 24, 2007 indicating that kits will continue in 2008. Check the softrock40 yahoo group.

No one is going to answer a lot of "what if" questions for you there but if you will order something and build it you will find everyone wants to help you make it work. I started with the SoftRock 40 receiver and have yet to be disappointed. Don't expect to be treated like a customer, expect to be treated like one of the gang.

Mark's alleged house fire in Illinois:

On December 31, 2007 you said," by local wit an email from some one in the ng as I have answered many time someone on anyof the Rec radios groups? What are the police doing about it some 2 or 5 years later? police finaly jail the torch but no action against the guy from the NG claiming I was a pedo

On March 03, 2007 you said, "I choose the path of resistance after the escalating filth result inthe posting of the address of another man mark mrak morgan as mine and his home being burned down"

On November 07, 2008 you said, (on Ham Island) "the cycle will go on the only question is how I tried leaving the web in 2000 the threats went offline into the real wrold with email to everyone around til they/he found someone unstable enough o believe an anonomous email and BURN my home becuase someone said I was X.

my home of those days is bruned out shell those that were getting the harrasing email are in jail the persp who are the same folks now as then are still at, still haven't manged to settle heh insurance on that matter

On February 14, 2008 you said in RRAP, "they deleyed for some time but are finaly nogating for setlement but they delayed the settle ment in part because you or people like youhave cominacated the unsopprted allegation 9 anbd the unsupertablesinc i could establisgh my wherabout that I did the deed, but twith an arson it always takes for ever to settle

So, Mark. To date your lies are difficult to keep up with. How did this happen, if it even DID happen?

You have said somebody else's house was burned down, someone with the same name as you. Then you claim that a neighbor burned your house down after receiving an email that you are a pedophile. The question that comes to mind is, how did somebody find out your alleged neighbor's email address? Why not was the email traced and the accuser brought to justice? That could easily have been accomplished.

You go on to say that your whereabouts on the night of the alleged fire were questioned and that you had to establish an alibi. This sounds to me as if you were or still are the prime suspect in the alleged arson.

Your comment that the "torch" is now languishing behind bars is also very highly suspect. As one who has had experience investigating an arson or two, Mark, your story is odd to say the least.

You say that the insurance company is just now negotiating with you over a settlement, after several years since the alleged incident. What does not ring true here, Mark, is that if the alleged arsonist is indeed incarcerated and, by extrapolation, either confessed or has been found guilty in a Court of Law, then the insurance company would have long ago settled with you since the guilty party has been brought to justice.

The fact that you claim a settlement is just now being negotiated leads me to believe that you are lying yet again. In fact, if it has taken years to even come close to an insurance settlement, I would have to speak from past experience that the insurance company still considers you to be a prime suspect even though they cannot prove it.

Yes, insurance settlements, in arson cases, CAN take years, but ONLY when the insurance company suspects the homeowner of being the arsonist. Why? Because in most cases the insurance companies refuse to pay full value and thereby "reward" the homeowner who was looking for a fast buck.

So. You are either lying about the entire alleged arson so as to garner pity as being a poor, beset upon "victim" or you are lying about the person who you claim is the responsible party. You've told so many convoluted tales about this alleged arson over the years that you simply cannot be believed.

I suspect that this arson story is a result of your kooky imagination and if it is indeed fact, then you better get your stories straight.

Whose house was it? Yours or somebody else's at another address with your same name as you said?

Don't answer. You will only spin yet more lies and nobody will believe a word you submit.

to me the biggest reason paypal/ebay sucks and why id NEVER ever use paypal cause if someone you seel something to has a totally bogus complaignt you could find yourself short the money and w/little recourse

if i get paid i don't want anyone to have the ability to just 'take' my money away putting a burden on me to get it back, to wich i might not i sell practically nothing anyplace so no biggie for me and as mostly a occionasional buyer if rules favor the buyer iam happy but for a few thngs i might like to sell i'd never use pp for that reason i believe this issue is well documented

This seems to be true, there is an ARES net near me that does not do any training but encourages parcipitants to do conversation after everyone has checked in. In the course Emergency Communication I we are discouraged from doing conversation during emergency communication and encouraged to be brief and accurate with our communication.

Your all correct. MARS is doing nothing either except checkin nets every other Saturday where no training is done. After 70 years of AARS/MARS continuous service I droped out of it last year.
Only few people left on local nets, and mostly no training, just idle conversation takes place.

True. Especially for a dipole. There are online calculators that can take into consideration other designs, materials so you can figure out a more correct electrical length, but for a simple centre-fed dipole this seems like overkill.

Calculate the length (either of the whole thing, or just one leg) and cut it a little too long. Put it up and cut to the right length until you get as close to your ideal resonance as you care to.

All,

I managed to set up an IGATE using UIView-32. I have been able to successfully gate RF to Internet (I am not doing any Internet to RF or RF digipeating, only listening).

How do I send a message in UIView to another IGATE? Better yet, is it possible to send a message to someone else (say a mobile user) through an igate/digi combination? I have played around with the "Message" function in UIView but have not managed to get any messages ack'd, and I don't see them showing up on findu.com.

Thanks,
Dan

DXCC NEWS.....
Bill Moore, NC1L, ARRL DXCC Manager, reports that the 3Y0E DXpedition to Bouvet Island from December 2007-February 2008 has been approved for DXCC credit. "If you had cards rejected for this operation, please send an E-mail to the ARRL DXCC Desk (dxcc@arrl.org) to have your DXCC record updated," Moore said.

KOSOVO AND ADDING NEW COUNTRIES TO DXCC - Bill Moore, NC1L, ARRL DXCC Manager, reports (on February 19th): "Naturally there are many questions about the DXCC status of Kosovo, and whether or not it will be added to the DXCC list.
The DXCC rules, which were modified in 2000 to better handle inclusion to DXCC, are clear on how additions can be made:
For inclusion in the DXCC List, conditions as set out below must be met. Listing is not contingent upon whether operation has occurred or will occur, but only upon the qualifications of the Entity.

Political Entities, Geographical Entities, Special Areas

#1, Political Entities is the category with which we are concerned with respect to Kosovo.

1. Political Entities: Political Entities are those areas which are separated by reason of government or political division. They generally contain an indigenous population which is not pre-dominantly composed of military or scientific personnel.

An Entity will be added to the DXCC List as a Political Entity if it meets one or more of the following criteria:

a) The entity is a UN Member State.
b) The entity has been assigned a callsign prefix bloc by the ITU.
(The exceptions to this rule are international organizations, such as the UN and ICAO. These Entities are classified under Special Areas, 3.a); and Ineligible Areas, 4.b).) A provisional prefix bloc assignment may be made by the Secretary General of ITU.

Should such provisional assignments not be ratified later by the full ITU, the Entity will be removed from the DXCC List.
c) The Entity contains a permanent population, is administered by a local government, and is located at least 800 km from its parent. To satisfy the 'permanent population' and 'administered by a local government' criteria of this sub-section, an Entity must be listed on either (a) the U.S. Department of State's list of 'Dependencies and Areas of Special Sovereignty' as having a local 'Administrative Center,' or (b) the United Nations list of 'Non-Self-Governing Territories.'

New Entities satisfying one or more of the conditions above will be added to the DXCC List by administrative action as of their 'Event Date.'

So, Kosovo will be added to the DXCC list if it becomes a member of the UN, or (2), if it receives a prefix bloc from the ITU. The third condition does not apply. The date upon which either (a) or (b) occurs will be the event date." Bill Moore spells it out even more in this week's "ARRL Letter": "The 'Event Date' will be either the date Kosovo became a UN member or it receives its prefix from the ITU. Contacts made before the 'Event Date' will be counted as Serbia."

Activity will be holiday style on 40-10 meters, mainly SSB with some RTTY, using a FT-897 and Windom antenna. QSL via DL2AH, direct (QRZ.com) or by the bureau.

WEB PAGE OF THE WEEK (ARRL Field Day Web Page). The League announced on February 23rd the official 2008 ARRL Field Day Web page is now up and running. There is also a link for ordering commemorative Field Day T-shirts, pins and other supplies. ARRL Sales and Marketing Manager Bob Inderbitzen, NQ1R, said supplies will begin shipping in early March, but it's not too early to place a pre-order now. Radio clubs are encouraged to order early. Visit the ARRL Field Day Web Page at: http://www.arrl.org/FieldDay

YU8, KOSOVA (Update on Project Goodwill Kosova). Member of Project Goodwill Kosova (YU8/OH2R) have gone QRT as of Thursday, February 21st, after making 11,000 QSOs. Operators were Nigel/G3TXF, Wayne/N7NG, Martti/OH2BH, Pertti/ OH2PM, Juha/OH8NC and Bernie/W3UR. 352. EchoLink ARISS Reunion Island ISS contact 25Feb 1441 UTC

EchoLink ARISS Reunion Island ISS contact 25Feb 1441 UTC

EchoLink feed ARISS Reunion Island ISS contact
On Monday, 25 February 2008, starting at approximately 14:44 UTC, there will be a contact between the ISS and the College Reydellet, Saint-Denis, Ile de La Reunion, France.

This is a direct contact with the ham radio ground station FR5CY/P and Leopold Eyharts FX0STD/KE5FNO on the ISS. At this time we believe to get the audio from this contact via Skype to feed into EchoLink. Please join us in listening to this event.

The audio for this event will be fed into the EchoLink AMSAT (101 377) and JK1ZRW (277 208) servers by Tony VK5ZAI.

Where it looks at this time that we get the audio from this contact via Skype, it is unlikely that the audio from this event will also be fed into the IRLP Discovery Reflector 9010. We hope to have good two way audio from this contact. So far, with previous Skype feed contacts, we had good audio through Skype to get the audio from schools into our EchoLink conference rooms .

French astronaut Leopold Eyharts
As we do normally, as soon as audio is suitable for transmission over amateur radio, we may be able to start feeding audio of set up activities from about 10 to 25 minutes prior to the start of the actual contact into EchoLink for listeners who enjoy listening in on these proceedings.

Please note that there are automatic breaks in the audio transmission every 2.5 minutes during the event and while we listen to preparations going on for this contact. Each audio break is approximately 1 second long. Please configure your systems to not time out during times of inactivity or ongoing audio transmissions.

For everyone's information and future reference. When any ARISS event can be supported through the IRLP "Discovery" Reflector 9010, audio is automatically streamed to the Internet.

It is then available via the "Discovery" Reflectors companion web site www.discoveryreflector.ca . Once on its main page, select "Live Streaming Audio" (left side bar) and follow the prompts.

More directly the URL is as follows:
www.discoveryreflector.ca:8000/listen.pls

The audio on the Internet is typically delayed by about two minutes.

Fifty bucks says N8WWM has a license on March 1, 2009. The proposal is that all wagers be put into a neutral paypal account and paid to the

A larger number of people are starting to learn Arabic, while even more have some contact with the Arab world. Anyone who wishes to learn the language faces that big problem: the alphabet. Anyhow you can visit www.thegreengate.net and proceed step-by-step through all the letters of the Arabic alphabet. Listen to the sounds they stand for and how they are combined into words. Nothing essential is left out, but no unnecessary complications are added.
It is free !!!
Visitors will find that progress is rapid and will be surprised at the relative ease with which they master the first steps in learning this increasingly important world language

Amateur Radio License Exam Preparation Software
Getting your Amateur Radio License has never been easier. Effective February 23, 2007 the FCC removed the Morse Code requirements for all Amateur Radio License Classes . Since that date, applicants for a Technician, General or Extra Class Amateur Radio License no longer have to demonstrate proficiency in Morse Code. You just have to pass the applicable written examination.

That's where we come in. Our amateur radio license exam preparation software serves as a training aid to help amateurs and prospective amateurs pass the Volunteer Examiner Coordinator's (VEC's) administered exam. When you can consistently pass the exams given by our exam preparation software, you will almost certainly pass an actual Volunteer Examiner Coordinator's (VEC's) administered exam.

Our amateur radio license exam preparation software uses the latest officially released Volunteer Examiner Coordinator's (VEC's) approved question pools. The program breaks the test into different sub-element. Integrated into the software are illustrations and Part 97 rules pertaining to the current question. The program tracks the progress of the tests taken. Once you have mastered each sub-element you are ready for the officially administered exam.

Just curious, Mark.
What does a single dose of AZT cost these days?

Can you get a Generic prescription?

Does your Medicare pay for some or all of it?

And how long does a dose of AZT last? Do you take it weekly? Monthly?

Is it in pill form or liquid?

And how long before the AZT no longer works and the HIV virus finally overrides your immune system?

Enquiring minds want to know when to send sympathy cards.

I have a Boomer Deluxe 500 watt base amp that I plan on bringing to the Rochester hamfest to sell. Besides the obvious, what other bands will this amp work on? I'm thinkin' maybe 10, 12, 17, and 15 with a tuner. I've only used it on 11 meters in the past, before I became a ham.

4W, TIMOR-LESTE (URE - RadioSolidaridad Press Release). The following was received last week from "URE - RadioSolidaridad":
"The Union de Radioaficionados Espanoles, URE, (The Spanish Amateur Radio League) is proud to announce a project in East Timor to take place in June 2008. URE's Radiosolidarity Department will organize an Amateur Radio DXpedition, combined with activities to promote Amateur Radio including the donation and setting up of a complete amateur radio station at the University of Dili. It is hoped that by operating alongside students and teachers of the Electrical Engineering and other departments it will be possible to sow the seeds of future amateur radio activity of a permanent nature in East Timor.

During the last few years URE's Radiosolidarity has been involved in projects in the following countries:
1998-TJ2RSF-Cameroun [in collaboration with RSF]
1998/1999-Cuba [campaign of donation of material]
1999-HU4U-El Salvador
2000-HQ0R-Honduras
2001-TG0R-Guatemala
2003-ZA1A-Albania [an IARU project]
2004-7W0AD-Algeria
2004-T42R-Cuba
2005-TZ6DEL-Mali
2007-T42R-Cuba
2007-HQ2R-Honduras

This new project will take place in cooperation with the University of Dili, located in the capital of East Timor. We don't yet know the callsign that will be used; whether it will be a special one for the occasion, hopefully 4W6R, the callsign of the University (4W6UTL) or the callsign of one of the operators (4W6ERC).

The group that will take part in the activity is made up of the following experienced operators:
EA1QF Angel (team leader) EA4KA Eugene
EA3CUU Pere EA5BWR Txema
EA4DB (ex-EA4BPJ) Jose CT1ERC Jose

QSLs will be via EA4URE.

A complete station (Kenwood TS690 + Mosley TA63M + G5RV + rotor) will be donated to and installed at the University of Dili for use of the students and teachers of the Electrical Engineering Department or anyone else who might be interested in Amateur Radio. Another station will be set up, temporarily, at the team=B4s lodgings in order to have two stations (CW and SSB) operating permanently during the 15 days of operation. Time will be spent on other modes (RTTY, etc) and special attention will be paid to operation on six meters.

The majority of this project`s funding is provided by the Alicante Provincial Government and by URE. The rest of the budget, at this time, will be down to the operators although we have already received news of some small but useful donations. We would be very grateful if individuals and organizations could consider making contributions to this project at any time, including after the operation. Please bear in mind the following two considerations.

The objective of this project is to contribute to the development of a very young country and to promote amateur radio activity by East Timor nationals.

The DXpedition part of the activity is intended to achieve 30,000 plus QSOs in spite of the limitations imposed on us. We feel able to achieve this due to the very considerable experience of our six-man team of proven DXpedition operators."

5B4 & G4, CYPRUS AND ENGLAND (Contesting from 2 QTHs!). Terry, G4MKP, will be operating as G4MKP (home QTH) during the CQ WPX SSB Contest on Saturday, March 29th, but also plans to be active from Cyprus (5B4) on Sunday for a few hours too (after 1700z).

5T, MAURITANIA. A German team of operators will be active from Nouakchott between March 15-30th. No callsign(s) were provided. They plan to be active in the CQWW WPX SSB Contest (March -29-30th) as a Multi-? entry. Operators mentioned are: DK8YY, DL2ARD, DL2JRM, DL3JJ, DL4JS, DL5SE and DL7ZZ. QSL via DH7WW, direct or by the DARC Bureau.

6V, SENEGAL. A Swedish team of operators will be active as 6V7I between April 6-12th. Operators mentioned are Ronnie/SM7DKF, Goran/SM7DLK, Mats/SM7DXQ, Christer/SM7KJH, Tore/SM7MPM and Mike/SM7TGA. Activity will be on 80-10 meters SSB, CW, and RTTY. He has also received permission from the Jamaican authorities to activate 60 meters for the first time from Jamaica. QSL via his home callsign direct (w/SASE), by the bureau or LoTW. Additional information is available on his Web site at: http://www.k3trm.com/

9A70, CROATIA (Special Event). Look for amateur radio operators of Lipik to be active using the special callsign 9A70LPC. Activity is to celebrate the return of and the 70th anniversary of Lipik stud horses. The Lippizaner horses were taken during the war in 1991 by Serbia and were recently returned to Lipik in October 2007. For details, please see: http://www.croatia.org/crown/articles/9303/1/66-out-of-300-Croatian-Lipizzan-horses-returned-home.html
The special event station was active this past week on 40/30 meters CW. QSL via 9A7KM, by the bureau or direct.

9M0, SPRATLY ISLANDS (Update). Operator Ed/N1UR and his xyl Christine/KB1PQN (her first DXpedition) are still expected to be active from Layang-Layang Island Resort, Spratly Islands (AS-051) between 0800z, March 22nd and 0000z, March 30th (See details in OPDX.848). Ed (now in BY-land) informed OPDX this past week that both operators now have permission from the Navy to use the callsign 9M6/N1UR. He is also looking for any donations (if possible) to help defray the significant "Extra Baggage" charges to Spratly. There are lots of coax and wire going over to the island to put up the best TX and RX antennas possible with their limited budget. Ed mentioned that he will be updating their Web site regularly as it gets closer to their arrival on Spratly. He is not sure if they will be able to post updates from Spratly itself, but they will try. QSL via K2RET: Bob Tomkovich, Jr., 405 Hemlock Dr., Lanoka Harbor, NJ 08734 USA. More information, as well as a "needs and wants" mode/band survey can be found at: http://www.n1urspratly.com/

9X, RWANDA (Update). The multi-national DXpedition team scheduled to be active as 9X0R this coming weekend between March 16-27th, has added another operator to their team. The new operator is Benard, F9IE. The 9X0R team plans to have at least 3 stations on the air on the following suggested frequencies:

QSL via EA5RM. For more info on the DXpedition, please visit their Web page at: http://www.9x0r.com

CARIBBEAN TOUR (Update). Yannick, F6FYD/HH2FYD, who is expected to be active between March 10-13th from St. Barthelemy, possibly as FJ/F6FYD or under the St. Barth ARC callsign FJ5KH, will go back to Haiti (HH) before leaving for France at the end of March (26th). Look for him to be active again active from Ile a Vache (IOTA NA-149) between March 21-23rd as HH2FYD/6. QSL via F6FYD.

FR/G, GLORIOSO ISLANDS. Jean-Michel, F6AJA, editor of Les Nouvelles DX, informed OPDX on Monday last week that after many years of effort, the permission has finally been received and an operation to Glorioso (Glorieuses) Islands will take place, probably early May (possibly between May 5-9th) for some weeks. At the moment, operators mentioned are Pascal/F5PTM, Freddy/F5IRO, Stephane/F6KIN, David/F8CRS, Yves-Michel/F5PRU and possibly 3 others. The team plans to have 3 or 4 stations on the air. They are currently looking for sponsors, and if you would like to help, please contact Didier, F5OGL. Presently, Glorioso is ranked 4th in "DX Magazine's 2007 Most Wanted Countries World-Wide" in the mixed modes (EU 7th, Asia 9th and NA 4th). There is no Web page currently available for this operation, but details from the 2005/2006 planned operation Web page (which did not take place) states:
"The Glorioso Archipelago consists of two coral islands: Grande Glorieuse (3 km in its larger diameter) where the human installations are, and Ile du Lys (circular island, 600 metres in diameter) which is desert. The archipelago also includes two rock islets - Roches Vertes and l'Ile aux Crabes - as well as a sand bank more or less above water at high tide. At the east and northeast of Grande Glorieuse are a series of dunes reaching a maximum elevation of 12 m. The islands and rocks are surrounded by a reef and a lagoon which is drained dry at low tide. The Glorioso islands are situated 220km northwest of Diego Suarez (Madagascar).
The island became French territory in 1930. Around 1912, a French came from the Comoros and planted a fine coconut palm plantation there. Exploited until 1958 by people from the Seychelles, it is currently abandoned. There are also filaos. Fauna consists exclusively of a rather large colony of terns.

The meteorological service of the French colony in Madagascar installed on the island a rather primitive weather station in 1955 which was opened only during the hurricane season from October to April. Since 1960 the the station is open all year round. The importance of this station is clear. It predicts cyclones for the North Madagascar and Comoros area. It ensures safe navigation on the Madagascar-Djibouti-Madagascar and Kenya-Mauritius-Kenya air and maritime routes. (From minister for the French overseas Web site)"

ADDED NOTE: Jean-Michel, F6AJA, provides DXers with an interesting Web page that (probably) has the most complete QSL collection (28 different QSL) from Glorioso. Take a look at:
http://lesnouvellesdx.fr/galerie/galerie2.php?page=topten&pfx=FRG
He still needs some cards for his collection: FR5ES/G, FR5HG/G and FR5KH/G.

HH, HAITI. Operators Jan/K4QD and Don/AF4Z will be active as HH4/homecall from the Northwest Haiti Christian Mission (www.nwhcm.org) between March 24th and April 4th. They will operate 80-10 meters on CW, SSB and RTTY as time permits. They will also participate in the CQWW WPX SSB Contest (March 29-30th). QSL via their home callsigns. Operators prefer direct or LoTW, but the Bureau is "OK".

INDIAN OCEAN TOUR (3B8 and 3B9). The "425 DX NEWS" reports that Slavo, SP2JMB, will be active as 3B9/SP2JMB from Rodrigues Island (AF-017) between April 1-8th, and 3B8/SP2JMB from Mauritius Island (AF-049) between April 9-24th. Activity will be mostly CW.

IOTA NEWS.....
AS-155. Operators Bill/BV8BC, Bob/BV8BQ, Jeng/BV8SE and Chan/BX8AD will be active as BV9O from Orchid Island, March 28-31st.
QSL via BV8BC.

EU-008. Members of Macclesfield and District Radio Society will be active as GS4MWS/P from the Isle of Jura (IOSA NH21, SCOTIA CS28), Inner Hebrides between April 26th and May 3rd. Activity will be on or near the usual island and IOTA frequencies. The main IOTA meeting frequency is 14260 kHz. Other suggested frequecies are:
SSB - 28560, 28460, 24950, 21260, 18128, 7055 and 3755 kHz
CW - 28040, 24920, 21040, 18098, 14040, 10115 and 3530 kHz
No specific frequency has been nominated for 7 MHz CW, but it is recommended that operations should include a frequency above 7025 kHz when the band is open to North America. Operators mentioned are: Keith/G3VKF, Ray/M1REK, Adrian/2E0DOD, Andy/G1DDU and Alan/G0JNJ. QSL via 2E0DOD, direct or by the bureau. Further info is available at: http://www.gx4mws.com

EU-008. Members of Sands Contest Group and Workington Amateur Radio Society are combining to activate the Isle of Jura, between September 22-29th. They hope to be active on all modes and bands as conditions allow. The Sands Contest Group has previously activated Mull in 2006 and the Workington Amateur Radio Society has had several activations, the last of which was Barra Island in 2007. More information as it happens can be found on the Sands Contest Group blog at:

http://m0scg.blogspot.com
The blog will have daily updates during the activation. They hope to work as many stations as possible. There should also be some SOTA activation during that week.

EU-057. Look for Frank/DL2SWW and his XYL Gabi/DF9TM to be active as DL2SWW/p from Ruegen Island (O-07 for the German Islands Award), March 14-16th. QSL via DL2SWW, direct or by the bureau.

the Danish Islands Award) as OZ/DK9LO between now and March 21st. Activity will be on 80-10 meters, conditions permitting.
QSL via his home callsign, direct, by the bureau or eQSL.

OC-142. Bill, VK4FW, reports that there is a chance for him to be active late this week for 4 days from Fraser Island. He states,
"My wife is slowly on the mend and we will visit the island to have a few days away from the hospital rat race, so I will take an antenna. I will be only barefoot so it will primarily be a CW operation when time permits. I would like to also take this oportunity to thank all those wonderful people who have sent us their kind thoughts over the last months. My wife is especially grateful to the many who sent personal emails."

OC-164. John, VK6HZ, will be active as VK6ARI from Rottnest Island during the CQWW WPX SSB Contest (March 29-30th) possibly as a Single-Op/All-Band or Single-Band(15m)/Low-Power entry.
QSL via VK6NE.

J8, ST. VINCENT. Operators Babs/DL7AFS and Lot/DJ7ZG are now active as J8/DL7AFS and J8/DJ7ZG, respectively, until March 20th. Activity will be 80-6 meters, mostly on RTTY, PSK31 and SSB. QSL via DL7AFS.

MEGA DX PEDITIONS HONOR ROLL. Jari, OH2BU, has put together and maintained an interesting Excel spreadsheet over the last 12 years called - The "Mega DX Peditions Honor Roll". This Honor Roll listing currently includes data of 114 DXpeditions that have worked 30,000 or more QSOs since 1979.
This unique listing includes data on:
- A summary on the DXpedition (dates, length, QSOs, stations..etc.)
- Information on Logs, Web site, QSL routes and if it is in LoTW
- List of operators of the DXpedition
- QSO statistics per continents, modes and bands
- Also continental, band and mode records

The whole purpose of this listing is to help future DXpeditions in planning their next operation, and to understand the possibilities in making QSOs to different continents and to optimize their efforts.

The following is the currently "TOP TEN DXPEDITIONS ON THE HONOR ROLL":

FJ/OH2AM QSLS AND THE OH2BN WEB SITE. Bob, W4ETN, informs OPDX that he received a message from Martti Laine, OH2BH, concerning the OH2BN Web site being down and the QSL cards for the FJ/OH2AM operation. Martti states, "Bob, yes OH2BN Web site is down because we were concerned about some hacking into it as was the case to our QRZ.com during our recent operation from Kosovo." He also adds (about the FJ/OH2AM QSLs), "We are doing FJ cards at the rate of 200 per day and should have them all out by March.15."

J79XBI QSLS. Leif, SM5FWW, informs OPDX that J79XBI is now QRT as of March 2nd (2008) and Seth, SM0XBI, should be home by the time you read this. All QSL cards are now to be sent to his home callsign (SM0XBI or SM7XBI - same guy). Leif states that he still has some 30 cards left, so if any late QSLers are sending cards to him, he can still help out.

I hope not, they appear to be junk...

A review from Wal Mart com "I was excited by product description online but when we tried it out it was difficult to hear (lots of white noise/background noise), difficult to use (we just wanted to push and talk) and the earpieces fell apart...cheap. Too good to be Read this message until the end, and you will find out how the money flows in easy !!!!.

Follow the steps and it WILL work. Trust me !!!!!.

It's NOT illegal and it is NOT a scam !!!!!.

PROVEN ON OPRAH! Reported in the Wall Street Journal!!!!

The only thing you need is : - E-MAIL ACCOUNT
- PREMIER (FREE) or BUSINESS PAYPAL ACCOUNT
- $6 on this account (The only investment)
- 30 minutes of your time

There is no limit on how much money you can recieve, and you haven't got anything to lose with this Business program. I will explain how it works !!!!!.

Follow these 4 easy steps and it WILL work !!!!!.

STEP 1 : SIGN UP FOR A FREE PAYPAL ACCOUNT !!!!!.

Paypal is a free and safe way to pay and receive money on the Internet.
Creating a account is as easy as creating a MSN account.
Copy and paste the next line in your Internet browser and sign up.
HTTP://WWW.PAYPAL.COM

Be sure to sign up for a FREE Premier or Business account and not for a Personal account.
You cannot receive CREDITCARD payments with a Personal account and we can't have that. Do we !!!!!.

STEP 2 : SENT $6 TO YOUR PAYPAL ACCOUNT

This is your only investment to receive the money with ease.

With your Paypal account, send $1 to each e-mailadres listed below.
!!!!! IMPORTANT !!!!! Be sure to use this SUBJECT : PLEASE PUT ME ON YOUR EMAIL LIST when you send the money.

1) dexxa...@netcourrier.com
2) armygirl8...@hotmail.com
3) com...@starband.net
4) sin...@bellsouth.net
5) n...@nelasat.com
6) ahzairo@yahoo.com

STEP 3 : PUT YOUR E-MAIL ADDRESS ON THE BOTTOM OF THE LIST

After you have send $1 to each e-mail address, put your e-mail address on the 6th place.
Remove e-mail address number 1, and move each e-mail address 1 step up the ladder.
!!!!! IMPORTANT !!!!! BE SURE THAT THE E-MAIL ADDRESS YOU USE IS THE SAME AS YOU USED TO SIGN UP AT PAYPAL.

Remember that this is LEGAL. You are creating a service : an e-mail servicelist.

STEP 4 : UPLOAD OR COPY THIS MESSAGE TO NEWSGROUPS, FORUMS ETC AND EMAIL IT TO ALL YOUR FRIENDS!

There are 32,000 newsgroups. Upload or copy this message to at least 200 newsgroups or forums etc, but ..... remember that the more your upload the more people will see your message and the MORE MONEY WILL FLOW IN.

How to upload to newsgroups and forums? :

After you have followed step 1,2,3 and 4, save this message (and copy so you can use it again).
Use your Internet browser and Outlook Express or another newsreader and try to find FORUMS, NEWSGROUPS, BULLETIN BOARDS, DISCUSSION GROUPS, CHAT SITES and ONLINE COMMUNITIES.
Use GOOGLE or use a NEWSERVER.
Use every option to post this message. Download PostXpert to send 1 message to more NEWSGROUPS at the same time.

!!!!! REMEMBER !!!!! The more you post this message the more MONEY WILL FLOW IN.

Why does this Business program work so well !!!!!.

Lets asume that from the 200 (or more) messages that you have posted, only 5 people respond, you will have your $6 back that you have invested. Those 5 people will each send at least 200 messages with your e-mailadres on number 4. That's 6 x 6 x $1 = $36. The next 25 people will also send 200 messages with your adres on number 3. That's 36 x 6 x $1 = $216. The next 216 people also send 200 messages with your name on number 2. That's 216 x 6 x $1 = $1296!. Those 1296 people again also send 200 messages with your name on number 1. That will give us a total of 1296 x 6 x $1 = $7,776.

Now the last tier! 7776 x 6 x $1 = $46,656!!!!!!

This is only a EXAMPLE with 6 reactions. You WILL get MORE responses than that.

Remember that most newsservers will leave the posted messages on there servers for about 2 weeks. If you will post your message again, it WILL again start from the beginning. So you can repeat this over and over again.

Everyday MILLIONS of people are ONLINE and reading these messages, JUST LIKE YOU RIGHT NOW.
I also was sceptical in the beginning and have read a lot of these messages. I also thought that it was bullshit.
Until I thought : What the hell!, only $6. What's $6 and a couple of minutes of my time to solve my money problems.

!!!!! REMEMBER !!!!! Follow every step, and IT WILL WORK, TRUST ME. !!!!!

!!!!! BEST WISHES AND GOOD LUCK !!!!!

He has been run off QRZ.com twice, this last time permanently. Banned because of his false accusations aimed toward Dan Jeswald, W4NTI.

He caused the Administrator of the Nim Board to shut the site down because he, Mark, ruined it for others.

Mark lost his Tera News account because of his hundreds upon hundreds of floods to this newsgroup and others, and is now relegated to using several nyms through Google Groups. (thank you, DeLorean)

Mark has been banned from other accounts as well. To this day he simply does not get it!

He dirties up each and every group he has ever used and yet persists in claiming that he is a "victum" who is only trying to defend what he calls his "good name".

It is no small wonder that KB9RQZ was awarded the Kook Of The Year award. This is quite the accomplishment for a no-code General.

And now, believe it or not, the Kook Of The Year as actually been elected as president of his local Ham club, CCRAA. Copper County Radio Amateur Association in Michigan.

This is quite the accomplishment for a Kook like Mark, though it speaks poorly for the club members who elected him.

Do a Google search for KB9RQZ and form your own opinions.

Don't take my word for it.

And while you are at it, check out http://www.ccraa.blogspot.com/and look at the links to Mark's many, meandering blogs.
His blogs alone are a prime example of how imbalanced he is.

Unforunately, you have no idea of the situation on the ground here. It is petty to vote for someone other than Mr. Romney soley since he said that we do not need the hams. He is quite correct. He never made a disparaging remark about any hams. The Chronicle interviewer was unable to make any concrete point to challenge Mr. Romney's assertation.

CQ NEWS. Richard Moseson, W2VU, Editor for CQ Amateur Radio, sent out the following press release on March 21st (2008): "Kosovo Added to CQ DX Awards Country List Effective 2/17/08 -- Kosovo is being added to the list of countries and territories recognized for CQ DX awards, effective immediately, CQ DX Awards Manager Billy Williams, N4UF, announced today. Verifications for contacts made on or after February 17, 2008 are acceptable for CQ DX Award credit. CQ DX Honor Roll members with 335 or more credits should update by May 31st for highest placement in Honor Roll listings.
The new 339 entity maximum will appear on CQ DX Honor Rolls to be prepared in early June. CQ DX Honor Roll listings prepared in early April will be based on a 338 maximum count.
All Kosovo contacts will count for field KN on applications for the CQ DX Field Award.
Kosovo's status has been the subject of some controversy in the amateur radio community as well as the world community, as the ARRL declared that special operations from there on February 17 will count as Serbia, not Kosovo, in terms of DXCC credit. The United States and many European countries immediately recognized Kosovo's independence. However, Russia and China are opposed to it and Russia has threatened to veto any U.N. action to recognize Kosovo as an independent nation.
'We are aware that the ARRL has not yet added Kosovo to the DXCC list,' explained CQ magazine Editor Rich Moseson, W2VU. 'The League says it is waiting for Kosovo to become a member state of the United Nations or be issued a callsign block by the International Telecommunications Union (ITU), a U.N. agency. However, because of geopolitical issues far beyond the realm of amateur radio, it is unlikely that the United Nations or the ITU will act on Kosovo in the near future, even though the United States and many other countries have granted it recognition.'

'Because it is CQ's policy to grant credit for contacts with 'new' entities as of the date that their status changes,' Moseson continued, 'we have decided not to wait for U.N. action, but to follow the lead of the United States and other countries that have recognized Kosovo's independence, and to grant credit for contacts made with stations in Kosovo as of its independence day, February 17, 2008.'
(NOTE: This action does not affect the country list for the CQ WW DX Contest. CQWW rules state that its country list is composed of those entities on the DXCC list and the WAE (Worked All Europe) award list. If the WAE Committee decides to add Kosovo to its list, it will automatically be added to the CQWW list.)"

CT, PORTUGAL. Operators Jose/CT1ENQ and Paulo/CT1ETE will be active as CT7X during the CQ WW WPX SSB Contest (March 29-30th) as a Multi-Single/Lower-Power entry. QSL via CT1ENQ.

D7, SOUTH KOREA. Operators Cho/DS5TOS, Ho/6K5WOB, Si-yeul/6K5XYB, Ha/6K5XQE, Bae/6K5YPD, Kenny/6K5YOQ and Tai/DS2NMJ will be active as D73D during the CQ WW WPX SSB Contest (March 29-30th) from Daego City, Korea. QSL Manager is DS5TOS.

DXCC NEWS. Bill Moore, NC1L, ARRL DXCC Manager, reports that the following operations are approved for DXCC credit:
S05A - Western Sahara; 2007 Operation
TX5C - Clipperton Island; 2008 Operation
VP6DX - Ducie Island; 2008 Operation

E7, BOSNIA-HERZEGOVINA (News). The International Telecommunications Union (ITU) announced last year on August 8th (2007), that they replaced the callsign series prefix block of Bosnia-Herzegovina (BiH) from T9 to E7. It was announced this past week that effective 2300z, March 21st (March 22nd, 1200 AM in Bosnia-Herzegovina), Amateur Radio operators from BiH will begin using their new E7 callsigns. Boris Knezovia, T93Y (soon to be E73TW), stated the Communications Regulatory Agency has issued only two and three letter callsigns suffixes. Applications for one letter suffixes can be applied for starting April 14th and hopefully will be issued in late May 2008.

E7, BOSNIA-HERZEGOVINA. Operator Emir/OE1EMS and a team will be active as E77DX during the CQ WW WPX SSB Contest (March 29-30th) as a Multi-2 entry. QSL via OE1EMS (QSL also is "OK" via T98U).

QSL INFO AND NEWS.....
Phil Whitchurch, G3SWH (AD5YS), informs OPDX that he has been appointed the QSL Manager for 5B4AIZ, 9M6LSC and C4Z. However, PLEASE NOTE that 9M6LSC is a club station and Phil is ONLY able to handle QSLs for the operation by Brian, G4ODV/5B4AIZ, for his activity between March 6-10th (2008). He has updated his Web site and expects to receive the logs and finalize the QSL designs over the next few weeks. His We page is at: http://www.g3swh.org.uk 9M6LSC CORRECT QSL ROUTE. Phil Whitchurch, G3SWH (AD5YS), states, "There appears to be some confusion and incorrect QSL routing information in circulation for the operation from 9M6LSC between 6th and 12th March 2008. 9M6LSC is a club station and this operation was by Brian, G4ODV aka 5B4AIZ. QRZ.com lists the QSL route as being via JN1WTK, which is incorrect. Some sources list G4ODV and even G4OBK as the QSL route. The correct route for this operation ONLY is via G3SWH.

See: http://www.g3swh.org.uk/9m6lsc.html
I'll be grateful if you can amend your records accordingly.
73 for now -- Phil Whitchurch"

TX5C, CLIPPERTON ATOLL DXPEDITION UPDATE (More). The TX5C operation went QRT at 1400z, March 15th, two days earlier than originally planned. This was due to both weather and sea conditions. The Captain of the Shogun determined that an earlier departure was required to ensure the safety of his crew and their team. Their Web page states, "We began moving equipment offshore two days prior in challenging conditions. By the time the last team members were extracted from the atoll late in the day, all but one of the zodiac spare propellers had been broken on the reef. The Shogun pulled anchor at 0130z, March 16th, and as the sunset, the team watched Clipperton Atoll slowly fade from view." ZS8, MARION ISLANDS. Rhynhardt, ZS6DXB, reports (edited): "Following the fairy tale of 3Y0E Bouvet Island, Petrus Kritzinger, ZS6GCM, sets out to yet another unique amateur radio venture that many DX'ers around the world can only dream about. Petrus will be QRV from Marion Island #6 on the 'DX Magazine 2007 Most Wanted List' as ZS8T. He is expected to be QRV by May 2008 depending on his work load. Building on the success of the 3Y0E Bouvet Island operation, Petrus wanted to take his amateur radio activity to the next level. Having more time to effectively plan the operation from Marion Island as ZS8T, work began to set a team together that could rise above the high standards that were set during the 3Y0E Bouvet Island operation.

The ZS8T team consists of the following people:
Rhy ZS6DXB - Press Officer/Logistical Support
Don N1DG - Finance/Logistical Support
Tom N4XP - Finance Support
Emil LZ3HI - QSL Manager
Christian DL6KAC - Website construction
Col MM0NDX - Website construction
Stan SQ8X - Website design, graphics & multimedia, media & PR advisory

One of the first tasks was to start work on a website that could take DXpedition Web sites to a new standard. Chris/DL6KAC, Col/MM0NDX and Stan/SQ8X really stood up to the challenge and created an interactive website that will change the future of DXpedition Web sites. The team has built in a unique news cluster into the site that you can subscribe to that will enable you to receive all the latest news from the team behind ZS8T direct. Please register to the Web site on the following link: http://zs8t.net/newsletter/
The second challenge was to obtain better radio gear that was used during 3Y0E. The ZS8T team is proud to announce the following principal sponsors to the ZS8T operation; these principal sponsors were strategic in getting the hardware needed for ZS8T. Without these sponsors ZS8T would never off made it out of the harbor...
* ICOM America donated an IC7000
* Spiderbeam donated a 5 band HD Spiderbeam yagi
* NCDXF donated funds to obtain an Ameritron AL80 Amplifier, with a SteppIR Vertical.
* Tigertronics donated a Signalink USB digital interface
* Mr. Emil LZ3HI at Gold Print Services donated all QSL cards and QSL management services
* INDEXA, GDXF, GMDX, EUDXF, Chiltern DX Club, Clipperton DX Club, David Topp W5BXX, Mile Hi DXA, Aurum Telemedia, Funkamateur, Passau DX Club, Danish DX Group, DXXE and EUDXF made financial donations to offset costs. Donations from kind individuals during 3Y0E, we are pleased to announce some of that money helped offset the cost of radio equipment now being used on Marion Island. It also greatly assisted with shipping costs to South Africa. In addition, Marios 5B4WN, offered his awesome online log facility that has been used with great success at VP6DX, TX5C etc. for ZS8T online log look-ups.

The team behind ZS8T would like to thank each and every organization and individual that has contributed to date in making the operation a full success.
Petrus, ZS6GCM, has also undergone extensive training and will be active on the following bands 160, 80, 40, 30, 20, 17, 12 and 10 meters. He will be active on the following modes: SSB, CW and RTTY. A detailed timetable with frequencies and modes will be made available closer to the QRV date.

Petrus will also be communicating with Rhy, ZS6DXB, on a regular basis, and you can expect regular updates with photos and even the possibility of videos from the Island as the year progresses. ZS8T will be uploaded to LOTW on completion of the operation.
Without any further ado, please join us on a life changing journey to Marion Island, official website address: http://zs8t.net Within ZS8T.net you will find an abundance of information, discussions, images/movies and enough viewing to entice you into working Petrus. The entire ZS8T Team would be delighted if you joined us in following Petrus by subscribing to the RSS-feed at: http://zs8t.net/feed/
Or our ZS8T-newsletter at: http://zs8t.net/newsletter/
73.... Rhynhardt Louw ZS6DXB"

ADDED NOTE: There is an interesting 12 minute audio interview with Petrus, ZS6GCM, about his upcoming ZS8T operation available on the Web

402. Fwd: Maryland Senate Bill 2, the "Cell Phone" Bill

Tomorrow, Tuesday, at 1 pm the hearing for the cell phone bill, Senate Bill 2, will be held in the House of Delegates Environmental Matters Committee hearing room. This is the "cell phone" bill mentioned in my recent newsletter. If you enjoy talking on your radio in your car, you might want to pay attention to what happens with this bill.

I will testify at the hearing tomorrow in support of language exempting amateur radio operation. If you would like to show support for our proposed amendment by being in the hearing room audience, please come. You can park in the stadium parking lot off of Rowe Blvd and take the free shuttle bus right to the House Office Building at 6 Bladen Ave.

Our strategy here is to ask the committee directly for a simple exemption for amateur radio. We do not believe it is in the interest of the amateur radio service to take a position on this controversial bill. But, if the bill passes, we definitely want an amateur radio exemption in it. This is the broadest exemption we think we can get without sparking distracting controversy:

(4) Use of a two--way radio that operates with push--to--talk technology by an individual holding a current amateur radio license.

It parallels the exemptions in the bill for operators of commercial vehicles and emergency personnel. If we ask for more, there is a distinct possibility that we will get nothing and will diminish the credibility we need for future legislative efforts.

Those who are represented by committee members will receive a separate e-mail asking you to e-mail your delegates and seek their support for our amendment.

To read the bill and see where our amendment would fit after line 14 on page 5, please click:

However, he also said, ".. the pile-up was totally unruly: calling out of turn, tuning on frequency, kibitzing, frequency cops, etc. It was no fun for me, and if that sort of bad behavior continues, I'll simply QRT. CQ NEWS.....
Richard Moseson, W2VU, Editor for CQ Amateur Radio, sent out the following press release on March 24th: "Online CQ Magazine Archive Complete; Issues from 1945-2006 Posted on HamCall.net -- CQ Communica- tions, Inc. of Hicksville, New York, publisher of CQ Amateur Radio magazine, and Buckmaster Publishing of Mineral, Virginia, jointly announce that Buckmaster's searchable online archive of CQ magazine back issues, dating back to the magazine's first issue in January 1945, is now complete. The searchable archive may be accessed via the internet at < http://hamcall.net/cq> or via a one-click link from the CQ website at < http://www.cq-amateur-radio.com>.
All issues through early 2006 are now online, according to Buckmaster President Jack Speer, N1BIC. By agreement with CQ, issues are not posted until two years after their publication dates, as paper copies are still available from the CQ bookstore. Newer issues will be posted as the two- year 'window' expires.
Buckmaster, which produces the 'HamCall' CD and website, and has for decades filmed back issues of CQ onto microfiche for use by researchers and hobbyists alike, has applied its advanced scanning and searching technology for online posting of documents to back issues of CQ. It has taken nearly four years to get all back issues scanned and posted. Pages are available to users as either low-resolution or high-resolution JPEG image files, or as PDF files, which are more 'printer-friendly' than the JPEGs.

'One of the great benefits to this approach is Buckmaster's very powerful search engine,' which indexes every word on every page, notes CQ Publisher Dick Ross, K2MGA. 'It is far better than anything we could put onto a CD.' Ross also noted that most readers looking for back issues are seeking a specific article and don't necessarily want to spend the money for a set of CDs, 'an amount which can really add up if you want access to nearly 65 years worth of magazines.'
On the HamCall archive site, pricing is based on the length of time for which the user wants access. Searches are free, as is access to the first ten pages of each issue, assuring that the table of contents page will always be accessible. Archive subscription pricing is as follows:
* Searching and access to the first ten pages of each issue: Free
* 1-day "test drive": 5 USDs (same as the cost for ordering a reprint of a single article from CQ)
* 3 months: 20 USDs
* 6 months: 30 USDs
* 12 months: 50 USDs
Views are limited to 300 pages per day to conserve bandwidth on the busy 'HamCall' server.
CQ Communications, Inc. publishes CQ Amateur Radio, CQ RadioAmateur (Spanish CQ), CQ VHF and Popular Communications magazines, plus the CQ Library of books, videos and CDs. It is headquartered in Hicksville, New York.
Buckmaster Publishing is a leading archiving and retrieval service based in Mineral, Virginia. In the amateur radio world, it is best-known for archiving all major ham magazines onto microfiche, and as the publisher of the 'HamCall' amateur radio international callsign lookup CD and web site."

Richard Moseson, W2VU, Editor for CQ Amateur Radio, sent out the following press release on March 26th: "Update: Kosova (Kosovo) added to CQ WW DX Contest / CQ DX Marathon Lists -- The Worked All Europe (WAE) award committee of the Deutsche Amateur Radio Club (DARC) has voted to add Kosova (Kosovo) to the WAE country list. The CQ World Wide DX Contests and the CQ DX Marathon both use a combination of the DXCC and WAE lists as the basis for their country lists. Therefore, Kosova will now be considered a separate entity for both the CQ DX Marathon (effective February 17, 2008) and for the CQ WW DX Contests, beginning with the CQWW RTTY DX Contest on September 27-28, 2008.

CQ previously announced that it was accepting Kosova as a separate entity for award credit, as of February 17, 2008."

CY0, SABLE ISLAND (Update). The 6 meter DXpedition to Sable Island scheduled to take place during the summer (June 25th through July 7th) has updated their Web page at: http://www.cy0x.com Operators Pete/VE3IKV, Dick/K5AND and Chris/W3CMP will be active on CW and SSB. The fixed 6m station (in FN93) will use the callsign CY0X.
They will be transmitting on 50.117 MHz. The team requests, "Please do NOT send your grid square as it consumes valuable time during an opening."
They will also try and activate rare grid GN03 if there is a solid opening, using a portable station with a 5 element M2 6M5X yagi with the callsign CY0RA. The team will also plan on being on HF on 20 meters and 40 meters, CW and SSB - but the HF operation will always take lower priority over the 6 meter operation. HF antennas will be elevated monoband ground-plane verticals for each band, and the IOTA island designator is NA-063. The special callsign CY0X commemorates the 225th anniversary of the 1783

IOTA NEWS.....
EU-120. Chris, M0DOL, had to cancel his April 5th trip to Holy Island due to ill health.

KH3, JOHNSTON ISLAND. OPDX readers have been asking about Susan, W7KFI, and her trip to KH3. Well, Susan in Kee'hi Lagoon, Honolulu, and told your editor the trip is still on, but she is currently saving money to replace an engine (as she put it....it has died a horrible death) for her boat.
She states, "Just as soon as I get it replaced I am off to KH3 -- should be in about two months, I hope..... I will make the trip... it has been in the planning for over 25 years." If you would like to help out Susan (please note she is a self-funded operator living on social security and army retirement), her address while in Hawaii (until she has a running engine) is: Attn: USSV Dharma - Susan Meckley, Kee'Hi Lagoon Harbor Master, 4 Sand Island Access Road, Honolulu, Hi 96819. Her permanent address
(after leaving Hawaii): Susan Meckley, P.O. Box 1210, Pahrump, NV 89041.
PLEASE NOTE: The Nevada address is a remailing service that sends her mail when she arrives at a port and requests it.
ADDED NOTES: QSLs can be sent via the Bureau, K6FAF or the Nevada Address.
QRZ.com has a photo of the boat and her. Susan says, "Proves a photographer can make even a 73 year old gal look good." Track her ship, the USSV

Dharma, by putting in her callsign W7KFI at the following Web page:
http://www.shiptrak.org
Susan told your editor that she has ordered a PSK31 unit to use as she visits various atolls in the South Pacific. This will allow her to operate most modes. She can do Pactor upon request. Susan states that she listens to 6 meters, but has never heard anything except local Honolulu beacon. Also, she will be giving out as many grid squares as possible during her passages.

KL5, ALASKA. Members of the Alaska DX Club will be active as KL5O during the CQ WW WPX SSB Contest (March 29-30th) as a Multi-2/All-Band entry. Working under field conditions, their goal is to operate under harsh conditions on solar and generator power with no more than 100 watts power and perform world wide contacts. The group will be providing QSOs on 160/80/40/20/17/15/12 meters with a goal of making over 5,000 contacts world-wide during the two day period. They will be operating primary SSB but will be doing PSK on 40 and 20 meters as well during scheduled times. Visit their link with details of this DXpedition at:

John, 9M6XRO, announced that Tim, M3SDE, has agreed to take over the duties of QSL Manager from Graham/M5AAV (SK - See Silent Key below). M3SDE will therefore be QSL Manager effective immediately for the following callsigns: 9M6XRO, 9M6XRO/P, 9M6/G3OOK, A25OOK and XU7XRO. Please QSL direct or via the RSGB bureau to M3SDE. Please NOTE: John does not have any QSL cards at his home in East Malaysia - the only route is via M3SDE. As QSL Manager it is Tim's intention to maintain the high standard set by M5AAV. At present there are a large number of QSL cards at M5AAV's QTH which he hopes to retrieve at the appropriate time. Obviously that cannot be done immediately, and your patience is appreciated to allow M5AAV's family time to grieve for their loss.

NOT THE QSL MANAGER. Edgar, N6OU, informs OPDX that he is receiving Bureau cards for ZK1NOU and E51NOU. These cards should go to N7OU.

SILENT KEY. It was reported that QSL Manager Graham Ridgeway, M5AAV, became a "Silent Key" on March 25th. Graham was a very efficient QSL Manager and well respected around the world. OPDX and its readers would like to send out our deepest sympathy to Graham's family and friends.

SPDX CONTEST (Date Correction). Tony, SP8AJK (SP75N), informs OPDX that he provided the wrong dates for the 2008 SP DX Contest. Dates should be April 5-6th, not April 7-8th. For details, see OPDX.851 or visit: http://www.spdxcontest.info

V7, MARSHALL ISLANDS. Operators Rick/AI5P (V73PX), Randy/N5LE (V73RY) and Neil/WD8CRT (V73NS) are currently the most active hams on Kwajalein. However, Rick/V73PX is scheduled to leave April 5th, Randy/V73RY on May 5th and Neil/V73NS in 2009. Look for Rick on 80/40/20/15/10 meters CW/SSB. Randy can be found mostly on 40/20 meters SSB /RTTY. Neil is usually on CW mostly on 40/20 meters. According to Paul, A35RK, who talked to Randy recently and reported that "there are a number of licensed operators there, but not many are very interested in using the club station. In fact, Randy says that the club station (V73AS) may have to shut down due to the increase in the electric utility bill which is now over 200 USDs/month. Negotiations with military command to reduce the bill, are in progress."

W6BA EXHIBITION. Cindy Bernard, granddaughter of William "Bill" Adams, W6BA, is working on an exhibition/archive of QSL cards of her late grandfather. Bill was a dedicated DXer and held many early awards in the field, operating as 6ANN '24, U6ANN '25, NU6ANN '26, W6ANN '27-77? and W6BA 77?-99. Although some cards were lost when he became a "Silent Key" (SK) in 1999, Cindy has about 4000 international and 2000 U.S. cards dating from 1923-1997. Although she has many cards that he received, Cindy would like to also include QSLs that he sent. She is looking for QSL cards (the originals, copies or scans) sent by him to other hams. If you can help her out, please contact her at: cbernard@soundcommons.org Or via snail mail at: Cindy Bernard, P.O. Box 411453, Los Angeles, CA 90041 USA.

WARD Award 2008 (World Amateur Radio Day 2006 Award). The WARD Award is designed to commemorate the World Amateur Radio Day celebrated by IARU on April 18th each year. Amateur Radio Motto: A Foundation for Technical Knowledge

YK9, SYRIA. Operators are Roger/G3SXW, Nigel/G3TXF, Fred/G4BWP, Lionel/G5LP and Rob/GM3YTS will be active as YK9G in Damascus from April 9-15th. The team plans to have two stations + amplifiers on the air full-time, but CW only. They will have antennas for nine bands 160-10 meters, but most openings will be on 40-17 meters. They will transmit on frequencies ending in "3" and always listening split, up 1-2+ kHz. According to the DX Magazine Survey, YK is the 18th "Most Wanted Country" in W6-7 land, so they will maximize their brief openings. However, Damascus is partly blocked in that direction. QSL via G3TXF direct, bureau, E-mail for bureau reply and LotW. For more details, visit: http://www.yk9g.com Queries can be sent to: g3sxw@btinternet.com or Nigel@G3TXF.com

YO DX CONTEST 2007 RESULTS. Ovidiu, YO2DFA, YO DX Contest 2007 Manager, informs OPDX readers that the results of YO DX Contest 2007 can be found at the following address: http://www.radioamator.ro/contest/us/yodxhf2007/
Each participant can check his LOG at the address:

ZS8, MARION ISLANDS. Rhynhardt, ZS6DXB, ZS8T Press Officer, announced on March 26th, that Petrus, ZS6GCM, is onboard the SA Agulhas (South Africa's polar research vessel). The vessel will be going straight to Marion Island.
Depending on weather, Petrus could be on Marion in as short as five days.
However, should the weather deteoriate, there is a fair chance landing on ZS8 could be delayed. If you like to follow the progress of the ship, go to: http://www.sailwx.info/shiptrack/shipposition.phtml?call=ZSAF>SA Agulhas Moments before Petrus boarded the Agulhas, he managed to send some images from Table Bay. Prior to these pictures all radio equipment had been safely loaded with only a few items still to go onboard. These images can be viewed on the official ZS8T Web site address at: http://zs8t.net Rhynhardt would like to remind everyone that once Petrus is on ZS8, it will take approx. three to four weeks before any radio equipment is used.
This is due to a changeover time in working patterns and general settling in on the island.

If I answer a "CQ Contest" call on SSB, the other party wants a number from me, besides my signal report. What number is he asking for?

Thanks

I think it more depends on the contest.

FOr some, it maybe akin to a membership number. I seem to recall the old 10-10 numbers were exchanged during some contest, and I thought those 10-10 numbers were membership numbers.

For VHF/UHF likely they will want an exchange of grid numbers, to identify your location.

But I seem to recall from the one time I did Field Day decades ago, you actually were sending to the other station the number of accumulated contacts in the contest, including that station. Something has to be exchanged to define what an actual contact is, and such a count means that people playing the contest can make a proper exchange with stations that aren't actually entering the contest. If someone has to have some number issued from the contest to exchange, then the only ones who participate would be those who bothered to get the number in the first place, and that would limit who you could contact.

If the original poster had mentioned a specific contest, it would be easier to provide an answer.

It's a serial number.

Your first contact would be #1, your second would be #2, etc....

Because the contester needs that to enter in his log for submitting to the contest sponsor. Without a number from you, the contact would not be counted for the contest.

If the contest was this weekend's CQ WPX contest, the number was a serial number as other's have described.

Some contests want the CQ zone number or the ITU DX zone.

It's a construct. Normally, a "contact" would be of some substance, but in a contest the point isn't to have a discussion, but to rack up the most contacts. Thus a contest has to define what constitutes a contact. Exchanging callsigns can't be legit, how do you actually know you made the contact. So a limited bit of information is required for the contact to count in the contest.

If you don't issue a number, then how is that different from an incomplete contact? "Well the station faded at that point, so I didn't get all the exchange", that actually means an incomplete contact and thus doesn't count. So you have to go through the rigamarole if you want the other station to score the contact. If you don't, then why bother calling them, they are in a contest and aren't interested in talking to you other than to exchange that information, at least not during the contest.

You'd give him "One." If later on in the day, you answer a CQ from another contest station, then his number would be "Two," and then "Three," and "Four," and so on and so on, in a serial fashion, which curiously enough is WHY it's called a SERIAL number...

It depends on the contest. It could be something as simple as a serial (that is, which contact this is for you in the contest), a power level, a state, a country, other location identifier, a membership #, all the way to the complicated SweepStakes exchange which not only involves a serial number but an alphanumeric coded description of your station, your location, and the year you were first licensed

The idea of the exchange is to do just that: exchange some item of information more specific than callsign/signal report.

Whenever you find yourself in that circumstance, almost any contestor will be happy to help you develop your exchange (the later in the contest, the happier they'll be). If you don't want to find out over the air (particularly on CW), go to the web and look it up.
http://www.arrl.org would be a good place to start. While they may not have specifiic contest exchange information for every contest, they'll probably at least list the contest and its sponsor, which will give you a place to go to find the exchange information.

I'd like to build a variable inductor with what I have around my shop (lots of bits n' pieces, but no cores). I need it to work in the area of 20-30 mH, 1A, 25-30 KHz.

Is this something do-able? Is there something available off-the-shelf?

Suggestions of how to go about it would be greatly appreciated.

Hi,

You need it to handle 1A of current down there? You must be a VLFer.

No cores is right, it will probably saturate and make for a BBQ. We are talking a BIG air core inductor here. A variometer might be your best bet for variable inductance with those specs. Give that a Google.

Cheers,

MAN ARRESTED IN RADIO TERRORISM CASE

-from the Los Angeles Press-Telegram, April 1, 2008

A Los Angeles area man was taken into custody at Los Angeles International Airport late Monday in what authorities said was a possible terrorism ring.

Transportation Security Administration officials said William Roberts, 41, was apprehended in the passenger screening area of Carribean Airlines prior to boarding a red-eye flight from the Carribean island of St. Yves. He had landed at LAX en route to San Francisco. TSA and US Customs employees noticed highly unusual items in the man's luggage which caused them to perform secondary screening, interrogation, and eventual arrest of Roberts.

Among the items in Roberts' bags were assorted radio equipment, including several rolls of thick wire, several large "gel cell" batteries, telegraph keys, computer logs, and a sophisticated radio made by Elecraft of Aptos, California. Elecraft is a supplier of do-it-yourself kits.

According to TSA authorities, Roberts claimed that he was returning from a weekend contest in St. Yves. Roberts claimed to be a radio ham who traveled to remote places a few times each year to operate these contests- events in which radio hams try to contact as many other hams as possible in a specified time period. Roberts said he liked to travel to the Carribean because it is a highly desirable location that gives him an advantage over other radio hams in the United States. He also claimed that the call sign he was able to use from St. Yves was a key advantage in this weekend's contest.

But TSA officials said that Roberts was planning to use the equipment to set off explosives at various targets in the United States. Lucifer Barrientos, a security officer with TSA at Los Angeles International, said that Roberts "looked real wasted, like he had been awake for 48 hours straight," which drew the attention of TSA to Roberts and his luggage. "We're trained to look for things like that," stated Barrientos, "and when I saw that fancy radio, I just knew that he was up to no good."

US Customs said that Roberts could have used the wire as a powerful antenna to amplify the signal from the radio, allowing him to reach remote incendiary devices which could be triggered by his transmitted signals. "Using the shortwave radio, batteries, and telegraph keys, he was planning to disrupt transportation, academic, and government targets in the western US. We became extremely suspicious of the telegraph keys in particular, because we know that almost nobody uses the Morse code any more," said Sally Taruga, a US Customs supervisor stationed in San Francisco.

Taruga revealed that similarly-equipped passengers were found at various other airports on Monday and Tuesday, and that most of them were returning from vacation spots in the Carribean. "They all gave a similar ham radio contest alibi. They all had detailed logs on their computers of all of the stations they supposedly contacted this weekend. This indicates to us that Al-Qaeda has set up cells at several sites in the Carribean from which they dispatch trained individuals to conduct terrorist activity."

In fact, the Worked All Prefixes contest was held this weekend. In this worldwide on-air event, radio hams try to amass points by contacting as many different call signs as possible. "It is a plausible alibi, but it also is the perfect training ground if your intent is to become proficient at actuating radio devices at long distance," said Taruga.

Taruga's comments were made at a press briefing at LAX late Monday. To explain how TSA and US Customs were tipped off to the ring, she questioned the hobbyist alibi in this way: "This radio was a kit. How many people actually build their own radios any more? That, and the presence of telegraph keys and associated equipment, gave us more than sufficient cause to hold Mr. Roberts."

A passenger who was on the same flight expressed relief at the arrest. "Thank God they found that guy. I am in favor of any and all security measures necessary to keep us safe. I'm glad the TSA is really keeping their eyes open," said Katie Ellison, a 50-year-old mother of four and resident of Canyon Country.

Another passenger, Ramakrishna Lakshminaramayanan, 39, of West L.A., and a partner in a law firm, made his concerns known. "What in the world is this guy doing with all these radios? Why is he traveling with them? This is very disconcerting, you know, guys with lots and lots of dangerous equipment and batteries. I mean, carry your cell phone and that's it, you know."

Roberts is charged with conspiracy with special terrorist circumstances which carries a maximum penalty of 20 years. He is being held at the men's penitentiary in Chino, California, pending a hearing scheduled for twenty days from now. Under international law, he is not allowed to make phone calls and is not expected to be able to meet with his counsel for several more days, but the reason for the delay was not made clear.

Officials at the prison were not available for comment.

If you look up the subject call in the FCC's ULS data base, you'll see that, for some unspecified reason, Woger's renewal application has been on enforcement hold since October 2007.

With the new FCC policy of not publishing anything but final actions, it's pretty difficult to determine the FCC's reason for the hold, but we'll eventually find out.

Is Woger going for a record? Is Woger soon going to be known as "Three Test Wiseman?"

Since the FCC may not renew Woger's (AB8MQ) Ham license, he is taking bids on his Ham Radio station.
If his application, under administrative review for six months now, is not renewed, Woger plans to purchase FRS, MURS and CB radios with the proceeds.

Cash only. No trades.

Why? Because Woger is a law-abiding and good citizen, is why.
Far be it from Woger to EVER violate any law, especially the laws set forth by the FCC.

If his license is not renewed, then it is probable that Woger will do the honorable and honest thing. He will sell his equipment and cease his forays into the licensed Amateur Radio bands.

Why so? I have every reason to "belive" that Roger is an honorable and law-abiding Ham licensee until otherwise proven.
He has not been convicted of any wrongdoing and thus must be considered innocent of any and all allegations put forth by you and other Amateurs who have a personal and vengeaful agenda.
Remember the rule of law...innocent until proven guilty.

CQ NEWS (New 160m Contest Director). Richard Moseson, W2VU, Editor of CQ Amateur Radio, sent the following press release on April 4th:
"Andy Blank, N2NT, Named Director of CQ World Wide 160-Meter Contest -- Veteran contester Andy Blank, N2NT, of Dayton, New Jersey, has been named Director of the CQ World Wide 160-Meter Contest. Andy succeeds Dave Thompson, K4JRB, who has decided to retire after 16 years at the helm of the event. During Dave's tenure, the number of logs submitted more than tripled.
Andy has been a ham since 1972, a 160-meter operator nearly as long, and a contester for more than 30 years. He has operated not only from his own station but from various multi-op stations in the U.S. and the Caribbean. He is a past winner of the CQWW DX Contest, the ARRL DX Contest and others, and has been a three-time competitor in the World Radiosport Team Championship (WRTC) competition. Andy says the CQ WW 160-Meter Contest is among his favorites.
Andy's plans for the contest are to build on K4JRB's record of success and growth by making the log-checking procedures consistent with those used in other CQ contests, creating a web presence for the contest and updating some of the rules. The 2009 rules will appear in the November

This moves the #1 Honor Roll position to 338 current entities making entry level Honor Roll 329.
While DXCC has completed 2007 applications, there are a number of application returns still being mailed, so it may be another 2-3 weeks before applicants receive their 2007 return.
Lastly, Logbook of The World is now accepting certificate requests for St. Barthelemy, and once those logs are submitted the matches should occur and applicants can claim DXCC credit.
For programmers who use the DXCC entity numbering system, the entity code for St Barthelemy is 516."

EU-189. (OPERATORS NEEDED!) With less than 2% of the IOTA participants claiming to have contacted the Isle of Rockall, now a dream of opportunity has arisen to join the "Island Man" (aka Andy Strangeway) on a once in a lifetime trip to the edge of the world. Previously activated in 2005 for a few hours only, it's easy to see why this most wanted island on the air attracts interest from every part of the globe. On June 22nd, Andy will attempt to travel out to Rockall with a professional team of yachtsmen and rock climbing instructors. It's thought generally the weather and sea conditions are kindest then. There will be room onboard for up to eight radio amateurs who may be interested in going to Rockall and activating this extremely rare IOTA. If you are serious in joining Andy, drop an E-mail to him at: info@island-man.co.uk ADDED NOTE: Andy along with the "World's Most Travelled Person" - Charles Veley, will also attempt to land on Rockall during the week commencing May 12th. It was reported that there are one or two places still available on this earlier trip to Rockall. Again, if interested, contact Andy - the May visit to Rockall could be an ideal opportunity to do a site survey for the planned June 2008 (amateur radio) visit. 9M6LSC LOG. Phil, G3SWH (AD5YS), informs that the log of the March 2008 operation from 9M6LSC by Brian/G4ODV (5B4AIZ) is now fully searchable on his Web site at: http://www.g3swh.org.uk/9m6lsc.html

A35RK UPDATED ON LOTW. Paul, A35RK, informs OPDX that he has uploaded his March log to the LoTW (on April 1st). He states, "There were nearly 4,000 contacts altogether, mostly due to the two contests... ARRL-DX-SSB and WPX-SSB...during March. I also had a couple of good runs on both 17M and 10M." Paul finds it interesting to note that the "confirmation rate" on LoTW is still running at about 30+%. Contesters like LoTW! The DXer's (in general), their "confirmation rate" is about 10-12% via LoTW, and about the same rate via Bob/W7TSQ (his QSL Manager). Paul feels this has taken some of the workload off his outstanding QSL Manager. He also wants to remind everyone: "No direct mail QSLs to Tonga, please...the mail service is terrible. Also, there is no A3 bureau. And...please...NO QSLs via KK6H, my U.S. 'home' call. Please QSL A35RK via W7TSQ (c/o W7 bureau is OK, but returns are slow) or via ARRL Logbook of the World is an excellent choice. I regularly submit my logs for the past month on the first day of the new month...both to W7TSQ and to LoTW...(ie, March log goes out on 1st April)."

Rene, F5LGE, who was active FM/F5LGE, is now home and direct requests should be answered in about two months. QSLs were ordered.

M5BXB AND OK8XB (New QSL Route). Phil, G3SWH (AD5YS), informs that following the sad passing of Graham, M5AAV, he has been appointed as QSL Manager for M5BXB and OK8XB effective immediately. The logs for both callsigns are fully searchable on his Web site at:
http://www.g3swh.org.uk
Phil states that he will be happy to take on the QSLing responsibilities for any of the other callsigns that Graham handled.

OPDX and its readers wish Nellie a complete recover.

XU, CAMBODIA. Retu, OH4MDY, is now active as XU7MDY from Sihanoukville until April 14th. Activity will be on the HF bands using CW, SSB and various digital modes. He was spotted this past weekend on 20/17 meters SSB/RTTY. QSL only direct to XU7MDY address on QRZ.com.

XU, CAMBODIA. Wim, ON6NP, will once again be active from here this time as XU7ADV from April 9-28th. Activity will be on SSB and the Digi modes (PSK31 and RTTY). His equipment will be a FT857D, band pass filter, automatic antenna tuner CG-5000 and SB-1000 interface.

ZF, CAYMAN ISLANDS (NA-016). Bob, K3UL, will once again be active as ZF2UL between now and April 12th. Activity will be mainly CW on 160/80/30 meters. QSL via his home callsign.

ZS8, MARION ISLAND. Petrus, ZS6GCM, is now on Marion Island. He arrived on the island on March 31st. As reported last week, do not expect him to be on the air as ZS8T for about three to four weeks. This is due to a changeover time in working patterns and general settling in on the island. He is expected to be on Marion for at least a year. For updates and the first offical announcement of ZS8T being on the air, please visit the official ZS8T Web site at: http://zs8t.net

In order for your contact to claim points in the contest for your QSO with he needs a serial number. Even though you are not formally in the contest (that is, not submitting a log) you are participating by working the station.
I do this frequently as contests are a great way to work new DXCC entities, so my first contact is 001, next one 002, etc.

Some contest will want something other than a serial number, such as your locator.

Don't waste your time. Not only will traffic be an UTTER NIGHTMARE this Year due to road construction but the word from someone on the inside is the advanced reservations for spaces from dealers is at an all time low.
Biggest reasons for lack of enthusiasm in Dayton 2008 are fair to poor sales last year (nobody except the guys who sell junk on the ground broke even for trip expenses) and the high cost of fuel. Gas prices around Dayton are averaging $3.39 for regular unleaded. Best to just order that new radio
online and have UPS deliver it to your door folks.

Take a transformer with sufficient mH, and use a constant current

Keep doing that. More Qs makes a higher score. No serious contester gets "excited" about a "rare" country or multiplier. They work anything and everything and then sort out the mults later, when the contest is over and the pig farmers come back on.

It's guys like you that make contests grow and become more successful.
Oh, and if you don't think they recognize the doofuses like you, then you are no student of human nature.

Thanks for helping in the contests.

Word now comming out of San Francisco is the Olympic Torch was rerouted when Chinese Officials, IOC Personnel and the Mayor of S.Fra spotted three well known ham radio operators within the nudist protest contingent. (look up nudists olympics under Google news folks) It seems that three rather portly/near obese hams wearing nothing but baseball caps with ham callsigns on them were protesting the olympics not being conducted in the nude as in past centuries in Greece. Each one of them also had a 20" long day-glow neon "double-honker" dildo sticking partway out of each of their buttocks, the exposed end having been retrofitted with a blinking LED lamp and waist strap to hold the same errect, each having a small handwritten sign hanging from the same saying: "CQ-CQ Dis be duh real Olympik Flame!". IOC and Chinese officials were so disgusted that they each threw up the contents of their stomaches from an earlier IOC Torch Relay Luncheon and the Mayor of S.
Fra immediately ordered a route change for the olympic Torch Relay, commenting on the event: "..those hams are the biggest g-ddammed perverts I have ever seen!
Only a Nimbuster ham radio turd from 14.275 would go naked with a dildo sticking out (their buttocks) in public". The Chinese Delegation later reported that the chef was to hold serving egg rolls at all future ICO venues.
More news
as we get it!

Im not agreeing or disagreeing since I don't know what that's all about, however the above paragraph is the perfect example of what's currently illegal to say in Canada, but thankfully is still currently legally allowed to be said in the U.S.

although some people are trying to make it illegal to be said here also.

Well, there is at least one Canadian who is anti-RH, although I wouldn't call him anti-American.

Even though he does seem to have the impression that the U.S. is violating the amateur radio requirement to "promote international goodwill" by just having RH as head of the FCC.

Im not sure how many other foreigners do and dont feel the same way as that particular Canadian.

Or even how many Americans do and sont feel the same way as that particular Canadian.

I'm not agreeing or disagreeing.

It's probably not that. Until last year or this year, for decades 2 meters has been very active around here. Now I hear almost nothing.

Either most of them went all digital (very unlikely imo. I don't even hear digital noise)

or they all died off at the exact same time last year or this year.

Seriously, for whatever reason, 2 meter ham radio seems to be just about dead here now, which is near a major city.

So he could cause more trouble for more people by buying frs, murs, and cb than by transmitting illegally on 2 meters.

I'm not saying he is or isn't that kind of person or would or wouldn't do such a thing since I don't know him and haven't seen his posts yet.

vhf/uhf ham radio being almost dead here now (but not quite buried yet) is one reason that I think currently having irlp and echolink and such is a good idea.

Even if echolink isn't quite "real radio".

One of the requirements of amateur radio is to advance the art of radio.

I've noticed that separate technologies seem to naturally merge together over time.

So now that I think about it, it was only natural that ham radio and the internet might eventually merge together in some way.

beacon to be on air as IE9N/B. This group will activate this unique location, trying to give another good reference number to the world-wide IOTA comunity after last year operations as OH10TA. Ustica is a small volcanic island situated in the Tyrrhenian Sea. It is characterized by reduced sources of water, and the vegetation is consequently scarce. It is also a marine protected area, and one of most important scuba diving spots in Europe. More details and live updates are available at: http://www.ie9n.com
QSL via IZ0FKE.

EU-170. Gianfranco, I6GFX, plans to activate several islands in the Dalmatia North Group (EU-170) for the Islands of Croatia Award (IOCA) as 9A/I6GFX from June 21-27th. Most of his activity is expected at the end of April and the first week of May. QSL via his home callsign, the bureau is preferred.

OC-223. Nick, VK1AA, plans to be active as VK1AA/2 from this rare entity called Montague Island (WLOTA LH-0722) between April 15-18th. He has obtained permission from the NSW Parks and Wildlife Group to operate from the island. The operation is provisionally planned to start on April 15th for 3 nights, but factors such as weather conditions may change the dates. He will be running 75 watts into a vertical antenna, mostly CW on 40/30/20 meters. QSL direct via Nick Hacko, PO BOX 900 Spit Junction, 2088 NSW, Australia. Bureau requests via VE3EXY.

KP2, U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS. Operators Ann/KP2YL and Brian/KP2HC will be back to visit the island of St Croix from April 16-23rd. Look for them on 160-6 meters, CW and SSB. QSL direct only via their California address which is listed in all the major callsign databases.

OJ, MARKET REEF (EU-053). Six operators will activate Market Reef between July 11-14th, which will include a Multi-Single entry in the IARU HF World Championship (July 12-13th). The group will have three stations on the air on 160-6 meters. Operators mentioned are: Olaf/SM0CKV, Seppo/OH1VR, Markus/OH3RM, Bob/W6RGG, Vicky/AE9YL and Carl/K9LA. All operators will sign OJ0/homecall before and after the IARU Contest, except for OH1VR who will use OJ0VR. QSL all OJ0/homecalls via operators' home callsigns and OJ0VR via OH1VR. A special callsign for the contest has been applied for and is not yet known. The Market Reef lighthouse has the following reference numbers: ARLHS MAR-001, TWLHD WLH OJ0-001, WLOTA LH-0542 and Admiralty C4472.

OL76, CZECH REPUBLIC (Special Event). Look for special event station OL76CAV to be active for 24 hours on April 20th. Activity is to celebrate 76th anniversary of the founding of Ceskomoravsti Amateri Vysilaci (Czech-Moravian Transmitting Amateurs, http://www.c-a-v.com/). Activity will be on all bands CW, SSB, RTTY and BPSK from the various places in the Czech Republic. QSL via OK1UU.

PJ2, NETHERLANDS ANTILLES. Members of the Caribbean Contesting Consortium (CCC) will activate Signal Point Station on Curacao (SA-006, WLOTA LH-0942) as PJ2T during the CQ World Wide DX CW Contest (November 29-30th) as a Multi-? entry. Operators mentioned are Geoff/W0CG, Jeff/K8ND, Jim/W8WTS and possibly others. Also look for Martin/W1MD and possibly others to be active as PJ2T during the CQ World Wide DX SSB Contest (October 25-26th) as a Multi-? entry. QSL both operations via N9AG. Also, QSL PJ2T via LoTW.

PJ2, NETHERLANDS ANTILLES (Contest Station Available For IARU). Geoff, W0CG/PJ2DX (PJ2T Rental Coordinator and Chief Janitor), announced this past week that the PJ2T Signal Point Station on Curacao (SA-006, WLOTA LH-0942) is available for IARU Contest in July, given that none of the club members are able to make that trip this year. If you or your group want to take a crack at that contest, you could get almost any PJ2* callsign assigned except PJ2T, PR2A, or PJ2R. Geoff will be on site during your visit to support you in using the station and getting around in the QTH. There are four beds available in two bedrooms (with two baths). Geoff is also willing to operate with your team if you wanted help, or would also be happy to sit it out and let you or your group do it on your own. If you're interested, drop Geoff an E-mail and also have a look at the following Web page which should answer most of your questions, at: http://www.pj2t.org
Geoff's E-mail address is: ghoward@kent.edu
Geoff adds, "Who knows what the sunspots will or won't do by July...? It just seems a shame for a big and well-maintained station not to be on...."

3D2AG/P QSL STATUS. Tony, 3D2AG, reports, "Concerning the QSL cards for the Rotuma operation, blank cards are expected anytime from UX5UO, and these will be taken with me to New Caledonia first week of May, from which time QSL requests will start to be processed. As all logging was manual (two logbooks!) online logs will be delayed unfortunately. Sam, FK8DD, informs me that thousands of letters have safely arrived in New Caledonia and await attention, so there is no need for operators to re-QSL." Finally, Tony states that his Rotuma story -- about his DXpedition, will also be posted on the official 3D2AG/p Web site at: http://www.3d2ag.fr.tc/

7O8AA ON LOTW. Alan, G4NXG, received 7O8AA credit (for a 1990 QSO) on "Logbook of The World" (LoTW). ADDED NOTE: OPDX has also found out that Paul, F6EXV, has also added the following rare and interesting DXpeditions to the LoTW: 4U9U (Burundi - 1994), 9X5DX (Rwanda - 1993/94), 9Q5EXV (Dem. Rep. of the Congo - 1994/95), MU0EXV (Guernsey - 2006), TO5FJ (St. Barts - 2008), WH8/F6EXV (American Samoa - 2005), ZA1ZXV (New Zealand - 1991) and F6EXV.

MORE ON W3HC. Well known QSL Manager, Bob Schenck, N2OO, informs OPDX that since Mac, W3HC, is retiring as a QSL Manager, the QSL Manager's

Society is acquiring the logs and cards from Mac. All callsigns will be assigned to new managers from the QSL Manager's Society. It will take some time to sort and reassign most of these callsigns. However, the following currently ACTIVE callsign ONLY will be handled by Kim Larsen (dad, Steve Larsen) via N3SL. The callsigns are: CO6AP, 7X5VRK, PY2KC, YL2EC, TU2XZ, PT5T, PS2T and ZY100S (previous special event). Bob states, "I ask everyone with any QSLs for Mac, W3HC, to hold off sending them until we announce new managers. Please be patient while we organize this project. It could take a few weeks to sort it all out. Anyone who has already sent a QSL via W3HC does not need to resend. All mail already received by Mac will also be passed along to us."

QSLS VIA LOTW: 5D5A, 5F3COM, 7O8AA, CN3A, FJ/G3TXF, HH4/K4QD, TO5FJ, TR8CA and YK9G

QSLS RECEIVED VIA THE BUREAU: 4O3T, 9H3RZ, 9U0A, 9V1CW, C336LJ, C38LJ, EY8/UA4CC, FY/G3SXW, GW6GW, HB0/DL7AFS, RA2FF, RU0SYL, SV8/DF7XE/p, V63JQ and YA1BV

S2, BANGLADESH. John, KX7YT, will once again be active as S21YV from Dhaka, April 14-21st. It was reported that he was only able to secure a 7 day license for this trip but is having difficulty securing anything longer term. John is expected to be there until May 1st, but may return in late spring or early summer. Activity will only take place during his spare time. QSL via his home callsign.

T2, TUVALU. Udo, DL9HCU, is now active as T20HC. The length of his stay is unsure (possibly through April 22nd or sooner). He likes 20 meters CW, so watch 14002 or 14025 kHz between 0500-0800z. Also, watch 14183 kHz (after 0500z), Udo will check into the ANZA Net. He was also spotted on 18077 kHz between 0800-0945z this past weekend. QSL via DL9HCU.

TI, COSTA RICA (IOTA Op). Klaus, DK6AO, will once again be back here signing TI/DK6AO between April 16th and May 17th. This time he will try to activate IOTA islands groups NA-191 and NA-117. Activity will be mainly on the weekends. Klaus prefers 20/17 meters. QSL via his home callsign (using the QRZ.com address).

V8, BRUNEI (OC-088). Operators John/9M6XRO and Gerben/PG5M will be active from the lodge of Ambran, V85SS, in Brunei later this week. Both have applied for the license, but the callsigns are not known yet. Their activity schedule is as follows: John/9M6XRO from April 17-23rd and Gerben/PG5M from April 18-21st. Equipment will be a JRC 245 and antennas are a Mosley TA-53-M, a full wave dipole for top band as well as two verticals covering all bands including 30/17/12m. QSL cards for the operation by 9M6XRO will go via his QSL Manager M3SDE (note that his previous manager passed away (SK) just three weeks ago), and QSLs for the operation by PG5M go to his home callsign. Visit Gerben's Web site for the latest information and the callsigns once they are released at:

http://www.dx.to

VK9X, CHRISTMAS ISLAND (Oceania Adventure DXpedition). Four operators will be active from Christmas Island (OC-002) during July for 10 days. Activity will be on 160-10 meters and possibly 6 meters. Manuel/CT1BWW (CW/SSB/RTTY/PSK31/SSTV) - VK9XWW
Juan/EA3GHZ (CW/SSB) - VK9XHZ
Juan/EA45EOR (SSB/RTTY/PSK31/SSTV) - VK9XOR

http://www.dxciting.com/vk9x/
The group is looking for sponsors and donations. Please visit the above Web page for details.

VP5, TURKS AND CAICOS ISLANDS. Bob, K0OK, will be active from the Island of Providenciales (NA-002) between May 21-28th. Activity will be on 160-6 meters, CW and SSB, and include the CQ WW WPX CW Contest (May 24-25th). He will operate as VP5E during the contest and as VP5/K0OK before and after the contest. QSL VP5/K0OK via his home callsign, by the Bureau, LoTW or direct to: Robert Novak, 26502 Esteban Mission, Viejo, CA 92692-3355 USA.

WEB PAGE OF THE WEEK (Short Term Awards Available!). Well known awards guru Ted Melinosky, K1BV, informs OPDX that he has a page on his Awards Web site which keeps track of "Very Short Term Awards" - those awards commemorating club anniversaries, centennials, special celebrations - from all over the world. He states, "As of today, I'm showing the rules for 17 such awards, mostly for those coming up in the next few weeks, but some of them going out a few months into the future." Ever wonder what those special callsigns were all about: LY90, SP75, EM10, etc? Many of them are good for interesting awards. Check out:
http://www.dxawards.com/REALSHORT.htm
Also, visit the "K1BV DX Awards Directory" at: http://www.dxawards.com/

YK, SYRIA. Only a few more days to work Roger/G3SXW, Nigel/G3TXF, Fred/G4BWP, Lionel/G5LP and Rob/GM3YTS as YK9G from the capital city of Damaskus. They will go QRT on April 15th. They have two stations on the air (with amplifiers) 24 hours a day on CW ONLY (mostly on 40/30/20/17m). They do have antennas for 160-10 meters. The YK9G log is being uploaded to LoTW at regular intervals during the operation. Many are surprised and happy to receive their contacts on LoTW basically the next day! QSL YK9G via the bureau or direct to G3TXF, via LoTW or via E-mail requests. Visit the YK9G Web site (photos and log search available) at:
http://www.yk9g.com

YK, SYRIA. Saad, N5FF, informs OPDX that he will be arriving in Damascus on the evening of April 20th and should be active again as YK1BA from April 21st and May 2nd. He will return home to Texas on May 3rd. As usual, the purpose of the trip is not a DXpedition, so his operating will be spotty. However, Saad states that he hopes to be able to operate at least 3-4 hours a day. He also states, "With the current band conditions and my typical operating times, I suspect that I will spend most of my radio time on 30, 40, and 80 meters. However, I will operate on whatever band (80-10m) and mode that have the best propagation at the time. Most probable operating times are between 2000-2300 UTC or between 0200-0500 UTC and possibly some occasional activities between 1200-1400 UTC. I will be active on SSB, CW, and RTTY." QSL via N5FF.

ZD9, TRISTAN DA CUNHA ISLAND (Update on Atlantic Ocean Tour - Possibly Bouvet Island 3Y/b). Tom, ZD7X (KC0W), reports that he will be departing St. Helena Island in late June and will be traveling to his next DX location of Tristan da Cunha Island. His callsign on Tristan will be ZD9X, and he will be there for at lease 4-6 months, maybe longer. A home has been secured for him with a backyard measuring one acre with plenty of room for antennas. Tom states, "Operating from St. Helena has been rather fun. I will be excited for a new DX location after all is said and done though. Full story to come out someday!!! With almost 35,000 QSOs now, the radio and vertical antenna have been doing a good job. I DO NOT want to have to break out the spare radios of a Kenwood TS-2000 and a Yaesu 100D if something should go wrong with my main 'good' radio. Once on Tristan, my plan is to explore a way of getting to Bouvet Island and to operate from there before a TENATIVE operation to the three islands of South Sanswich, South Orkney and South Georgia via the Falkland Islands. According to the '100 Most Needed List', (2006) Bouvet is ranked at 8th in the world. It would be a crying shame to be less than 1400 miles from Bouvet and not to give a 100% effort to try to put Bouvet on the air. Bouvet is located nearest to Tristan than any other island. Still no plans of any RTTY/PSK activity as either ZD7X or ZD9X. My MicroHam unit that should allow Digi operation has not worked since I got here. Personal interest in the Digi modes is also not that great..... Good DX, Tom ZD7X"

ZS8, MARION ISLAND. Petrus, ZS6GCM, is now on Marion Island. He arrived on the island on March 31st. As reported last week, do not expect him to be on the air as ZS8T for about three to four weeks. This is due to a changeover time in working patterns and general settling in on the island. He is expected to be on Marion for at least a year. For updates and the first offical announcement of ZS8T being on the air, please visit the official ZS8T Web site at: http://zs8t.net

I never measured a Variac before. Might be higher than you were looking for. That's variable for sure. A good thing to have around the shop.

After a relaxing bath...Monica Lewinsky was looking at herself, nude in a Mirror.

Her frustration over her lack of ability to lose weight, was depressing her.

In an act of desperation, she decided to call on God for help.

'God...If you take away my love handles,
I'll devote my life to you,' she Prayed.

And just like that... Her ears fell off.

* PLEASE NOTE: The report "could" contain "Pirate/SLIM" operations or more likely a "BUSTED CALLSIGN". As always, you never know - "Work First Worry Later" (WFWL).

4D75, PHILIPPINES (Special Event). Ram, DV8AIK, is sometimes active as 4D75D to celebrate the Diamond Anniversary (75th) of the Philippine Amateur Radio Association (PARA). This callsign will be used throughout the year 2008. Look for activity on 20/15 meters SSB. Ram is located on Mindanao Island (OC-130). QSL direct is preferred, but for those stations who are comfortable to send by the Bureau it is "OK".

5B, CYPRUS (AS-004). Operators Frank/DL2SWW and YL Gabi/DF9TM will be active as 5B/homecall, May 1-6th. Activity will be on 80-10 meters, mainly CW and SSB. QSL via their home callsigns, direct or by the bureau.

5X, UGANDA. Mike, PA5M, is now in Uganda and is currently active as 5X1DX until an unknown specific length of time. His activity will be limited due to his work (mostly his evenings and weekends). Mike, who works for the United Nations World Food Program (UNWFP), was heard this past week on 30/20 meters CW between 1600-1700z. QSL via PA7FM.

8P, BARBADOS. Darren, G0TSM, will be active as 8P9TS from May 21st to June 1st. Activity will be limited because he is on holiday, but look for him to be on CW, the HF bands and 6 meters. He will also be in the CQ WW WPX CW Contest (May 24-25th) as a Single-Op entry using the callsign 8P2T. QSL via G0TSM. Bureau requests can be obtained via E-mail at: qsl@g0tsm.com

9N, NEPAL. Kazu, JA8MWU, will be staying in Katmandu between April 27th and May 5th for his vacation. He hopes to operate during his free time using the callsign 9N7WU on SSB. Look for him on 14180, 18120, 21280 and 28480 kHz. QSL via his home callsign.

A6, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES. After almost five years in the Democratic Republic of Congo, Philippe, 9Q1TB (F5LTB), will be leaving the region in the coming months and will be stationed in U.A.E. Philippe is a United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) worker. He hopes to obtain from authorities a callsign in a reasonable time, and as a first step, be authorized to use A6/F5LTB. SM7DJZ will remain his QSL Manager.

ATTENTION DXPEDITIONS. OPDX has received a special request to remind operators of DXpeditions to listen or take time out to work the thousands of "U.S. General Class Hams" above 14225 kHz." This limitation is not known to all DXers throughout the world, and the many Generals are also looking and waiting to work DXpeditions as well.

CN, MOROCCO. Jim, W7EJ, will be active as CN2R during the CQWW DX SSB Contest (October 25-26th) as a Single-Op/Single-Band (160m) entry. QSL via W7EJ. See the station from CN2R at: http://www.arraysolutions.com/Users/cn2r.htm

EY8, TAJIKISTAN. Jean, F4EOH, will be active as EY8/F4EOH from Dushambe between now and the end of August. Activity will be mainly 20 meters SSB. QSL via his instructions or direct to: Jean Bernard, 701 Rue des Bartavelles, 6 Lot des Cigognes, 84100 Orange, FRANCE.

H44, SOLOMON ISLANDS. Moffet, H44MD, continues to be active on 20 meters SSB usually around 14190-14200 kHz between 0700-1230z. He is only using 100 watts and a dipole but is being worked by NA and OC stations. PLEASE NOTE: His address listed on QRZ.com is incorrect. The correct address is: P.O. Box 490, Honiara, SOLOMON ISLANDS.

HC8, GALAPAGOS ISLANDS (SA-004). Members of the Ukrainian DXpeditioners Team (UDXT) will be active from here between April 24-29th. During a recent trip my wife and I were on we drove around the back woods of East Texas. On one back road I saw a sign in front of a broken down shanty style house: "Talking Dog for Sale". I needed a break so I stopped to see what the deal was. I went into the backyard and saw a nice looking Labrador retriever sitting there.

"You talk?" I asked.

"Yep," the Lab replied.

After I got over the shock of hearing a dog talk, I asked "So, what's your story?"

"Ah shucks there ain't much to tell. Is that a VUU screwdriver antenna on your truck out there?"

"How did you know that," I asked?

The Lab looks up and says, "Well, I'm a ham radio operator. I got my ticket when I was a young pup and in no time at all I had my 5 band DXCC in Phone and CW both.

The CIA heard about me and asked me to do some spy work for them. I would hang out around the communications centers and with my keen hearing I could copy the classified radio transmissions. Because no one figured a dog would be eavesdropping I was one of their most valuable spies for eight years. Copying high speed CW all day really tired me out and I knew I wasn't getting any younger so, I decided to settle down. I retired from the CIA (8 dog years is 56 CIA years) and joined a ham radio club. In fact I won first place in the Oklahoma QSO Party two years in a row. Next I sired a mess of puppies and got away from Ham Radio for a while. I sure miss my ham radio. Why don't you buy me and I'll be your CW operator in the next big Worldwide DX QSO Contest?

I said "let me see what I can do." I went back in and asked the dog's owner what he wanted for the dog.

"Ten dollars" the guy says.

"Ten dollars"? This dog is amazing! Why on earth are you selling him so cheap?"

"Because he's a liar. He never did any of that stuff. He's just a No-Code Technician.

He's somebody who has no idea what the definition of spam is. He throws the term around without understanding it.

The REAL definition of spam can be found in news.answers, and it involves something called the Breidbart Index (BI). SPAM is not defined by its content. It depends only upon the poster's abuse of Usenet servers and readers.

Therefore, off topic != spam (if you can even decide what a newsgroup topic is these days).

But if you flood a news group by posting many, many substantially identical posts, that IS spam, because it runs the BI up rapidly. It does so because it abuses Usenet servers (such as Google) and its readers. Mark should be very, very familiar with that kind of activity, because he has engaged in it regularly.

In fact, Mark has been the only one spamming this group in the strictest sense of its definition, because he's the only one whose posts have ever exceeded a BI of 20.

If you don't want to look in news.answers for a detailed rundown on spam, you can check out http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Breidbart_Index for a fairly good discussion.

P.S. That high BI is why, at one point in time, the cancel bots started to cancel Mark's posts. The bot that was after Mark uses BI2 as its standard, and Mark triggered it for a day or two with his spam.

He's somebody who has no idea what the definition of spam is. He throws the term around without understanding it.

The REAL definition of spam can be found in news.answers, and it involves something called the Breidbart Index (BI). SPAM is not defined by its content. It depends only upon the poster's abuse of Usenet servers and readers.

Therefore, off topic != spam (if you can even decide what a newsgroup topic is these days).

But if you flood a news group by posting many, many substantially identical posts, that IS spam, because it runs the BI up rapidly. It does so because it abuses Usenet servers (such as Google) and its readers. Mark should be very, very familiar with that kind of activity, because he has engaged in it regularly.

In fact, Mark has been the only one spamming this group in the strictest sense of its definition, because he's the only one whose posts have ever exceeded a BI of 20.

If you don't want to look in news.answers for a detailed rundown on spam, you can check out http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Breidbart_Index for a fairly good discussion.

P.S. That high BI is why, at one point in time, the cancel bots started to cancel Mark's posts. The bot that was after Mark uses BI2 as its standard, and Mark triggered it for a day or two with his spam.

He's somebody who has no idea what the definition of spam is. He throws the term around without understanding it.

The REAL definition of spam can be found in news.answers, and it involves something called the Breidbart Index (BI). SPAM is not defined by its content. It depends only upon the poster's abuse of Usenet servers and readers.

Therefore, off topic != spam (if you can even decide what a newsgroup topic is these days).

If you don't want to look in news.answers for a detailed rundown on spam, you can check out http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Breidbart_Index for a fairly good discussion.

P.S. That high BI is why, at one point in time, the cancel bots started to cancel Mark's posts. The bot that was after Mark uses BI2 as its 4W, TIMOR-LESTE (Update). The Union de Radioaficionados Espanoles, URE, (The Spanish Amateur Radio League) announced on their Web page (edited): "Finally we have reached our goal, obtaining the callsign 4W6R for the operation, thanks to the hard work of our local team (TKS Pascoela de Carvalho) and to the kindly procedures of Mr. Celestino Nicolau and Mr. Jose M de Araujo from ARCOM. Also the renting of the house that we will use for accommodation and operation is OK.

We have 'incorporated' to our local team a compatriot displaced there in Dili who has been an incalculable value for the pending management. A lot of thanks to Agustin.
The solidarity and interest of organizations and particulars is remaining patent in the numerous donations and contributions that we are receiving for the project. Many thanks for your generosity!
Most of the materials have already gone out in a container --by air-, by kindness of the FUP, to our destination. Finally the operators are finalizing their preparations by getting their vaccinations. Our goals are coming together step to step.
Looking for SPONSORS.... The majority of this project`s funding is provided by the Alicante Provincial Government and by URE. The rest of the budget, at this time, will be down to the operators although we have already received news of some small but useful donations.
We would be very grateful if individuals and organisations could consider making contributions to this project at any time, including after the operation. Please bear in mind the following two considerations."

9A08, CROATIA (Special Event). Special event station 9A08P (Nine Alpha ZERO EIGHT Papa) has been active since April 1st and will be active through December 31st. Activity is to celebrate the City of Djurdjevac, and operations will be on all bands and modes. A special QSL card will be issued with a story on it. All QSOs will be confirmed automatically via the bureau.

9Q, DEM. REP. OF CONGO (Attention VK/ZL stations). OPDX was informed that operators Phil/9Q1TB and Georges/9Q1EK have been trying to call the Oceania area between 0500-0600z, but find it is not easy. Out of the thousands of QSO made, Georges has only made 21 QSOs from VK and 7 QSOs from ZL. Phil has only made 2 QSOs from VK and 2 QSOs from ZL, and he is supposed to leave 9Q-land in June. Georges is expected to stay in 9Q-land for possibly another 1 to 2 years (and he may be the only active station in 9Q land on CW). Both operators would really like to make QSOs with the Oceania area.

A5, BHUTAN (Just a reminder). Torben, OZ1TL, is expected to be active as A52TL during his stay in May of 2008. He is expected to arrive in Bhutan on May 2nd. Torben will be attending some of the inauguration ceremonies of the new King of Bhutan. Activity will be mainly on CW (almost exclusively) on most bands including 160/80/40 meters. QSL via his home callsign. He also plans to use the LoTW.

ADXO WEB SITE ENHANCEMENT. Bill, NG3K, informs OPDX that he has installed a new feature on his "Announced DX Operations (ADXO)" Web page at: http://www.ng3k.com/Misc/adxo.html
Beginning April 25, 2008, active DX operations now include a link to the DX Watch spot database. The link takes the form - [spots] - and is located beneath the callsign in the Call field for most active DX operations listed in ADXO. A user clicking on this link will view a real-time list of recent DX Cluster spots for the call in question. Users can, if they choose, open the link in a new tab or window. This enhancement lets users immediately see whether or not an announced DX operation has actually been spotted, which bands and modes the operator is using, and where his signal is being heard. Bill states, "For the present, links are not provided for additional operators at some multi-op operations. But, if ADXO users find the new capability useful, I may try to expand its coverage to multi-op expeditions. I am also considering using this capability as a tool for weeding out announced operations that, for whatever reason, never took place. Comments and suggestions will be welcome and may be addressed to: Bill@ng3k.com
My thanks go to Felipe, PY1NB, and DX Watch for making this possible. While you're visiting DX Watch, be sure to take the time to look around. Felipe has created a remarkable and innovative 2nd generation DX spotting application that integrates data from packet cluster, qrz.com, and 425DXN."

EU-123. A few operators from Glasgow are going on a speedy boat to activate a few islands in the Firth of Clyde, May 3-4th, and for PSK contacts, and MS0DGR - for other modes. Each island would be visited for about 2-3 hours. Separate full colored QSL cards will be printed for each island. They are hopeful that Mark has hot links to images which are hosted by Karol Madera's web server via URLs like http://members.shaw.ca/karolus/bri+mikee.jpg

He also has links to other foreign images on his blogs, and those are all a danger to anyone who views them.

The first reason is that Madera can look in his web server logs and track all of Mark's visitors. The second (and far more serious) reason is that blogger.com keeps its login credentials in a browser cookie.
Once you've entered your blogger userid and password, a cookie is set in your browser which is used to identify you as logged in. If someone else could read and reproduce that cookie, he could impersonate you to blogger and do anything you can do.

That's exactly what a hot linked image allows the image hosting site to do. For example, Madera simply has to insert a little Javascript into his own server, and anyone loading his images while looking at Mark's web pages can have his browser tricked into supplying the login cookie's contents to Madera's server. After that, Madera can take over your blogspot blog by pretending to be you.

I've only used Madera as an example. There are several other hot linked images on Mark's blogs which allow their owners to steal cookies in the same way. Even if the links to shaw.ca are removed, Mark's blogs are still dangerous because of all the other hot linked images they contain.

EITHER TURN OFF THE LOADING OF ALL IMAGES WHEN VISITING MARK'S BLOGS, OR SIMPLY DO NOT VISIT ANY OF MARK'S BLOGS. YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED!!!!

Anybody have one they don't need???

. This is the internal switching PSU module designed for use in the IC-745, IC-751, IC-751A and IC-970 transceivers (13.8V DC/25A). A variant, with a finned cover, is used in the IC-761 and IC-765. The IC-PS35 has two pigtails; one terminated in an IEC 3-pin mains socket, and the other in a standard 6-pin Molex plug which is inserted in the radio's DC POWER socket. To avoid EMC problems, lead dress should be observed when installing an IC-PS35.

You've been rendered ineffectual for all intents and purposes.

You can no longer flame via Teranews.
Your 12 or 14 blogs (who knows how many?) are not visited and garner no interest.
Google limits your per diem posts, though you use several Google accounts to flame Usenet and thereby skirt their daily limits.
DeLorean slapped the snot out of you by having your Teranews account canceled and he did it rather quietly and behind the scenes. And you are still in the dark as to who DeLorean is.

Now, like the dummy you are, you are making a lateral shift and have decided to attack Dan, W4NTI.
Your stupidity never fails to astound me or others.
Are there no limits to your crass ignorance????

SPECIAL DAYTON HAMVENTION CARD CHECKING INFORMATION: DXCC card checking will be done at the Dayton Hamvention. Card checking will occur during all hours of operation at the Hamvention on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Many hams travel from around the world, and this is a busy event for card checking. Please remember these tips which will help you and the card checkers through the process, avoid delays and allow them to serve everyone:
Preparation: THERE IS A 120 CARD LIMIT PER APPLICANT
* Make sure that your cards are in proper order. Band first, then mode. Cards with multiple QSOs at the end; The order on the record sheet MUST match the order of the cards.
* The latest forms are on the DXCC web site at:

Have all paperwork completed before you come to the table; make sure everything is legible; List only QSOs you want credit for.
* If you plan to do a Hybrid application (paper application with Logbook of The World), you should do the LoTW portion just prior to leaving for Dayton.

Card checkers will be checking cards for the following awards: DXCC, Worked All States (WAS), VHF/UHF Century Club (VUCC) and Worked All Continents (WAC).

Upon your arrival:
* Take a number; stay in line.
* Make note of anything important to the card checker before they start; when finished, the card checker will review any problems with you.
* Stay with the card checker until completion; if you are a vendor you can drop your application to a checker and return later for pickup.

Upon Completion:
* The card checker will return your cards to you; DXCC will not take cards back with them.
* The card checker will advise you of the final fees upon completion of your application.

* Payment is due upon completion of your application.

Payment methods:
* Credit Card or Cash (US or Euro only); Check (from USA bank only); Money Order (US and International OK); DXCC cannot bill you. Please see rule 15 for the latest fee information. If possible, please bring with you a copy of your last credit slip.

Mark has been overly busy when it comes to accusing others of allegedly illegal acts.
Libel? Mark seemingly knows all about it.
Stalking? (or "staking" as he spells it) Mark knows about that, too since he does so himself.

Ever wonder where Mark gained all his "flase" (his spelling again) knowledge of the law?

Now you know the rest of the story.

Contact QCWA (http://www.qcwa.org/) the Quarter Century Wireless Association.. They have archival data from the past Callbooks, and although they usually use them internally for proof of licensure in order to determine eligibility for the organization, they might (particularly since you apparently qualify for membership) provide a photocopy or the like indicating class of license (implying exam elements you want credit for) you held.

Now, I don't remember if the FCC will accept data in whatever form QCWA might provide, but it's worth an inquiry, I would think.

Yet, oddly, Mark will challenge some of us on Usenet to post our names and calls. He tells us that we are "coiwards".
The odd part of this is that Mark himself knows well what it is like to be targeted by stalkers such as Woger. Mark has received harassing phone calls, has had his email Inbox flooded, has been the victim of anonymous snail mail letters, and has, according to Mark, been threatened on more than one occasion.
And all of this happened to Mark because he, the Dummy that he is, was stupid enough to post his name and call. And, additionaly, because Mark is still so stupid as to flame various groups and make a general pest of himself, his tribulations will not soon cease.

By refusing to post his home phone number on the CCRAA site, so what? If you ask around I am sure that Roger can post the number for you. Roger has done this in the past, much to Mark's chagrin.

Yes, Mark is indeed a POS, but he is not a "chicken". Stupid? Yes.
Borderline psychotic? Yes.
Sexually confused? Yes. Societally acceptable? No.

All in all, when you look at Mark and his disjointed musings you just can't help feeling sorry for the clown.

As Jesus once prayed, and I paraphrase, "Father, forgive him, for he knows not that which he has done."

CQ MAGAZINE NEWS. Richard Moseson, W2VU, Editor of CQ Amateur Radio, sent out the following press release on May 8th: "Randy Thompson, K5ZD, Named Director of CQ WPX Contests (Hicksville, NY) -- Contesting luminary Randy Thompson, K5ZD, has been named Director of the CQ World Wide WPX Contests, effective immediately. Randy succeeds Steve Merchant, K6AW, who has been WPX Contest Director since 2002 and who needed to step aside due to business obligations.
Randy has been a contester for more than three decades and has multiple wins to his credit in the single-op, all-band categories of both the CQ World Wide DX Contest and the CQ WPX Contest, in both CW and SSB modes. Randy is also a past editor of the "National Contest Journal" (a post he has held three separate times) and a co-founder of the eHam.net website. He is a longtime member of the Yankee Clipper Contest Club and an instructor at K3LR's Contest University. In the past year, Randy has been working with Steve Merchant behind the scenes on the WPX contests, so he is already familiar with the program from the administrative side.
Any questions regarding the 2008 WPX Contests (SSB weekend was held last March; CW weekend is coming up at the end of May) should be directed to Randy via e-mail to: k5zd@cqwpx.com . We thank K6AW for his years of dedicated service to the WPX Contests and look forward to a seamless transition to K5ZD's administration of the event."

""Strong earthquake hits China, all ham radio operators stand by PLEASE HELP TO SPREAD THE FOLLOWING MESSAGE

Strong earthquake hits China, all ham radio operators stand by A Magnitude 7.8 earthquake hits Sichuan, China on Monday, May 12, 2008 at 06:28:04 UTC. Casualties and loss unknown up to now. According to Chinese Radio Sports Association, 14.270Mhz, 7.050 and 7.060 Mhz are preserved for amateur radio emergency service in the rescue. Please spread this message as far as you can and keep the frequencies clean for emergency use. Thank you.

Yesterday, 05:57 PM
BG8AAS from Chengdu, Sichuan reported that local UHF repeater survived in the disaster. It keeps functioning from the 1st minute and more than 200 local radio hams are now on that repeater. A group of hams from Chengdu has headed for Wenchuan, the center of the quake, trying to setup emergency communication services there.

BA8AB, also from Chengdu, Sichuan, is active on the 40m emergency frequency. Up to now, no further information available from the center zone of the quake. There are a few radio amateurs there, but all of the communications have been cut out, including amateur radio.

Yesterday, 06:58 PM
Update

According to BG8AAS, local UHF repeater in Chengdu keeps busy running after the quake. It helps to direct social vehicles to transport the wounded from Dujiangyan, Beichuan, and other regions. Another UHF repeater also starts its working in Mianyan, supported by generators.
However, they are going to face a shortage of gas.

Damage in Chengdu remains in the lowest level, but the situation is very very bad in the counties around. A few towns are said to be destroyed completely. More than 7000 died in the town of Beichuan. Casualties in several other towns are still unknown and not counted in the published numbers.

It is a long and sad day.

Today, 08:31 AM

Your attention please! 14.270Mhz is now reserved for ARES in 5.12 earth quake in Sichuan, China. Please help to keep this frequency clear.

A group of radio amateurs is now transmitting from Wenchuan, the center of quake. Its signal is reported to be very weak. They tried to keep communication with BY8AA in Chengdu, seeking for all resources needed. During a contact finished a few minutes ago, they were asking for raincoats, water, tents, and outdoor living facilities.

PLEASE HELP TO FORWARD THIS MESSAGE TO ALL RELEVANT FORUMS, MAILING LISTS, AND NEWS RESOURCES. MEANWHILE, KEEP THE ABOVE FREQUENCY CLEAN FOR EMERGENCY COMMUNICATION.

Body jewelry and body piercing practices have been observed by various groups of people all over the world throughout the centuries. For some tribes it is a rite of passage, for others it is an indicator of social status. For many, body jewelry is used to enhance personal beauty and as devices to rise above the rest of the pack. Today's celebrities have been at the forefront in making body jewelry much more mainstream and acceptable – even desirable.

"What's a little pain if it'll make me look hip" seems to be the prevalent thought among the young and the old who are turning out in increasing numbers to participate in the body jewelry trend. Not so long ago, only punk rockers and those with 'bad boy' images, such as former NBA star Dennis Rodman, were seen sporting body piercings in mainstream media. Today, body jewelry is endorsed by pop celebrities with mass followings, including Britney Spears, Christina Aguilera, Fiona Apple and Lenny Kravitz. Britney Spears has an extensive collection of navel rings, and Christina Aguilera is said to wear the most interesting body jewelry in areas that are covered by her clothing.

Some celebrities with an otherwise 'serious' image are nevertheless fans of body art. Actress Camryn Manheim of the television drama 'The Firm' sports multiple earrings on the cartilage of one ear. Gillian Anderson, who played the cynical and skeptical FBI agent Dana Scully in the television series 'The X Files,' has a pierced belly button. Performers with tongue piercings include former Spice Girl Melanie Brown (Scary Spice) and dancer Jimmy Gulzar, while supermodels Christy Turlington and James King are proud of their piercings. Regulars on this newsgroup will remember Kevin Alfred Strom, American Nazi, white supremacist, and muchly-ballyhooed "intellectual of the white supremacist movement."

Well, it seems that ol' Kev has finally been sentenced.

Let's review the bidding for those who one followed Kevin on the 3950 Liberty Net.

1. Kevin is a life-long loser. He was a well-known Nazi and white supremacist who ingratiated himself with William Pierce, noted American Nazi and general bullshit artist.

2. Kevin presented himself as the "intellectual power" of the white supremacist movement.

For details on Kevin, Google him -- I'm not wasting my time on the details.

Now, let's explain Lynx and Lamb Gaede. These twin 12-year-old girls are famous among the skinheads, Nazis, and other losers as a "white power" singing duet. They are promoted by their mother, April Gaede, who will go down on anything with a male organ. If you think "talent" means writing songs about "be true to your race" and singing those songs off-key with a guitar that's badly out of tune, then you'll love Lynx and Lamb.

It seems that Kevin was discovered by his lard-assed wife, sitting at his computer, naked, jerking off to a photo of Lynx and Lamb -- he had photoshopped their heads onto the bodies of naked women and ol' Kev was spanking the monkey for all he was worth.

His big fat wife called the cops who turned it over to the feds when they discovered that Kevin had loaded his computer with kiddie porn.

Kevin was recently sentenced to 18 months in the slammer where he will spend his time explaining his views on white supremacy to his cellmates, Tyrone and Ahmed.

And that, folks, is what you get with the crowd on 3950.

hi,

I recently began a sort of internship in an electronics shop, and I'm starting from scratch with almost no knowledge about electronics. I was trying to think of a good project for me to work on though so that I can learn a little bit about it. Also, I'm currently enrolled in astronomy classes and learning about the nature of electro-magnetic waves, so it dawned on me... finally a project that can unite the two. An FM transmitter!! After a week of getting excited and actually sitting down to think about it, I realized that might not be the best idea what with all the laws with FCC and everything, and I would hate to get out there and do something stupid because I don't know anything about what I'm doing and ruin it for everyone else. So I went and talked to someone that runs a pirate radio station, and he told me to look into ham radio. He gave me a book to check out called "Now You're Talking!" which, unfortunately I haven't had time to read yet (it's finals week), but i'm still interested and was wondering if anyone can tell me where they started with amateur radio, and how I can get involved and whether there's workshops for this kind of stuff... anything you can tell me would be great!! thank you!
-Cameron

Don't forget that he also operated and funded the clandestine shortwave radio station "The Voice of Tomorrow" in the 80's and early 90's, which by doing so made him to the "10 top wanted Racists in the USA" list published by the SPLC. Rumor was he used converted ham radio gear and a 4 kilowatt amplifier to get on the air and the station was actually located near Mill Point W.Va. or near the National Vanguard News HQ building owned by the late Dr. Wm. Pierce.

Greetings Mark..

You've got them tuned to 48/49 Millihertz? Amazing! No?

Ref.:
"...looking to move a R-103G from 48mHz tx/49mHz rx to 53mHz tx/52mHz rx."

Come on Mark, you're an EXTRA class, you should know this!

A quick look at your metric table is probably in order. Here's a reference to consider, http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hertz scroll down and note how the frequency abbreviations appear.

Megahertz is defined as MHz, kilohertz as kHz and hertz as Hz. It is, in fact, ALWAYS a capital "H" to pay homage to Mr. Heinrich Hertz.
Consider: http://www.ideafinder.com/history/inventors/hertz.htm or, http://searchnetworking.techtarget.com/sDefinition/0,,sid7_gci214263,00.html or, http://tf.nist.gov/timefreq/general/glossary.htm (click on "M" or
"J-K" - these folks should know the difference)

Further proof? Take a look at www.fcc.gov and note their frequency references. In addition, simply take a look at a stereo dial, clock radio or even your transistor radio and notice how the manufacturers abbreviate frequency.

Ultimately, for retuning your cavities, you'll need a spectrum analyzer with a tracking generator. You can do this separately, two pieces of test equipment, with a sweeping (tracking) generator connected to the cavities and a spectrum analyzer on the other end.
While all TOO many "amateurs" will try to 'wing it' without any test equipment and by listening. This is far more than poor and unacceptable and usually does not work. Find someone with a service monitor with a sweeping (tracking) generator & a spectrum analyzer option that knows how to use them - that's your ticket.

Cheers,
Mr. Mentor

699. Cosmic Super Magnet spreads mysterious Morse Code

SRON Netherlands Institute for Space Research
Utrecht, The Netherlands

20 May 2008

Cosmic supermagnet spreads mysterious Morse code

Astronomers from SRON have discovered mysterious pulses that are being emitted by an extremely magnetic star. The magnetic star, a magnetar, emits the pulses as very high energy X-rays. The astronomers made their observations using the ESA space telescopes INTEGRAL and XMM-Newton and the NASA satellite RXTE.

Sometimes observations confirm a scientific theory perfectly, yet at other times telescopes bring completely new phenomena to light. That is what happened in the case of SRON astronomer Peter den Hartog. "I was looking for new sources of high energy X-rays on a celestial chart, made using the space telescope INTEGRAL. To our surprise, at the edge of this chart a star was visible that we knew was a magnetar. However, we never expected that it would emit this type of radiation," says the researcher, who upon making this discovery immediately requested additional observation time with INTEGRAL for follow-up research.

Lighthouse

Magnetars are small compact neutron stars with a magnetic field that is one billion times stronger than what can be artificially made on Earth. They are the strongest magnets in the universe. They have a mass one-and-a-half times that of the Sun but this is squeezed into a sphere with a radius of 10 kilometres. How they form exactly is a mystery. As they emit enormous quantities of energy in the form of X-rays, they have a lifespan of only 10,000 years. The magnetars rotate like mad around their axes, as a result of which they regularly sling a bundle of radiation into space like a lighthouse emitting a beacon of light. Although these X-rays to not reach the Earth's surface, they are nevertheless visible in space with the aid of an X-ray telescope.

For a long time astronomers thought that they had understood the nature of magnetars. The internal energy of a magnetar, stored in the extreme internal magnetic field that spirals through the star, was emitted as relatively low energy X-rays. However, that image was overturned several years ago by SRON astronomer Lucien Kuiper, when he used observations from INTEGRAL to demonstrate that the magnetars emit far more radiation of a far higher energy level. The phenomenon of the magnetars was once again shrouded in mystery. And Peter den Hartog's research has only added to this by revealing even more striking properties.

Film

"By converting the observations from INTEGRAL, XMM-Newton and RXTE into a type of short film, we could see how the characteristics of the X-rays changed over the course of time," explains Den Hartog. The characteristics of the radiation were found to drastically change during the rotation of the magnetar. Den Hartog: "Three different processes were found to be taking place in the magnetar that gave rise to three different pulses." For the time being, the meaning of this Morse code remains a mystery. This is why astronomers look with high expectations forward to the first data of space observatory GLAST due for launch by NASA on the 2nd of June. GLAST will study the high energy radiation from the universe in detail.

SRON is strongly involved in both INTEGRAL and XMM-Newton. SRON astronomer Wim Hermsen is a mission scientist in the INTEGRAL team and as such is closely involved in the satellite's scientific programme. SRON has also built an instrument for XMM-Newton that unravels the X-rays picked up by the telescope and then analyses these in detail.

Peter den Hartog defended his PhD thesis entitled 'Non-thermal X-ray emission from Anomalous X-ray Pulsars' on Wednesday 21 May 2008 at the Universiteit van Amsterdam.

Its amazing how much trouble some of those guys go to that way they can start some crap.
Look at it this way, the more time you keep them occupied, the less time they are out drinking and driving and hurting someone thats a decent person.
That way they can't go out and hurt someone through their own mental derangement.

 NOTES FROM THE EDITOR (by Tedd, KB8NW): Well, I am still recovering from the Dayton HamVention weekend. It was a rough week at work, and I guess my age is beginning to show. Hopefully, I will be back to normal next week. You may also note that this week's bulletin is extra long (two weeks of announcements). I also included an extra page this week on stations that were expected to be in this past weekend's CQ WPX CW Contest (Sorry, I could not get it out sooner). Anyway, Dayton was great, as usual. The SWODXA DX Dinner provided DXers with a good meal and a great VP6DX presentation by Eric, K3NA. The VP6DX QSL cards should be arriving soon from the printers (within two weeks). DXers will be really surprised when they receive their collectable QSL card (a 32 page booklet with pictures from the DXpedition). It will be worth the wait Eric states. Eric also did a presentation during the DX Forum at Hara Arena which was excellent and different from the DX Dinner. During the DX Dinner the SWODXA announced their annual "DXpedition of the Year" award and it went to the 2007 BS7H operation. They also announced during the dinner the CQ magazine's 2008 CQ DX Hall of Fame inductees (see below). Other interesting things for DXers during the HamVention included the SWODXA's DX Forums which had a very good line-up of presentions on 3B7C, J5C, VP6DX and TX5C. I would also like to mention the great turnout for the NODXA Hospitality Suite by many notable world-wide DXers. The suite was open most nights until 1:00 am. Thanks to those who attended. It may have been long nights and early mornings, but I enjoyed myself.

Lastly, I would like to mention that OPDX Webmaster John, K8YSE, has put together his annual HamVention listing of losing ticket numbers (those who did not stay for door prizes - with the list of prizes they could have won) and the winning ticket numbers of main prizes on the OPDX Web page at: http://www.papays.com/opdx.html

The 2008 inductees to the CQ DX Hall of Fame are:

John Devoldere, ON4UN, who more or less single-handedly popularized DXing on 80 meters. His book, "Low Band DXing", is considered the "bible" for DXing on these bands, with more than 50,000 copies sold in the 20+ years in which it's been in print. John was the first ham to earn CQ's 5-Band Worked All Zones (5BWAZ) award, in 1979; he holds 80m DXCC certificate #1 and currently has 357 countries confirmed on the band.

Nellie Saltiel de Lazard, XE1CI, a pediatrician and DXer/DXpeditioner, Nellie has earned just about every major DXing award and has operated from more than a dozen different countries, including being the first YL to operate from Palestine (E4).

Bob Schenck, N2OO, has made his greatest contribution to DXing behind the scenes as QSL manager for over 100 DX stations and more than 130 DXpeditions and as founder of the QSL Manager's Society.

The 2008 inductees to the CQ Contest Hall of Fame are:

Paolo Cortese, I2UIY - has too many top-10 finishes to list. NEW DX SUMMIT NOW AVAILABLE AS OF FRIDAY, MAY 23RD! A press release from Jarmo, OH2BN, states (edited): "The original OH2AQ DX Summit was launched in 1998. It represented something that changed the entire DX hunt. Spinning the dial became old history that would never return.
Yasme Foundation President Wayne Mills, N7NG, put it as follows; 'Jukka Salomaa, OH2BUA and Antti Kantola, OH5TB were awarded the Yasme Excellence Award for conceiving, operating, and maintaining the DX Summit, the first widely used Web-based spotting network portal. They created a tool that fundamentally changed the nature of HF operating, a true advancement of the radio art.'
The OH2AQ Summit has been a reliable tool for DX spotting for ten years. It was based on a concept and the computing power of those other days. Today marks the 10th anniversary of this innovation.
The New DX Summit, operated by Arcala Extremes, OH8X and supported by Yasme Foundation Inc., boasts a dramatic increase in computing power with the latest available equipment providing easy access to configure a Microsoft Server 2003 platform. State-of-the-art multiple servers are located in California, USA for fast information throughput and massive data storage. A huge amount of data will be retrieved for potential future applications. The system has been developed by Admino Technologies Ltd. located in Oulu, Northern Finland. <http://www.adminotech.com>
Traffic congestion should be a thing of the past. You can sample the speed and functionality during this coming weekend's WPX Contest. You should reconfigure your setup to <http://www.dxsummit.fi> (please update your browser bookmarks) because the original OH2AQ DX Summit will close down soon.
While the new system begins as a stepped-up carbon copy of the original system, it will provide an advanced technical platform for many new features that are on the drawing board as we speak.
Arcala Extremes, OH8X is a group of serious hams seeking technical innovations, experimenting with advanced radio and antenna concepts to further the evolution of amateur radio by using the competitive spirit as their trademark to attract young people. Their stations, OH8X and CU2A, are located in Oulu, Northern Finland and Azores Islands respectfully. Yasme Foundation <http://www.yasme.org> is a non-profit corporation undertaking scientific and educational projects related to amateur radio, including DXing and the introduction and promotion of amateur radio in developing countries."

NEW FREQUENCIES FOR ITALY. It was announced effective May 13, 2008, Italian amateur radio operators will be authorized to use the frequencies between 7100-7200 kHz (on a secondary basis), using only a total radiated power not exceeding 24 dbW.

New Jersey Lawyer, New York Cultist Seek to Revive Kevin Alfred Strom's Career League Of American Patriots Purges Sexually Normal, Plans Reunion

Overthrow Staff

Garfield, New Jersey -- When convicted pedophile Kevin Alfred Strom is released from prison this September, one short, wiry attorney may be standing there with flowers and cake.
Alexander Carmichael, an attorney from Garfield, New Jersey who has described himself to members of his inner circle as "the next Adolf Hitler", has spent the past few months rebuilding Strom's National Vanguard, calling it the League of American Patriots, reuniting its members, holding meetings, planning a Strom "welcome home" party, and purging old National Vanguard leaders who objected to the molestation of children. Working with him is New York City cult leader Bob Blumetti, a longtime Stormfront contributor who dresses in Star Wars "Sith Lord" costumes while worshipping the "earth mother" Freya, part of a religion he calls "Vriloology".

According to long time associates of Kevin Alfred Strom, who left him when the charges of pedophilia became known, Carmichael, who has been involved with Strom and the National Alliance since at least 2002, began approaching white activists in the New Jersey and New York City area last year, uniting the old National Vanguard New Jersey unit, then branching out to absorb former National Vanguard units in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania.

As his first step, Carmichael purged Rich Lindstrom, the long time, twenty plus year leader of the National Alliance and National Vanguard chapter in New Jersey, and an outspoken opponent of Strom's pedophilia, having been the first to resign from the National Vanguard board when the child porn allegations became known. Others who agreed with Lindstrom quickly got the boot, as did Keystone State Skinhead leader Keith Carney, whom Carmichael described as "too criminal" and "too working class".

Strom, the former leader of National Vanguard, is serving a twenty three months sentence for manufacturing and possessing child pornography on his home computer. Others in his group were believed to be complicit, but only one, the former leader of his Boston unit, was ever charged with sex crimes against children.

After purging Lindstrom and his supporters, Carmichael built an alliance with other Stormfront contributors, including Blumetti, using long time Blumetti cult member and National Vanguard member Patty Rainsford as a go between, and Erick Wiegel, whom Carmichael has ordered to raid messageboards with pro-Strom messages and propaganda.

Blumetti is the author of several pseudo-Odinist books, including Baldur Rising, and worships a New Age version of ancient Norse religion, placing Freya and the "the earth mother" as the central figures of worship, replacing Odin, the sky father, Thor, and the other male gods. In photos on his website:

http://www.vrilology.org/pictures_of%20COV% 20gatherings.htm

Blumetti is shown wearing a Star Wars "Sith Lord" costume overlaid with a red life rune on white background. Those who know Blumetti say he shares Strom's "artistic" and "school boy" love of teenage and pre-teen girls, and featured prominently in photos on his website is a young teenage girl that an associate of Blumetti's say he has a crush on.

Carmichael and Rainsford have reached out to other white activists, particularly at American Renaissance, where Kelso, who had never met Rainsford before, reportedly asked her to marry him to help conceal his homosexuality.

"I've reached an age where it just doesn't do not to be married," Kelso, who had never met Rainsford, is reported to have said to her, "I have plenty of assets, and you wouldn't actually have to sleep with me."

During AmRen, Carmichael also met with Jared Taylor and Don Black to seek support for his project, and is reported to have struck a deal to be the official heir of the National Alliance and the Strom legacy.

Carmichael's plans, though, have recently been derailed by a series of allusions made on this website's blog and on Vanguard News Network, where a number of Carmichael's followers had been implementing an internet plan to "discredit" our publisher Bill White and the American National Socialist Workers Party. Using a "secret" website messageboard, since shut down, the group had coordinated a smear and slander campaign they felt would "neutralize" White. White responded by hinting he knew more of their plans than they had thought.

The result has been a paranoid campaign against their own members, accusing activists of being "Bill White assets" and claiming they are being monitored by "informers" wearing "Zionist lapel pins" that have the power to record their voices and instantly transmit them to the FBI and Mossad headquarters in Tel Aviv.

The paranoia has alienated the group's few normal members, driving several away and compelling several, who has never previously contacted this website, to approach us as the "natural enemies" of the Carmichael group.

However, Carmichael's activities were well known outside their inner circle before anyone involved in the League had been expelled. Information leaked to the anti-Kevin-Strom legal forces late last year, and reached us through other members of Stromfront's "Sustaining Member" section as well. An anonymous "press release", apparently sent to numerous white activists two weeks ago, also provided additional details, including Carmichael's home address and phone number, the name of his wife, and his career and educational background. Carmichael is a Princeton graduate and formerly worked for a firm defending insurance companies against claims. When contacted, his former employer laughed when told he had started a "neo nazi" group and said they were not surprised.

The only unknown in the League of American Patriots equation is the depth of involvement of John Justice, a Chicago factory owner and long time supporter of white activism who has bankrolled Kevin Alfred Strom's legal defense, but has no overt ties to Carmichael's organization. Justice, a former associate of Revilo Oliver, denied any involvement in Carmichael's group in a phone interview last week.

Regardless of recent set backs and the "exposure" of his work, Carmichael seems intent on reorganizing the Strom group, allowing only those who have not objected to Strom's pedophilic instincts to participate, and uniting with Blumetti's strange cult religion to form a "new approach" that he believes will catapult him to supreme dictatorship over the United States. While his organization has not been formally introduced to the public, he has received a receptive audience from white nationalist leaders like Don Black and Jared Taylor, and appears to be the focus of their latest efforts to regain their relevance to the white racial struggle.

Leviticus 20:13 states:

done what is detestable. They must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Later passages do address the consequences of your perverted

730. PRO-97 Signal Stalker II not working

Hi all. I recently purchased a Radio Shack PRO-97 handheld scanner. I have been VERY pleased with it except for the "Signal Stalker II." It simply doesn't detect anything. I have walked very near known transmission sources (ie, baby monitors in 900MHz band) and it the scanner does not stop on the frequency. The only thing I can get it to stop on is a GRMS walkie-talkie when it's right next to it. I have read MANY posts on the Internet where people have this exact same problem but I have never read a solution.l About half the posts say, "It works great," and about half say, "Signal Stalker does nothing for me." Do any of you have any thoughts on the matter?

I'm wondering if Signal Stalker even scans in the 900MHz range even though the radio itself supports it. I ask that because when I watch the display scan through the frequencies in Signal Stalker mode, nothing in the 900 MHz range appears. I DESPERATELY want this feature. Any suggestions would be much appreciated!

In lieu of this monmumental event, will the congregation please stant and sing hymm #27 in your Prayer Partners Handbook. Ready? And a 1...and a 2....

Verse 1
I Heard An Old, Old Story, How A Savior Came From Glory, How He Gave His Life On Calvary, To Save A Wretch Like Me;
I Heard About His Groaning, Of His Precious Blood's A-toning
Then I Repented Of My Sins And Won The Victor-y

Verse 2
I Heard About His Healing, Of His Cleansing Power Re-vealing,
How He Made The Lame To Walk Again, And Caused The Blind To See
And Then I Cried, "Dear Jesus, Come And Heal My Broken Spirit," And Somehow Jesus Came And Brought To Me The Victory.

Verse 3
I Heard About A Mansion, He Has Built For Me In Glory,
And I Heard About The Streets Of Gold, Beyond The Crystal Sea;
A-bout The Angels Singing, And The Old Redemption Story,
And Some Sweet Day I'll Sing Up There, The Song Of Victor-y.

* Chorus *
Oh, Victory In Jesus, My Savior, For-ever,
He Sought Me And Bo't Me With His Redeeming Blood,
He Loved Me Ere I Knew Him, And All My Love Is Due Him,
He Plunged Me To Victory, Be-neath The Cleansing Flood

What part of "This blog is in violation of Blogger's Terms of Service and is open to authors only" don't you understand?

I'd say Todd's blog has been yanked all right, but you have to attempt to spin it in some other direction, and that tells us a lot about you.

To everyone else: Just keep on hitting the "flag this blog" button when you visit an objectional blog, and then hit the reload button to be sure that Blogger has been left with a log entry.

In the meantime, visit http://n90glv0ice.blogspot.com/ for a laugh at Todd's expense.

751. BWA Licensing Issues: Auction or Beauty Contest?

1. Country “A” plans to provide end to end Internet connectivity to its residents at affordable cost. Though, it is as small as New York State, but the estimated population is almost 150 million. Country “A” is concerned that the Internet penetration rate is as low as 0.4 percent till date. The country is connected to only one submarine Internet backbone, installed at a cost about 94 million U.S. dollars back in 2006, but almost 90% of its capacity has remained un-utilized, due mostly to its initial high tariff rates, lack of proper nationwide telecommunications backbone infrastructure and its pricing model which failed to promise the ability to reach it’s prospective subscribers in under-privileged areas. As usual, the state owned incumbent phone/ Internet company could not reach those unconnected as expected and they long ago amortized the cost of their fewer copper network, as they hardly added new connections over the years, and spent barely anything on expanding it. The e-commerce could not start, as you have guessed it right - where is the connectivity?

2. Let’s get to some of the basic facts which will determine the Internet business cases viable for this country. The country is very flat, I would say, it is the radio propagation heaven. The population is heavily dense, which means you get to meet more than 2700 people in a square mile. This will bring the thought in your mind that investment on infrastructure will have its return over night. That’s why the local subsidiary of foreign cell phone companies is earning their fortune here. The single radio BTS don’t even need to reach out to cover cell planning area, because it gets filled up way before half of its expected coverage.

3. The per capita GDP is close to US$ 470 (as estimated in 2007) which will depict the baseline of affordability of the common people. I would say, the lowest Internet connectivity tariff may start at 4 USD, because that really can be termed as affordable for this country. I understand Maintaining QoS of Internet at this price can be challenging, but the existing broadband policy sets 128 kpbs as a minimum for time being. Here most of the existing (mostly unlicensed) ISP’s don’t care about the contention ratio for the home users, because with the existing higher bandwidth pricing, it is nearly impossible to provide good contention ration like 1:20 or 1:30 with 8-9 USD. The taxation on CPE (modems) is also arbitrarily high to get the cost down.

4. Say, right now, the policy makers of this country really want to connect all the unconnected like providing universal access services obligation. Let’s set the initial connection speed to 64 kpbs for some time to get the initial cost down. While there is very less infrastructure on copper or fiber (FTTH and ADSL relies heavily on infrastructure) in this country, Broadband Wireless Access (BWA) technologies can be life saver for reaching everyone. The population density, the vibrant private sector with state support for ICT should be able to deliver when it comes to connecting those unconnected. Here technologies like WiMAX/Wi-Fi and HSPA can be good contenders for connecting everyone wirelessly. For most countries, these BWA services are complementary to those offered by ADSL/cable and FTTH, but here the scenario is different now. For reaching everyone, it (BWA) has to be the primary stop gap solution before the real infrastructure comes up. We have to give it a time. With regard to spectrum costs and charges, telecommunication experts sometimes opine that charges paid for radio spectrum exceeding the costs for administrative spectrum management - either caused by auctions or set in beauty contest's spectrum fees - should be avoided as far as possible and in any case should flow back into the telecommunications sector for the benefit of the information society of a country. The attribution processes should be judged on merits how the country is benefited, and not to consider this as an opportunity for governments to withdraw additional money from this sector in order to reduce their budget deficit. For future expansions, experts generally support the principle of "technology neutrality" as proposed by other regulatory authorities for the optimum delivery of BWA services.

5. Now, let's say, we have devised BWA services to be the best methodology to bridge the digital divide quickly. Before opening up these BWA operations to private sector, the country needs to figure out what is best way to reach its goal. That is why the authorization of Telecommunications Services to the companies and right to use radio spectrum and licensing rural and universal access services should be dealt differently. Other countries which has ADSL and FTTH up and running might have the luxury to earn extra cash by auctioning, but we have be little careful about that. Let me put something from ICT regulatory toolkit document ….

"There are significant differences in the authorization practices in force in different countries. At one end of the spectrum are wide-open authorization regimes, where no form of governmental approval is required to start a telecommunications service business or to operate network facilities. At the other end are individual licensing regimes with lengthy licence documents customized to the circumstances of a specific service provider. In between are many forms of general authorization or "class licences" that authorize and provide generally applicable regulatory conditions for classes of telecommunications service providers."

6. We hear loads of good thing about spectrum auctioning but it does not work when it comes to using it for universal access services. But, it is true that as per the Telecommunication Regulatory Handbook, in least-cost subsidy auctions, a selection is made based on which qualified applicant requires the lowest subsidy to provide a non-economic service. The services authorized using a least-cost subsidy auction is generally subsidized as part of a country's universal access program. This country "A" is yet to work on that kind of program right at this moment. Others would say, prices for mobile communications services in the United States continue to drop despite the billions of dollars paid for licenses in FCC auctions. Those who claim that bid prices will be passed through to consumers have yet to provide a sound economic argument or to show any empirical evidence that this has occurred anywhere in the world. It's confusing, it is!

7. On the contrary, beauty contest seems to the most adequate method to allocate the spectrum licenses because the regulatory authority is in a position to design the comparable criteria around the country's need. It (merit based comparative evaluation approach) has its downside for not being that transparent like auction. Most of the comparative evaluations require the applicants to make the best use of the limited resources associated with the license to serve the public. That saves the hidden cost passed on to the subscribers. It also relies in part on quantitative measures, such as the time it might take to cover the whole area (coverage obligation), the number of years of operational experience. Others rely on more qualitative (and thus subjective) criteria, such as the management skill. But, it brings out the applicants technical competence, experience, and cost efficiency. Some regulators might even put specific criteria like the lowest tariff for Internet connectivity to the home users. This requires the applicants to review their business case to offer the lowest tariff based on its ROI. This exercise makes the prospective service provider to open up its business case to the evaluator. The evaluation committee might have to get down calculating the cost per Hz per population, which seems a great idea to minimize the cost as this will be passed on to the subscribers. But, its success largely depends on building a smart merit based comparative evaluation metrics (criteria) with some pre-set list of selection criteria with the distribution of weight-age. Those can be listed under some broad head like, Business Plan, Telecommunications Sector Experience and Financial Strength and Stability and Network roll-out obligation.

8. Here's how I thought of building one from some of the regulatory consultation papers …

Merit Based Evaluation on Defined Performance Metrics

1. Past Performance (should the country consider licensing from existing operators).

a) Service Roll-out and Coverage

aa) Coverage Provided (a. Number of transmitters, b. Number of base station sites and their demographic distribution, c. Percentage of Land mass and Population receiving coverage from Applicant's network, d. throughput)

bb) Spectrum Efficiency (a. Earlngs per MHz of spectrum allocated, b. Quality of Service based of allocated spectrum, spectrum reuse schemes)

b) Delivered Telephony Penetration

aa) Number of subscribers served, Subscriber Growth, Subscribers per MHz of spectrum.

bb) Urban Penetration (Contribution to penetration over 5 Year period, Spectral efficiency in terms of cell planning in dense area)

cc) Rural Penetration (Contribution to penetration over 5 year period, aggressive pricing scheme to reach the under privileged area)

c) Investment

aa) Financial Standing (Audited financial statements for the past 3 years to assess operational track record)

bb) Investment Record (Annual investments on network and non network capital assets over the last 5 years)

d) Regulatory Compliance

aa) Compliance Confirmation (Minor and major violations if any, show causes also to be considered)

e) Technology Development

aa) New Services (Number of new services introduced over last 5 years)

bb) New Technologies (Pioneering technologies introduced over the last 5 years)

cc) Local R&D (Locally developed products and the contents)

dd) Technology (development contribution to ICT sector partnerships established to promote/assist local ICT sector)

f) Quality of Service

aa) Network Performance, Fault Incidence and Repair, Customer service complain handling, throughput as promised

bb) Ability to provide broadband service with the expected contention ratio

9. Now, when inviting new players it to this BWA regime, we need to evaluate their business case to evaluate their capability to roll-out throughout the country.

a. The Business Plan

1) Pricing of services, the introduction of services and distribution plans.

2) Local employment, skills transfer and training.

3) The involvement of local businesses either as shareholders, partners or as suppliers of goods and services leading to reinvestment in the Country “A”s economy, and minimizing the exportation of economic benefits.

4) Geographical coverage and coverage in terms of population, of network and services, and rate of roll out. (Number of transmitters and roll out plan, number of base station sites and their demographic distribution along with implementation time-line, i.e. service launch time-line of pilot service, full commercial service, network deployment plan etc.)

5) Promotion of applications and content services development,

6) Promotion of Human Resource Development such as job creation, knowledge development etc.

7) Range and quality in the BWA services provided by the Applicant.

8) Evidence of primary and secondary market research supporting forecasts and financial plans.

9) Financial aspects related to the planned BWA network, particularly evidence of the necessary funding and commitment to funding the business.

10) Experience and track record under comparable conditions, and proven ability and capability to deliver commitments made in competitive markets.

11) The overall soundness and quality of the business plan.

b. Miscellaneous Obligations

a) Country “A” would love to have proposals from the applicant to provide free basic 256 kbps wireless broadband services to all the public schools for the first year. This enables all the schools to be connected to Internet. It makes a CSR (corporate social responsibility) case for them.

b) Valued users to be provided the enhanced mobility services including voice-over-IP, video conferencing, online gaming, location-based services etc.

c) Right to share its own infrastructure and should not invest on newer infrastructure when competitors have that already.

9. Some experts says that new operator should not be barred from providing some services like voice when home broadband phone can never take away Cell Phone’s position, at least for next 10 years here in this country “A”. Voice is still a prime service here in this country. This can be done in order to allow new operators to join the market simply without constraints until a SMP state is reached. In this later case, some constrains might be imposed to guarantee that the free competition is in conformity with the free competition regulatory framework. Also, required modification in regulations to make spectrum available and harmonize use of spectrum across international boundaries can only pave its way to connect the unconnected.

10. Please provide me some feedback on making a great Merit Based Evaluation form on defined performance metrics. What more should I include to make it somehow full proof to get the widest coverage of Internet with the lowest tariff?

[Consultation papers from NTRA, OFCOM, TRCSL, Maravedis, TRA (Bahrain), CSK, OECD, OFTA, Industry Canada, MCA, ECC, GSA, HTLL, IDA, ETNO, IEEE 802 LMSC, MPT and NTA were really helpful to make these metrics]

Sincerely Yours,

Raqueeb Hassan

It looks like one or the both of them did just that.
This will give Todd something else to complain to "googles" about.

From http://www.blogger.com/content.g:

"... Pedophilia, Incest and Bestiality: Users may not publish written, image or video content that promotes pedophilia, incest and bestiality."

From http://www.blogger.com/terms.g:

"10. Termination; Suspension. Google may, in its sole discretion, at any Agreement, or suspend or terminate your account. In the event of termination, your account will be disabled and you may not be granted access to your account or any files or other content contained in your

So, Beastie Boy, your drawings of beastality and pedophilia got you in trouble after all, the law of the land notwithstanding (this is OUR web server after all, and we can kick anyone off that we choose). According to item 10 above, we can terminate your site if we don't like the way your hair is parted (and nobody likes your hair except Mark Morgan).

As to the FBI, why don't you take your complaint up with them the next time they drop by your house?

Todd: Forget about obscure HF freqs and low power FM. Nobody will hear you. Now if you REALLY want to be heard by the masses of boobs that make up this hobby called 'ham radio' you need to set up shop on 14.275 with daily "Information Bulletins" just like Glen Baxter did on the IARN. Remember him Todd? Seriously dude, if you start to run bulletins on 14.275 like Baxter used to do in VERY short order you will be the most listened to and 'popular' ham on 20 Meters since KV4FZ and 'The Mike and Judy Show'. It's sitting right there on your desk Todd, it's called an HF rig. Plus by taking over 14.275 from the present group of retarded idiots who currently 'nest' here you will be doing us all a big favor. How about it dude?

The frequency is 7077.5 kHz, but if this is unusable for some reason, they will move the net to 7092 kHz +/- QRM. John states that this net may be quite early in the morning for some stations and is interested in starting another net possibly between 7.125-7.200 MHz if a clear frequency could be found for the duration of the net. He adds, "As the seasons change, so do the broadcast stations, but it is worth a try to find a frequency so we can all join in on the DX net together. There are many VK stations from the west to the east coast that would like to work you. If you can join the present net or assist in finding a clear net frequency, please send any frequency reports to vk6jb@wia.org.au and I will collate them. 4X0, ISRAEL. Operators Hal/W8HC and Jerry/K8OQL have announced their return to Israel in October for another CQWW DX Phone Contest (October 25-26th) from the Holyland. In commemoration of Israel's 60th anniversary in 2008, they have been granted permission to operate as 4X0C as a special event/contest station from atop Israel's historical Masada National Park. Masada was built during 37 BC to 31 BC by "Herod the Great" and served as a "nearly" impenetrable stone fortress and palace. The site is located in the remote Judean desert and is situated on a rhomboid-shaped table-top plateau rising nearly 450 meters. This contest location offers a breath-taking panorama of the Dead Sea and Jordan's Moab Mountains. Interestingly however, Masada's actual elevation is near-sea level since the Dead Sea below is over 400 meters below sea level. Masada is also known as the site of one of the largest mass suicides in history when in 73 AD, some 960 Jewish Zealots took their own life rather than die at the hands of the Roman legions that had breached the fortress walls. Hal and Jerry will be hosted and joined by Ruben/4Z5FI for their Multi/Single operation during the contest. QSL via W8HC, direct or by the Bureau. All 4X0C QSOs will also be uploaded to LoTW as in previous operations (4X0WV). Hal will QSL 100% via GlobalQSL.com. Additional information about this operation can be found at: http://www.w8hc.com

To get more information about this site, please visit the Web page at: http://www.bibleplaces.com/masada.htm

7W0, ALGERIA. Mike, DB1JAW, will be active as 7W0JAW (or 7X/DB1JAW) from Bou-Saada and possibly other locations in the Algerian Sahara, October 2-14th. Activity will be on 80-10 meters, but with a focus on 20/17/12 meters using SSB and PSK31. QSL only direct to DB1JAW; he is no longer a member of DARC. SAE is not required as Mike prints computerized envelopes.

9L3, SIERRA LEONE (IOTA Op). Operators Alfeo/I1HJT, Silvano/I2YSB, Carlo/IK1AOD, Vinicio/IK2CIO, Angelo/IK2CKR, Marcello/IK2DIA and Stefano/IK2HKT are expected to be active from Sherbro Island (AF-056) next year, between January 25th and February 13th. Callsign is to be determined. QSL via I2YSB, direct or the G6MBY Bureau.

C9, MOZAMBIQUE (Update/Operator Needed). Frosty, K5LBU/C91CF, informs that a spot has opened up on their team for their July DXpedition. One of the operators had to drop out, so if anyone would like to join them, please send an E-mail to Frosty before June 6th. He states that he needs to pay for all the rooms (and other things) on that date. His E-mail address is: frosty1@pdq.net
Currently, a group of 4 operators from the U.S. are on the team to go to C9-land, as well as one from 9M6-land and 3-4 operators from ZS-land. This is an "African DX Safari Team", and each operator will be using their own callsign during the July 16-30th operation. Activity will be from the Blue Anchor Inn <http://www.blueanchorinn.com/>. They plan to have 3 stations set up: one for CW, one for Phone and one for RTTY/PSK. They also plan to be on EME (6m-70cm) and the satellites.

CU1, AZORES. Operators Arlindo/CT1EGW, Luis/CT1EEQ, Hermann/CT3FN, Antonio/CU2HJA, Antonio/CU8AS, Lutz/DL9DAN and Rudolf/HB9CQL will be active as CU1T during the RSGB IOTA Contest (July 26-27th). The team will be active from Santa Maria (EU-003) between July 21st and August 1st. Activity will be on 80-6 meters using CW, SSB, RTTY and PSK31. They will have a beacon on 50113 kHz. QSL via CT1GFK.

Odd, isn't it, that the only reference to be found on the web to this piece of screed is right here at r.r.a.* Yes, he did that in TX. Now, cite a single reference to a contemporaneous plan. Otherwise, you're just a cowardly shit-stirrer.

9A, CROATIA. Jan, PA4JJ, will be active as 9A/PA4JJ between June 22nd and July 12. He will be the camping at Ulika in Porec on the MAINLAND, so no IOTA. He will try to use the JT6M mode on 6 meters, but he has no beam with him only the G5RV (which tunes ok on 6) and his FT897. Grid is JN65sg. Also, there will be activity on other bands, of course.

A7/G0MKT HEADING HOME. OPDX received the following report (edited) from Bill, NM7H, on Saturday, June 7th, as he prepares to head home to Nebraska:
"Hello, I am Bill Flint, A7/G0MKT, and in the states my call is NM7H. I packed up my gear today and will be leaving Qatar soon. I was active from around late April till 6 June 08. I made about 500 contacts total while here, I picked up 8 or 9 new countries that I had not gotten on my previous trips out here. I think my country count just for this trip as about 60-70 (not sure).
Propagation was generally poor for me, during the local day CW activity was sparse much of the time. I worked from about 4pm to midnight local (1300Z-2100Z). After work 20m was seldom open for me, so I would get on 30m or 40m. Conditions were tough much of the time on 30m and 40m due to QRN.

My gear: Yaesu FT-857D and a High Sierra HX-900 (older model 40-6m screwdriver antenna). The antenna was on a mag mount on the A/C unit that sticks out of the metal building I lived in. I had two ground leads, one short lead with an alligator clip to the metal building, and one 5m lead that I let hang down to the ground.
I will be sending out QSLs in a few weeks to all QSOs that were not part of the WPX contest, the QSLs will go via the bureau. I will also respond to all QSL requests that I receive direct. For the WPX contest contacts, I will send out QSLs for the countries I need confirmed. I think my total DXCC number from Qatar is 125 and I need about 30 more countries confirmed so I can apply for DXCC from Qatar.
I sent my log to LoTW and have already started getting confirmations there. The website for eQSL does not work from here for some reason, it always times out. So when I get home I will load my log to eQSL.
This was probably my last trip to Qatar....
73, Bill (A7/G0MKT, NM7H, YI9WF, G0MKT)"

ADDED NOTE: It is suggested to visit Bill's "A7/G0MKT Web Page" which has his complete A7 story with pictures at:

He tells OPDX that he can operate from the BA4IT's station on 80-10 meters, SSB and CW. However, Jack states that he has had the most luck working 15, 20 and 40 meters from BA4IT in the past, so he will emphasize those bands. CW is his mode of choice, although Jack will venture onto SSB at times.

SB DX @ WW < KB8NW $OPDX.861.1
Ohio/Penn DX Special Bulletin No. 861.1

The Ohio/Penn DX PacketCluster
DX Special Bulletin No. 861.1
BID: $OPDX.861.1
June 9, 2008
Editor Tedd Mirgliotta, KB8NW
Provided by BARF80.ORG (Cleveland, Ohio)

Thanks to the Northern Ohio Amateur Radio Society, Northern Ohio DX Association, Ohio/Penn PacketCluster Network, AB5K & the AR TelNet Clusters Network, EA9IE and DK7LX for the following DX information.

4W, TIMOR-LESTE (Update). Juan, EA9IE, informs OPDX that the Spanish group going to Timor-Leste left Madrid, Spain, yesterday Sunday, June 8th, at 19:00 local time (1700z) to Paris, Singapore, Darwin (Australia) and Dili (Timor).
Juan states, "It will be a 32 hour trip and the schedule for landing in Timor will be around 08:00 local time on Tuesday, 10th." The whole Tuesday will be devoted to collecting all the goods they sent by sea freight a few months ago, installing equipment in the house they rented, picking up their licence and buying some goods and foods that they will need. Juan mentions that hopefully late in the evening they will try to begin and activate one of the stations.
As this operation is not a DX operation but a radio solidarity operation, they would like to be efficient every second, so they kindly request that everyone in the next two days put spots on the cluster by stations that are heared in the following zone: VK8, YB, 9M, DU, P2 and V8 (please included the real report that is heard).
It will help them and the pilots stations by collecting that info and being as efficient as possible. After Wednesday, when they send out their first CQ, please, everyone should do the same, include in your spot the real report of 4W6R.
BTW (By the way), Juan, EA9IE, is one of the Pilot stations for 4W6R.
Just a reminder that members of the Union de Radioaficionados Espanoles, URE, (The Spanish Amateur Radio League) will be active as 4W6R between June 10-24th. Operators mentioned are: Angel/EA1QF (CW/Digital), Txema/ EA5BWR (CW/SSB/Digital), Eugene/EA4KA (CW), Pere/EA3CUU (CW), Jose/CT1ERC (SSB/Digital) and Jose/EA4DB (CW/SSB/Digital). Activity will be on 160-6 meters, using CW, SSB and RTTY. They plan to have two stations on the air.
Suggested frequencies are:
CW - 1824/1832, 3508, 7008, 10118, 14018, 18078, 21018, 24898 and 28018
SSB - 1824/1845, 3785, 7065, 14185, 18135, 21295, 24945 and 28485

RTTY - 3615, 7038, 10145, 18105, 21085, 24925 and 28085
6m - CW/50098, RTTY/50300 and SSB/50155 kHz

QSLs will be via EA4URE, by the Bureau or direct to: P.O. Box 220, 28080 Madrid, SPAIN. For more info and updates, visit:
http://4w6r.ure.es/home.php?lang=en

FH, MAYOTTE (Update). Georg, DK7LX (FH/DK7LX), will be active using the special callsign TX7LX between June 11-23rd. Activity will be holiday style and mainly on CW, but with a focus on 80/40/30 meters. All other bands will depend on band conditions. He will use an Icom IC-706 MKIIG into a HF9V multi-band vertical that might be placed next to the sea. Reference numbers are: IOTA AF-027 and WLOTA 0376. A special full colored photo QSL will be available. QSL via his home callsign by the DARC Bureau or direct (w/sufficient return postage and SAE) to:

It's not the fibre line causing the RFI. It's the FiOS Interface Box which is the noisemaker. As usual it's made in China with minimal shielding and bypassing. Unfortunatly you can't open it as it's equipped with tamper-proof fasteners. Best way is to re-locate it as far away from the radio as possible.

ROFL

I remember Todd's rantings from listening to him on his illegal shortwave radio station Omega One. To me, he clearly sounded like someone that was slowly but surely going insane. Reading what he has been posting lately, I think the recent Spankings he has received from the FBI, Google, the FCC, various service providers, and 20 WPM Code tested extras have finally pushed pushed him over the edge and that he has now gone completely and totally insane.

It is sad that Mark has returned to rrap.
Some of us had been hoping against all hope that Mark had at long last expired.

Unfortunately, trying to quell Mark is akin to trying to push a floating turd under water.
You can temporarily push the turd under water for a brief while but, like turds everywhere, they resurface downstream.

The TC0W team made 10,752 QSOs (6009/CW and 4741/SSB) after 82 hours of operating. Complete details with photos, on-line log search, ZF, CAYMAN ISLANDS (Update/6m Op). Just a reminder that operators Jim/K4BI and Mario/K2ZD (with XYLs Meredith/K8BBN and Daphne/N2TIN) are planning a major 6m DXpedition here this week. Look for them to sign ZF2BI and ZF2ZD, respectively, between June 20th and July 6th. They will be running an ACOM amp into a 6M5X. Look for them on 50.105 MHz. Their beacon will be on 50.095 MHz. Emphasis will again be EU, AF, SA and AS, but will, of course, work NA. They will have HF capability but don't plan on being there very much or very often. QSL via their home callsign.

* PLEASE NOTE: The report "could" contain "Pirate/SLIM" operations or more likely a "BUSTED CALLSIGN". As always, you never know - "Work First Worry Later" (WFWL).

4W, TIMOR-LESTE. The 4W6R from Dili should be going QRT on June 24th. QSLs via EA4URE, by the Bureau or direct to: P.O. Box 220, 28080 Madrid, SPAIN. The online log states that 12641 QSOs are in the database as of June 20th. For more info and updates, visit: http://4w6r.ure.es/home.php?lang=en

5X, UGANDA (Reminder). Nick, G3RWF, will once again be active as 5X1NH this week from June 25th to August 15th. Activity will be from Fort Portal in Western Uganda. QSL via G3RWF. He was active during February and March this year and made 11000 QSOs.

6 METER CARIBBEAN DXPEDITION (Update). Dennis, K7BV, will be active this summer from the Caribbean but on 6 meters ONLY. Look for him to sign as V36M from Caye Caulker Island (NA-073, WW Loc. EK57XR), Belize, from June 20-26th, and as 5J0M from San Andres Island (NA-033, WLOTA LH-2990, WW Loc EK92DM) between June 29th and July 7th. His equipment will be a FT-450 with ACOM-1000 amplifier, running 1KW into a 7 element and 3 element beam. The main frequency will be 50.106.2 MHz USB and /B. The pilot station will be Pat, W5OZI. QSL direct only to W1JJ (QRZ.com). For more information, visit his interesting Web page at: http://www.qth.com/k7bv/caribe2008

7Q, MALAWI. QSL Manager Allan, G0IAS, informs OPDX that Harry, 7Q7HB (G0JMU), is once again in Malawi. He adds that Harry has put in his shipping container this time a telescopic tiltover mast and a new A4S, which all needs to be assembled. Apparently, the "Gem Quad" that has been at "Club Mak" for years and was erected by Harry and Les/7Q7LA has seen better days, so he is replacing it on this trip. Harry has also taken more stuff to work data modes this time too. Allan states, "A new 'Radio Shack' is in the process of being built also." Remember, the QSL route for 7Q7HB is as always "DIRECT ONLY" to G0IAS (NO BUREAU... Allan is not a member of the RSGB, so he is NOT allowed to use the BUREAU in the UK and there is NO Bureau in Malawi). If anyone has any questions for Allan, his E-mail is good on QRZ.com and is: allan.g0ias@btinternet.com Allan will answer any E-mails within a couple of hours.

8P, BARBADOS. Andrew, G7COD, will be active as 8P9KA from Harts Gap between June 28th and July 4th. Activity is planned for 40/30/20/17/15 meters with operating times taking place between 2100-2300z everyday, concentrating on SSB with some CW. QSL via G7COD, by the bureau or direct. For more information on QSL info, please see 8P9KA on QRZ.com.

A2, BOTSWANA. Operator Sigi/DL7DF and a team of operators will be active as A25/DL7DF from Botswana between September 23rd and October 6th. They plan to have several stations on the air on 160-10 meters using CW and SSB. One station will be exclusively dedicated to RTTY, PSK31 and SSTV. Operators mentioned are: Manfred/DK1BT, Wolfgang/DL4WK, Andy/DL5CW, Sigi/DL7DF, Frank/DL7UFR and Leszek/SP3DOI. QSL via DL7DF, direct or by the DARC Bureau. Pilots for this DXpedition are Bernd/DF3CB and Floyd/N5FG. For more details, please visit: http://www.dl7df.com/a25/index.html

C5, THE GAMBIA. Andre, ON7YK, will once again be active as C56YK between October 13th and November 9th. Activity will be on 80-10 meters, perhaps also 160m, using CW, SSB, RTTY and PSK31. He will only have 100 watts and will use a Spiderbeam for 20/17/15/12/10m and a dipole for 80/40/30 meters. This will be a holiday style operation. For more details and updates, visit the Web site at: http://www.on7yk.net

C9, MOZAMBIQUE. Frosty, K5LBU, informs OPDX readers that "things are looking up for our Dxpedition to Mozambique this July." He states that they will be on the air starting the night of July 16th through the 30th. They will have 2 complete stations; one for CW and one for SSB. Both will have T-8 Log-Periodics thanks to Tennedyne at about 50 feet plus. There will also be a 40 meter 4 square and possibly 80 meter 4 square and 72 foot vertical for 160/80/30 meters. There will also be 6 meters with a M2 6 meter beam. Frosty is hoping to have a new Expert 1K-FA amplifier to try out, but time is about up and without sponsors, they will be using the old IC2KL amps. Look for activity on EME from 6 meters through 70cm (Thanks to Hal/ZS6WB and several other South African hams). Frosty is going to try and make sure that some of their CW operators give CW a shot on EME. The C9 team has several new members and now consists of the following operators:
Charles F. Frost (Frosty) K5LBU - C91CF, QSL via home callsign.
Tom Kramer NQ7R - C91TK, QSL via home callsign.
Jay Sewell W5SL - C91SL, QSL via home callsign.
John Plenderleith 9M6XRO - C91XO*, QSL via M3SDE.
Bill Dzurilla NZ5N - C91BD, QSL via WA4WTG.
Bob Novak K0OK - C91OK*, QSL via home callsign.
Ben Pyfer DJ0YI - C91YI*, QSL via home callsign.
* Callsign pending
Activity will be on all bands from 160-6 this trip. Frosty just hopes that they get some sunspots so that folks can work them on 15/12/10m. They will have a log search on the Web sometime after their operations start at: http://www.tdxs.net/C9.html
Their InterNet is via a pay as you go cell phone, so don't look for too much from them everyday. ADDED NOTE: John will be leaving the team to go over to Swaziland on the 18th to operate there until the 23rd. His cards should go to his QSL Manager M3SDE.

CY0, SABLE ISLAND (Reminder). The 6 meter DXpedition to Sable Island is scheduled to take place this week between June 25th through July 7th. Operators Pete/VE3IKV, Dick/K5AND and Chris/W3CMP will be active on CW and SSB. The fixed 6m station (in FN93) will use the callsign CY0X. They will be transmitting on 50.117 MHz. The team requests, "Please do NOT send your grid square as it consumes valuable time during an opening." They will also try to activate rare grid GN03 if there is a solid opening using a portable station with a 5 element M2 6M5X yagi with the callsign CY0RA. The team will also plan on being on HF on 20 meters and 40 meters, CW and SSB - but the HF operation will always take lower priority over the 6 meter operation. HF antennas will be elevated monoband ground-plane verticals for each band, and the IOTA island designator is NA-063. The special callsign CY0X commemorates the 225th anniversary of the 1783 Loyalist landing in Nova Scotia: http://www.loyalistlanding2008.org
QSL via VE3IKV (please include two green stamps). For updates, visit their Web page at: http://www.cy0x.com

GT7, ISLE OF MAN (SOTA Activity). Phil, G4OBK, will be visiting the Isle of Man this week and will be using the Scarborough special events callsign GT7OOO/P to activate several of the summits on the Island for SOTA award. His activity will be mainly on 40 meters CW. He expects to be active for up to 8 hours during the daylight in several sessions between Monday, June 23rd and Friday, June 27th, from the top of the hills. QSL is via the Bureau to G0OOO. Phil mentions that this will be the first time that the GT7 prefix has ever been aired on HF.

HI3, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC. Edwin, HI3K, will be active during the RSGB IOTA Contest (July 26-27th) as a Single-Op/All-Band/Low-Power entry. QSL via KB2MS.

IOTA NEW.....
AS-147. Look for 7L3ATQ/8 to be active from Teuri Island (JIIA AS-147-008) in the JA8 Hokkaido Coastal Island Group between now and June 24th. Activity will be on the HF bands. QSL via the home callsign, direct or by the Bureau.

EU-055. Trond, LA9VDA, will be active from Vaagsoy and various lighthouses between June 27th and July 4th. Lighthouses to be activated are: WLOTA LA-2181, ARLHS NOR-116, ARLHS NOR-141 and ARLHS-209. QSL via the address on QRZ.com.

EU-072. Members of the White Tower DX Team will be active as SX8WT from Alonnisos Island (GIOTA NAS-065, MIA MG-008, also count for WLOTA LH-4091), between August 30th and September 5th. Operators mentioned are: SV0XAW, SV1ENG, SV2FPU, SV2GNQ, SV2HNZ, SV2HOB, SV2HPP, SV2HPY SV2HRT and SV2HSV. QSL via SV2HPP. The team's Web site at: http://www.whitetowerdxt.com

EU-123. Members of the "Crocodile Rock Amateur Group" (CRAG) will be active as GM5C from Isle of Great Cumbrae during the IOTA Contest (July 26-27th). Operators mentioned are: Bob/GM0DEQ, Robbie/GM0SEI and Jennifer/MM0JJV, with the support from Livia (SWL) and Corrie. QSL via GM0SEI. ADDED NOTE: Bob, GM0DEQ, states, "The Scots Crocodile Rock Amateur Group (CRAG) has carried out several island DXpeditions over the past ten years including: 1997 Monach Islands GB6MI
1997 Isle of Little Cumbrae GM0DEQ/P
1998 Treshnish Islands GB5TI
1998 Staffa Island GB8FF
1999 Horse Island GB2NAG
1999 Treshnish Islands GB5TI
All of the above were QSL managed by group member and dear friend Eddie, GM0KVI [SK]. During the DXpedition to the island of Lunga, Treshnish in 1998, our trip ended when KVI suffered a massive heart attack and had to be airlifted by helicopter off the island. He survived but never made it back to full health and despite surgery he died in 2004. Recently, the circumstances of KVI's death and his QSL management appears to be the subject of ill informed gossip and innuendo. GM0DEQ and GM0SEI would like to point out that Eddie, who was a valued member of the group, insisted on remaining as QSL manager and as far as we are aware did a sterling job despite his severe health and personal difficulties, and that everyone who requested a QSL received one. However, we recognize that there may be some whom requested a QSL and did not receive one or who would now like one to complete an award. Anyone in this position should submit another request via the relevant GB call manager or direct to GM0DEQ, (9 Weston Place, Prestwick, KA9 2ED, SCOTLAND, UK) who has now recently recovered the logs and some original cards for these DXpeditions from personal effects held by KVI's family."

EU-135. Operators Anders/SM5EFX, Johan/SM5XZB and Per/SM5XZC will be active as SM5EFX/2 from Ledskar Island for the entire month of July (July 1-31st). Look for sporadic activations during July and participation in the RSGB IOTA Contest (July 26-27th).
QSL via SM5EFX.

EU-170. Bill, ON5JE, will be active as 9A/ON5JE from Pag Island (ACIA 188, CIA-32, IOCA CI-082, MIA MC-282, WLOTA LH-1796) between June 21st and July 5th. Activity will be on/near the ususual island and IOTA frequencies. QSL via his home callsign.

NA-044. Juergen, NF6J, will be active as VO2/NF6J from Battle Island (CISA NF-049), Newfoundland & Labrador, June 25-30th. Activity will be on/near the usual island and IOTA frequencies. QSL via DL7RV (QRZ.com).

NA-140. The father and son team of Randy/WS4C and Ben/AI4SK will be active from Middle Hooper Island (USI MD-016S, Dorchester County, Maryland), June 26-27th. They hope to have two stations on the air using CW and SSB near the following frequencies: 14260, 14040, 7180 (also listening near 7075 if band open), 7030, 3820 and 3530 kHz. QSL via AI4SK, direct or by the bureau.

J6, ST. LUCIA. Bill, WB5ZAM, will once again be active here as J68WI between October 16-30th. No contesting is planned, but activity will be on 30-10 meters as the bands allow, and 6 meters if open. No low bands.
QSL via WB5ZAM.

MDF IN NOVA SCOTIA. The Halifax Amateur Radio Club (HARC) invites DXers, contesters and HF enthusiasts to the Fifth Annual Maritime DX Forum (MDF).

contacted at: ve1qd@rac.ca or at (902) 823-2761.

its new officers for 2008-2009 on Saturday, June 14th. Officers are:

PIRATE ALERT! Phil, G3SWH (AD5YS), informs that his good friend Albert, 5R8GZ, tells him the station currently operating as 5R8/IW1GTO is a pirate station without licence and is unknown by the Office Malagasy d'Etudes et Telecommunications Regulatory Board (OMERT), the local licensing authority in Madagascar.

QSL INFO AND NEWS.....
QSL OH0B via OH2BH. From a press release by Jarmo, OH2BN:
"OH0B - Midsummer in Aland Islands, June 19-22nd -- Not many people have probably thought about the meaning of Midsummer for the folks up in Northern Europe and specifically those rituals that are related to Aland Islands. Maybe not even about the reason why OH0 ranks as another DXCC counter. Simply, Aland is a highly modern society of some 27,000 people and a dozen or so active hams. Also, it is home to three super stations stuck away at different points of the archipelago.
To reach Aland Islands one needs to take a ferry from mainland Finland.
See more details at http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/%C3%85land_Islands
It was 28 years ago when Martti, OH2BH and Leena, OH2BE visited the easternmost island of the Aland group - Brando - and fell in love with its beauty and remoteness plus the instant pileups always created from there. And that marked the beginning of what is now one of the well-known super stations frequently active with several callsigns. In terms of hardware, the latest addition there was an 80M beam that was put up last autumn.
That particular occasion almost thirty years ago was the Midsummer celebration which is very special to these islands. This weekend Martti and Leena will be on that same mission, and you will hear OH0B activated mostly on 20M SSB. QSL via OH2BH. http://www.visitaland.com/en "

QSL STATUS OF ST2DZ AND YI9AJ. QSL Manager Steve, OM3JW, informs OPDX that the ST2DZ and YI9AJ QSLs will be back from the printer in August, and the start of confirmations will go out at the end of August. Be patient please.

TL8PB QSLS? (OPDX Readers want to know!) Has anyone received a QSL from this DXpedition which was held in Central African Republic in April 2007, by TL8PB. QSL route was LA0HF. We would appreciate any information you can share about this DXpedition.

VP6DX QSL UPDATE. OPDX readers are suggested to read the very long comprehensive press release (dated June 18th) on the VP6DX DXpedition's Web site at: http://ducie2008.dl1mgb.com/news/index.php
An excerpt from the release states: "An earlier press release stated that we expected QSL cards to enter the postal system in mid-April. We must apologize for failing to meet that deadline. Our printer offered us an opportunity to send an extraordinary QSL card. The direct-mail 'card' will be a 36-page booklet, sponsored by the QSL-Shop and Knut Theurich, DG0ZB, (http://qslshop.com). This booklet has the same dimensions as a QSL card, and contains over 80 color photos and maps. The text includes information about the major sponsors, Ducie Island history, and the VP6DX project. With a thickness of 1mm, the VP6DX QSL will fit in standard QSL card display holders. Not surprisingly, it takes much more time to design and prepare for printing a 36-page booklet than a standard QSL card. We submitted the complete draft of the card design to the printer on May 14th. During the next several weeks we worked together with the printer to resolve technical layout issues and to proofread the final design. The final proof was approved on June 6 and printing of 20,000 cards began on June 9th. Last Friday June 13th more than 500 kg (1100 lb) of cards were shipped to the QSL team which should arrive around the end of this week. We hope you will find this special card worth the additional waiting time..... Note: Because QSL bureaus are not equipped to handle a booklet, VP6DX QSLs delivered via the bureau will use a normal card with color photographs." Other details in the press release deal with:
* QSL processing status.
* Donors without callsigns in the database.
* Instructions for donors who have made an on-line QSL request, but have not received LOTW credit.
* List of donors without callsigns as of Monday, June 16th, 2008

SILENT KEY. It is with great sadness to report that well-known YL DXer and recently inducted into the CQ DX Hall of Fame, Nellie Saltiel de Lazard, XE1CI, became a "Silent Key" (SK) on Monday, June 16th. She had been fighting Pancreatic cancer. DXers around the world will miss this YL's signal on the air. OPDX and its readers would like to pass on our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Nellie.

SV5, DODECANESE. Gerhard, OE3GEA, will be active as SV5/OE3GEA from Rhodes (EU-001, MIA MGD-028, WLOTA LH-0045) between August 11-17th. Activity will be on 40-10 meters CW, using only 30 watts. QSL via his home callsign, direct or by the bureau.

TO5, ST. BARTHELEMY (Update). Ed, W0SD, updates OPDX readers on their 6 meters DXpedition to St. Barthelemy which will take place between June 28th through July 6th. Operators Arliss/W7XU, Holly/N0QJM and Ed/W0SD will be active as TO5E. Ed requests, "Please do not give us your grid square. We are not interested in your grid square and it just wastes time. Our grid square will be FK87nv for those wanting to confirm this as a new grid square. There will be some night time HF RTTY and CW operation on 30 and 20 meters when 6 meters sporadic E is over for the day." Their approximate/sporadic HF activities will take place between 0200-1000z on the following bands and modes: CW - 10103 and 14023 kHz, RTTY - 10123 and 14080 kHz, and SSB - 14195 and 14260 kHz. Activity on 6 meters will be on 50103 kHz CW/SSB listening up as directed. They will have an on-line logs search on their Web site (thanks to logsearch.DE) which will be uploaded nightly at: http://www.w0sd.com/stbart/bart.htm If you are in the log, please don't call to decrease the chance of others. The QSL route is via W7XU, direct or by the Bureau. Bureau cards will take quite sometime and eventually they hope to upload all QSOs to LoTW after all the QSLing has taken place which is likely to be mid 2009.

V3, BELIZE. Operators Eddy/K5WQG and Colin/KU5B will be active as V31MR and V31UB, repsectively, from Placencia, Belize, July 7-21st. Activity will be mostly CW, with some SSB and RTTY. They are planning a Multi/Single entry in the IARU HF Championship (July 12-13th). QSL V31UB via KU5B and V31MR via N5ET.

VE2008, CANADA (Special Event). Look for special event station VE2008VQ to be active from June 28th to July 27th. Activity will be on 80-6 meters to celebrate the 400th anniversary of the foundation of Quebec City. Operators will be VE2HO, VE2AWR, VA2RIO, VE2TKH and others from Quebec City. QSL card for this event is via Serge, VE2AWR, direct or by the bureau.

YN, NICARAGUIA. Wayne, W5KDJ, will be active as YN2KDJ from YN2N's station in Granada, Nicaragua, July 3-14th. Activity will be on 160-6 meters with priority on 160\80 meters. Operations will be on CW/RTTY and the IARU Contest (July 12-13th). QSL via W5KDJ, eQSL and the LoTW. Online log will be available at: http://dx.qsl.net/logs/

ZS8, MARION ISLANDS. There is still no activity reported. For updates and the first offical announcement of ZS8T being on the air, please visit the official ZS8T Web site at: http://zs8t.net

The truth is this Riley Hollingswoth did not have anything on me, in regards to my part 15 station. Fact: Riley sent the first warning letter one year after Omega One Radio went off the air on it's own. The hard drive went out and I didn't feel like drive 250 miles to get a new one. Fact: The information that Riley asked for was information that he had gotten off the internet. NO where in my transmissions did I mention Todd O'Dochartaigh N9OGL, Nor Langley Park Studios. The ONLY thing Omega One did was played music. There was no commentary at all. Fact after I gave the information the FCC wanted this same group, which runs ve7kfm.com informed Riley Hollingsworth that I was lying based on information they had gotten off the internet. Fact Riley claims that some one t the FCC heard the station yet has shown any proof what so every, that they did hear it. I also know they didn't check the field strength and therefore they have no proof what so ever. It has been five months since the second letter and nothing, proving what I've been saying this who time, the FCC does not have the information, what worse-is that the FCC listen to a group of radio operators, who are vindictive and is giving the FCC misinformation. I say good ridden to Riley Hollingsworth, I think the FCC, Congress and or the courts should review all of his actions since he got that job, because chance are that he probably screwed a lot of people out of a license.

That's after the fact dumb-ass, BTW all Riley and the FCC had to do is admit they were wrong, instead they got the Amateur community all worked up about me along with that HATE site VE7KFM.COM. Which reminds me, They've been kind of quiet since I bitched to the FBI about them and gave the FBI a link to them and NIM BUSTERS. If anyone should go to jail it's Riley, the scums that own VE7KFM.COM.

Nyky��n panikointi ydinvoimaa vastaan on niin suurta, ett suorastaan h�mm�stytt��!?Tulee eitt�m�tt mieleen taannoinen keskustelu, jossa kyseltiin mm. Heiniluomalta ja Kataiselta mielipiteit��n siit mit mielt ovat ydinvoiman "l�helleenrakentamisesta?" Vastaus tulee kuin tykin suusta kuorossa: "sulaa HULLUUTTA!".. ..�� just joo ja nyt t�t samaa kiteytet��n lehdet mustina vakuuttamalla, ettei kukaan selv�j�rkinen sied ydinvoimaa en�� edes 100km s�teelleen itsest��n, vaan nyt pit�� saada v�limatkaa satoja, jollei jo tuhansia kilometrej!!

Aika hurjaa muutosta muuten. Kun luvin miten viel esim 80-luvulla esim. Ruotsissa haluttiin aivan yleisesti jopa Tukholmaan ydinvoimaa! Siis ihan simppeli kysymys. Mik on maassamme her�tt�nyt t�m�n massiivisen ja maankattavan kammon ydinvoimaan. Vastavaa en ole IKIN n�hnyt! Miksi ihmeess lehdet pursuavat t�t samaa viesti:" Mit kauemmas sen v�h�kalmaisempaa mulle ydinvoimaa?!"

Toki Antti vahtera 1978 kirjoittamassa kirjassaan kertoi muutoksen johtuneen ruotsalaisten gastan voimalan vuotokatastrofiin kaatumisista ja my s esim Marvikenin ydinvoimalakatastrofin jo 1970-luvulla vaikuttaneen, kun ei t�ytt�nyt kansainv�lisi ydinturvanormeja laitos alasajettiin v�hin ��nin. Itse asiassa plasmafyysikko professori Hannes Alfven lopulta ydintuhovaarasta vetosi suoraan Ruotsin p��ministeriin tulppaillen maan silloisen ydinintoilukiiman. Ydinhallinto katkaisi kostotyyliiin tiedon ydinvaaroista antaneen professorin rahoitukset (,vertaa Aranda/Oulun mehil�istutkimusalasajoon mm. -08 alussa!). Valtiopainostus Hannesta vastaan p��tyi t�st teollisuustutkijasta valtiop�iville. Kuten ydinalalla on tapana ollut totuuden puhuja ajettiin maanpakoon USA:han! Asia sai niin kiusallista julkisuutta, ett my s Ruotsin uraanikaivos Rantadissa p��tettiin my s sulkea ydinvaarojensa tultua julki laajalti. Antti Vahtera; (ydinenergian uhkapeli) kipakoituu: "Silloisia ydinhankkeista kuvastui edelleen joksenkin t�ydellinen tiet�m�tt�myys ydinenergian riskeist, mm. Tukholmaydinvoimalahankkeissa, V�tanin sataman, ja esim. Haningenin ydinkaukol�mp-, s�hk�laitoshankkeissa!"

Niin tulee tosiaan mieleen, ett vastako nyt aletaan ydinvaaroja ymm�rt�m��n vaivoin Suomessa, kun aiempaa edes 100km ei pidet turvarajana? On aivan ILMEIST , ett n�m esitt�m�ni loisteliaat uudenkertovat beettasoihtufaktat ja muut mekanismireaalini siit miten LAAJALLE ydintuhot ohi mittausten levi�� alkavat purra huimasti n�hty paniikkia p��tt�jiimme tuoden. Jopa sadasti rajumin, kun edes ikin alkujaan arvelin! Hianoa silt osin, ett turvaharhat karisevat. Olemme kuin kala kultakalamaljassa, jossa turvaa EI OLE ydinp��st�ilt omilta ydinp��st�ilt en�� MISS��N(!!

975. Field Day Plans....

Hi everyone:

Yep! If you see LIVE video on my newly-created Field Day page @ http://www.qsl.net/kb0oxd/fieldday/ that means I'm working the bands. The broadcast is powered by BlogTV (Their URL is http://www.blogtv.com/ for those who don't know and are looking for a good home for their cam BTW). You can also see the video COMPLETE WITH LIVE CHAT simply by going to http://www.blogtv.com/People/kb0oxd and following any onscreen instructions there.

In addition, I will be monitoring SEVERAL Internet-based DX Clusters on the computer for any activity which is headed for my QTH (Denver, CO USA - DM79). This will be done to avoid wasting bandwith unneccessarily and making futile CQ calls.

I will primarily be on 6M USB, though I will be more than happy to work locals on 144 & 432 as well. I'll also be logging contacts and will post them here for your convience and so you may use that to cross-reference my information with what you have.

IF THE DX IS ROLLING IN - I'm looking at being on cam from 10:00 AM till 2:00 PM in 90 minute increments. I'll then return on cam once I get the first four parts downloaded and moved off BlogTV so that I can archive anything in the evening on Saturday. I may be on cam on Sunday, then again, I may not. It all depends on how things go down.

The reason I will be breaking the archives down into 90 minute archives is because BlogTV only allows up to 500 minutes (That's not quite 4.5 hours, but close enough) of disk space before you have to delete a show/segment, which of course I'm NOT about to do. :)

IF THE DX IS NOT ROLLING IN - I will start broadcasting at 11:00 AM since some Field Day stations will begin operating at that time and will go from there as above (Just one hour later).

I'll also be on EchoLink, but I will be in BUSY mode with Conferencing disabled with a "CQ FD 6M USB" or similar message in the dialog box. This way, if the DX is rolling in on 6M USB, all EchoLink stations will need to do is find me on the band. :)

So....That's what I'll be doing this weekend. :)

This video feed will also be used for other Ham-Related events as well (Info. on those events will be posted as warranted).

Cheers & 73 :D

Where is a "froger"? Is that the Frogger game that is so popular of late?

And what is "obessing"? I can't seem to find that in any of my dictionaries.

Some folks think that Mark is less than intelligent, and he says he isn't.

Then he makes one of many stupid posts and proves that he is.

Nyky��n panikointi ydinvoimaa vastaan on niin suurta, ett� suorastaan h�mm�stytt��!?Tulee eitt�m�tt� mieleen taannoinen keskustelu, jossa kyseltiin mm. Heiniluomalta ja Kataiselta mielipiteit��n siit� mit� mielt� ovat ydinvoiman "l�helleenrakentamisesta?" Vastaus tulee kuin tykin suusta kuorossa: "sulaa HULLUUTTA!".. ..�� just joo ja nyt t�t� samaa kiteytet��n lehdet mustina vakuuttamalla, ettei kukaan selv�j�rkinen sied� ydinvoimaa en�� edes 100km s�teelleen itsest��n, vaan nyt pit�� saada v�limatkaa satoja, jollei jo tuhansia kilometrej�!!

Aika hurjaa muutosta muuten. Kun luvin miten viel� esim 80-luvulla esim. Ruotsissa haluttiin aivan yleisesti jopa Tukholmaan ydinvoimaa! Siis ihan simppeli kysymys. Mik� on maassamme her�tt�nyt t�m�n massiivisen ja maankattavan kammon ydinvoimaan. Vastavaa en ole IKIN� n�hnyt! Miksi ihmeess� lehdet pursuavat t�t� samaa viesti�:" Mit� kauemmas sen v�h�kalmaisempaa mulle ydinvoimaa?!"

Toki Antti vahtera 1978 kirjoittamassa kirjassaan kertoi muutoksen johtuneen ruotsalaisten �gastan voimalan vuotokatastrofiin kaatumisista ja my�s esim Marvikenin ydinvoimalakatastrofin jo 1970-luvulla vaikuttaneen, kun ei t�ytt�nyt kansainv�lisi� ydinturvanormeja laitos alasajettiin v�hin ��nin. Itse asiassa plasmafyysikko professori Hannes Alfven lopulta ydintuhovaarasta vetosi suoraan Ruotsin p��ministeriin tulppaillen maan silloisen ydinintoilukiiman. Ydinhallinto katkaisi kostotyyliiin tiedon ydinvaaroista antaneen professorin rahoitukset (,vertaa Aranda/Oulun mehil�istutkimusalasajoon mm. -08 alussa!). Valtiopainostus Hannesta vastaan p��tyi t�st� teollisuustutkijasta valtiop�iville. Kuten ydinalalla on tapana ollut totuuden puhuja ajettiin maanpakoon USA:han! Asia sai niin kiusallista julkisuutta, ett� my�s Ruotsin uraanikaivos Rantadissa p��tettiin my�s sulkea ydinvaarojensa tultua julki laajalti. Antti Vahtera; (ydinenergian uhkapeli) kipakoituu: "Silloisia ydinhankkeista kuvastui edelleen joksenkin t�ydellinen tiet�m�tt�myys ydinenergian riskeist�, mm. Tukholmaydinvoimalahankkeissa, V�tanin sataman, ja esim. Haningenin ydinkaukol�mp�-, s�hk�laitoshankkeissa!"

Niin tulee tosiaan mieleen, ett� vastako nyt aletaan ydinvaaroja ymm�rt�m��n vaivoin Suomessa, kun aiempaa edes 100km ei pidet� turvarajana? On aivan ILMEIST� , ett� n�m� esitt�m�ni loisteliaat uudenkertovat beettasoihtufaktat ja muut mekanismireaalini siit� miten LAAJALLE ydintuhot ohi mittausten levi�� alkavat purra huimasti n�hty� paniikkia p��tt�jiimme tuoden. * PLEASE NOTE: The report "could" contain "Pirate/SLIM" operations or more likely a "BUSTED CALLSIGN". As always, you never know - "Work First Worry Later" (WFWL).

2M1, SCOTLAND (Satellites and Low-band). Paul, 2E1EUB, is active again as 2M1EUB/p from Cairngorms National Park near Aberdeen (IO87RJ) until July 4th. Activity will be on all satellites (but mainly AO7 SSB), 160/80 meters and some other HF SSB. QSL via his home callsign. Also, visit the QRZ.com Web page under 2M1EUB to see a picture of the location and QSL info.

4W, TIMOR-LESTE (Update). Xavier, EA3BHK, reported last week on Tuesday that the 4W6R team flew back home to Spain on a 30 hour flight from Dili (4W) - Darwin (VK) - Singapore (9V) - Paris (F) and finally Madrid. They wish to thank the ham radio community for the help and sponsorship. They made almost 16,000 QSOs, but found that the propagation was not good enough on many bands. The 4W6R Radiosolidarity Project has become a big success, now there is a fully equipped ham radio station at the University of Dili. They hope that this is a seed for having 4W stations on the air soon and regulary beacause the electronic students were very interested in this project. Remember to QSL via EA4URE, by the Bureau or direct to: P.O. Box 220, 28080 Madrid, SPAIN. Meanwhile, reports also indicate that Jose, CT1ERC, is expected to be there until early August and possibly operate from that station as either 4W6UTL or 4W6ERC. QSL via CT1ERC.

9M0, SPRATLY ISLANDS (Updated). Operators John/9M6XRO and Steve/9M6DXX will lead a team of six operators (James/9V1YC, Pete/SM5GMZ, Jay/W5SL and Tim/M3SDE) to Pulau Layang Layang, Spratly Islands (IOTA AS-051), some time in March 2009 (1-14th was mentioned earlier). Activity will be on all bands 80-10 meters, CW, SSB and RTTY, using three stations (two with full legal limit linear amps). The callsign is to be confirmed and the QSL information is via M3SDE (direct or by the Bureau). A new Web site has been set-up for updates, and now it has a poll on it for what bands are needed. Please visit the site at: http://www.spratly2009.com/

A3, TONGA (Looking for Dry Weather/Back on The Air!). Paul, A35RK, is finally getting back on the air after record-rainfall season. He informs OPDX that the waters are receding, but the bad weather has not only badly damaged their bush road (4WD required), but the lack of sunshine has severely restricted his availability of electrical power for several months. Paul states, "my 'play radio' time has also been limited....to brief periods of listening and QRP transmissions. However, our batteries are all charged up now, and I hope that I can be more active." Another problem has been his InterNet/E-mail access (no service whatsoever from mid-February until late April; then intermittent service for 2 weeks in May; and again a complete system failure from mid-May until today). Paul states that he will be installing a SteppIR "BIG IR" vertical with the 80m kit as soon as the ground dries out and he gets the house painted. His 3-element SteppIR yagi is working fine, and the 4-element 6M yagi is also up. Paul was heard this past week on 20 meters SSB just after 0215z.

AT6, India. On behalf of the Amateur Radio Society of India (ARSI), Prasad, VU2PTT, will be active in the IARU Contest using his special callsign AT6T as the HQ station. Look for AT6T giving out the ARSI multiplier on 80-10 meters using CW and SSB during the IARU Contest. Prasad has permission to use this callsign from July 1st through the end of September 2008. Look for this special callsign possibly in other contests as well. As usual, all QSOs will be uploaded to the ARRL's Logbook of the World (LoTW) and QSL requests may be made to VU2PTT direct (QRZ.COM) or via the ARSI Bureau. Please use the current IRC for direct requests, green stamps have a habit of disappearing in the postal system along with your QSL card. It is also not legal in India to send or receive currency by postal mail, and the recipient can get into trouble.

CARIBBEAN TOUR. Kenny/K2KW and his XYL Stephanie/KD8GKM will be heading to the Caribbean next month and will be active from Saba Island (NA-145) first as PJ6/K2KW and PJ6/KD8GKM between July 1-7th. Next stop will be St. Maarten where they will be active as PJ7/K2KW and PJ7/KD8GKM between July 8-10th. Activity will be on the HF bands as well as 6 meters. QSL via WA4WTG. Visit the following Web page for more information at: http://pj6-k2kw.blogspot.com/

CQ9, MADEIRA ISLANDS. Operators CT1BOL, CT1DSV, CT1EFS, CT1ENV, CT1FEK and CT1HFS will be active as CQ9U from Selvagens Island (AF-047), July 24-27th. Activity will include the RSGB IOTA Contest. QSL via CT1BOL. Visit the CQ9U Web site at: http://www.cq9u.com/en_default.html

CU2, AZORES. Andrea, IZ2LSC, will be active as CU2/IZ2LSC from Sao Miguel Island (EU-003), July 9-19th. Activity will be holiday style and mainly on 20 meters SSB using a FT-857 and End-Fed Zepp antenna. QSL via IZ2LSC, only by the Bureau or LoTW.

CY0, SABLE ISLAND (Update/Freq Change). The 6 meter DXpedition to Sable Island is now up and active through July 7th. Operators Pete/VE3IKV, Dick/K5AND and Chris/W3CMP will be active on CW and SSB. The fixed 6m station (in FN93) will use the callsign CY0X. They will be transmitting on 50.108 MHz. The team requests, "Please do NOT send your grid square as it consumes valuable time during an opening." The operators were very active this past weekend during Field Day. They will also try to activate rare grid GN03 if there is a solid opening using a portable station with a 5 element M2 6M5X yagi with the callsign CY0RA. The team will also plan on being on HF on 20 meters and 40 meters, CW and SSB - but the HF operation will always take lower priority over the 6 meter operation. The special callsign CY0X commemorates the 225th anniversary of the 1783 Loyalist landing in Nova Scotia:
http://www.loyalistlanding2008.org
QSL via VE3IKV (please include two green stamps). For updates, visit their Web page at: http://www.cy0x.com

Activity will be on all bands 80-6 meters on CW, SSB and Digital modes. An attractive colorful QSL is available. QSL to GB50OT via the bureau, or direct with return postage via QSL Manager G3VBE.

Members of the Rhein Ruhr DX Association (RRDXA) will be active as HB0/HB9AON and will be celebrating their 25th DXpedition to Triesenberg, Liechtenstein, between October 18-31st. NEW MANAGER. As of June 21st, Buzz, NI5DX, is the QSL Manager for Eric, Z21BC. Buzz has Eric's logs and can answer any QSO since the beginning of his activity, which was January of 2007. When QSLing to NI5DX from outside the U.S., please include a SAE (Self-Addressed Envelope) and a minimum of 1 USD or IRC. U.S. requests should include a SASE at a minimum. NI5DX reports that there has been an increase in foreign requests with only a SAE and nothing included for return postage. Buzz is trying to contact the requesting station via E-mail to see if they want to send postage or if they want the requested card put in the bureau. Buzz only sends cards to the outgoing bureau one time a year, usually in January, so a bureau requests could take a very long time to reach the station requesting a card from any of the DX stations managed by NI5DX.

Mark has no such thing as a "good name".
In fact, Mark has done more harm to his personna than anybody else has done.
He has committed Social Suicide all by himself.

Look around. Look at his flames.
Look at his idiotic posts.
Look at his blogs.

Then ask yourself if Mark has a "good name".

The answer is painfully obvious, even to the mentally impaired visitors who frequent these groups.

I rest my case.

1024. Please take a minute out to report Mark's spews to Google

Just as we were able to get Google to remove N9OGL's blog by clicking on an icon, it is possible that we can use a similar tactic to get Mark's Google Groups account(s) restricted or canceled. To help us out, you will need go to Google Groups first by using a link like

http://groups.google.com/group/rec.radio.amateur.policy/topics?hl=en

Once there, pick out one of Mark's "zzzzz ..." or similar messages by choosing almost any thread. You should see something like what is pictured at the link below:

http://tinyurl.com/6x3cyc

Click on the "Report this message" link, fill out the simple form, and submit it to Google (You do NOT have to be signed up with Google in order to make a report). If enough of us do so, Google should take notice and eventually take action to curtail Mark's spew.

I like to use the following text in the report form, which I modify slightly as required:

==(begin quote)==

This person (Mark Morgan) has been posting disruptive, identical messages through Google for over two years. When he reaches his posting limit on one account, he turns to another to continue his flooding. Regular members have been forced to start a moderated news group (rec.radio.amateur.moderated) to escape his abuse. On July 4th, he made 57 posts containing only "zzzzz ..." or "44444 ..." as a subject line.

==(end quote)==

Remember: It requires persistence; not a large number of complaints per day. Several of us are submitting one or two reports per day via the Google Groups form, and we intend to continue to submit such reports until we see some progress or hear from Google. The more people who complain, the better our chances are of being taken seriously by Google.

If Mark trots out new Google accounts, fine. We'll report them too. We managed to get Teranews to block him, and now let's work on Google.

If you can take the time out to make one nonsense post with respect to Mark, you can easily take the time out to file one daily complaint.

Thanks in advance for your help,
DeLorean

Just as we were able to get Google to remove N9OGL's blog by clicking on an icon, it is possible that we can use a similar tactic to get Mark's Google Groups account(s) restricted or canceled. To help us out, you will need go to Google Groups first by using a link like

http://groups.google.com/group/rec.radio.amateur.policy/topics?hl=en

Choose almost any thread, and then pick out one of Mark's "zzz..." or other messages. You should see something similar to what is pictured at the link below:

http://tinyurl.com/6x3cyc

Click on the "Report this message" link, fill out the simple form, and submit it to Google (You do NOT have to be signed up with Google in order to make a report). If enough of us do so, Google should take notice and eventually take action to curtail Mark's spew.

I like to use the following text in the report form, which I modify slightly as required:

==(begin quote)==

This person (Mark Morgan) has been posting disruptive, identical messages through Google for over two years. When he reaches his posting limit on one account, he turns to another to continue his flooding. Regular members have been forced to start a moderated news group (rec.radio.amateur.moderated) to escape his abuse. On July 4th, he made 57 posts containing only "zzzzz ..." or "44444 ..." as a subject line.

==(end quote)==

Remember: It requires persistence; not a large number of complaints per day. Several of us are submitting one or two reports per day via the Google Groups form, and we intend to continue to submit such reports until we see some progress or hear from Google. The more people who complain, the better our chances are of being taken seriously by Google.

If Mark trots out new Google accounts, fine. We'll report them too. We managed to get Teranews to block him, and now let's work on Google.

If you can take the time out to make one nonsense post with respect to Mark, you can easily take the time out to file one daily complaint.

Thanks in advance for your help,
DeLorean

There's an easier way! Just fill out some online ad's for hardcore gay pr0n using Morkie's real name but use his next-door neighbor's mail/post address. Can you just see Mork's face when his next-door neighbor's knocks on his door with copies of Blueball-Boys, Playgirl, Hot Male Studnik's and similar gay hardcore magazines that they "mis-delivered".....? (rotflmao!) "Gee Markie I didn;'t know you were

No. Your existing antenna covers all the frequencies just fine.

Note however that there can be some optimizations in future antenna design as the entire range from analog TV is NOT used in DTV. Channels 2-6 and 52-69 will no longer be used, so the longest and shortest elements in current designs may be eliminated (or replaced with additional elements in the mid-range).

I doubt that it will work.
There is a known bug in their gmail mail servers that allows the Nigerians to send their scams using those servers as an open relay (effectively) and bypassing some spam scanners.
This must be known to Google. I have been sending a few abuse reports a day to them for months, and I still have to receive the first reply beyond the initial autoreply message. And they still have not fixed the bug in their servers. Apparently they don't care much about abuse.

Hello.

Here in the UK analogue aerials may not work for digital signals.
My local UHF analogue transmitter uses channels close to each other. My local digital transmitter, on the other hand, uses channels spaced widely apart and a wideband aerial may be necessary.

Regards, Ian.
Nottingham, UK.

In the Netherlands (one of the first countries to completely switch to digital), the old analog transmitters were horizontally polarized and the new digital transmitters are vertically polarized.
So while an existing UHF yagi can be used for digital, it has to be mounted differently.
(it also may have to be directed differently as there are more transmitter sites in use)

DeLorean: Be advised, if you take this action to its conclusion and manage to get Mark's account banned, in reprisal for his attempts to muffle his stalker, the paltry bit of spamming he has done will one day be looked back upon as the "good old days", and I can assure you that is no mere threat. Instead, I suggest you focus your efforts on LARTing the k00k who is obsessed with Morse Code -- the one to whom I am replying, who is also known as "Punceorama", and various takes on Mark's name, his wife's, and his callsign. The vast majority of his posts consist of a single word, such as the above, and are devoid of informative or entertaining content. His intent is to harass Mark off of ham radio, due to Mark's lack of ability with Morse, and has additionally become an intent to get him off usenet.
